Janet Jackson sees album soar • Columbia enjoys a purple patch

CHART FOCUS

And the winner is...just about anyone who managed to get a decent amount of exposure at the Oscars last week. It's a strange but true fact that the Oscars have more of an effect on British record buyers than the Grammys, even though the former celebrate cinematic achievement and the latter concentrate on musical merit.

The BBC's decision to give over two hours of prime time to the Oscars has paid big dividends for nominees this week. The main winners are: Janet Jackson who performed Again. She didn't win a prize, but her album Janet - which was advertised on tv during the week - halves its position from number 58 to 29.

Michael Nyman's stirring soundtrack for The Piano rebounds from 101 to 39, claiming its highest chart position to date. John Williams's soundtrack to Schindler's List leaps from number 173 to 59 after the movie's multiple win. And the Philadelphia soundtrack moves up from 11 to 5 on the compilation chart after Bruce Springsteen and Neil Young performed during the Oscars telecast.

Springsteen's Streets Of Philadelphia registers a 40% sales increase, to move up to number two on the singles chart, some 13 years after his chart debut, and 21 years after his first single. It's his biggest hit ever and is the jewel in Columbia's crown this week being one of six singles on the label in the Top 40 joining hits from Mariah

It was issued on CD only last week, but that was not enough to stop Madonna's latest single I'll Remember from beginning her 32nd Top 10 hit. Maddy's had 33 hits in all - Lucky Star peaked at number 14 - and far out-performs any other female singer/songwriter having contributed to the writing of 26 of her hits. Runner up Kate Bush has written 19 of her 21 hits but scores extra credibility as she wrote them all herself while Madonna usually works with co-writers. The only hits she has written completely alone are Lucky Star and Gambler. I'll Remember is the first hit written jointly by Madonna and Pat Leonard since 1990's Hanky Panky.

Carey, Alison Moyet, Roachford, Jimmy Cliff and Deacon Blue. That is pretty good - but in a previous life as an EMI imprint, Columbia had six singles in the top 11 on May 8 1965.

While Columbia's purple patch is good news for Sony, Warner Music is digging deep into its catalogue for album chart success. The company's vigorous mid-price campaign brings back into the chart albums by Tracy Chapman, Fleetwood Mac, The Eagles, Madonna and Led Zeppelin, whose Four Symbols album scorches to number 55 making its first chart appearance since 1980.

Back in the singles chart, while Doop continue to hold down the number one spot - though Springsteen, Take That and Prince should all surge past it next week - there is plenty of comfort for those worried about the speed of the chart. Eight records climb inside the Top 40, including the incredible Reel 2 Reel phenomenon I Like To Move It, which climbs two more notches to enter the top 5 for the first time after eight weeks in the top 12.

Great? Britain? No, not if the Top 10 is anything to go by. The most important part of the singles chart is lacking home-grown artists. The only representative is Ulsterman Peter Dinklage whose Dream's U R The Best Thing moves up to number 4.

Finally it's not often there are simultaneous hits sharing the same title but that's the case at the moment with Marcella Detroit and Sounds of Blackness both affirm I Believe. With four previous nineties hits also called I Believe it's become the second most used title in chart history behind Tonight which has been used nine times.

Alan Jones.

NEWCOMERS

13 JX: Son Of A Gun (Internal Dance) UK debut. Producer: Jake Williams. Publisher: Hooj Music/Mute. Writer: Williams. Line-up: Jake Williams (k), Billie Godfrey (v). Notes: This faceless, studio-created track first appeared on the Hooj Choons label more than two months ago before being picked up by Internal Dance, home of Cappella. Album: none planned.

33 PULP: Do You Remember The First Time? (Island) UK 2nd hit. Producer: Buller. Publisher: Island. Writer: Cocker/Senior/Mackey/Banks/Doyle. First/last hit: Lip Gloss (50, 1993). Line-up: Jarvis Cocker (v), Steve Mackey (b), Russell Senoir (g), Candida Doyle (k), Nick Banks (d). Notes: To accompany the single, the group have made a film in which they interview the rich and semi-famous about losing their virginity! The Sunday Times recently described their songs as being like Mike Leigh plays set to music, "little kitsch 'n' sink dramas about urban deprivation and strange sex". Album: His 'n' Hers (April 11).

42 YAZZ: Have Mercy (Polydor) UK 9th hit. Producer: Jervier/Wales/Jervier. Publisher: Empire/Hit And Run. Writer: Hammond/Peiken. First hit (with Coldcut): Doctorin' The House (6, 1988). Biggest hit: The Only Way Is Up (1, 1988). Last hit (with Aswad): How Long (31, 1993). Notes: Yasmin Evans returns with a strong dancefloor-aimed track that has already made the top five of the RM Club Chart. Album: One On One (April 18).

47 ECHOBELLY: Insomniac (Fauve/Rhythm King) UK debut. Producer: Clive Martin. Publisher: Copyright Control. Writer: Madan/Johansson. Line-up: Sonya Madan (v), Glenn Johansson (g), Alexander Keyser (b), Andy Henderson (d). Notes: The band are currently spreading the word in the US with Morrissey. This second single from the London quartet after their debut EP on their own Pandemonium label has been compared to The Smiths' best work. While on tour the band had to call on Curve's guitarist Debbie Smith to replace Johansson who broke his arm while celebrating a friend's birthday. Album: none planned.

55 BONE: Wings Of Love (Deconstruction) UK debut. Producer: James Ormandy/Sam Mollison. Publisher: KO Music. Writer: Ormandy/Mollison. Line-up: Sparrow (k), Sam Mollison (v). Notes: Former Derby County apprentice footballer, Sparrow now teams with vocalist Sam Mollison on the lead track, while the B-side, So In Love, introduces the dulcet tones of Carleen's sister, Pamela Anderson. Sparrow was one of the leading exponents of the legendary Blackburn raves in the Eighties. Album: summer 1994.

58 SMOOTH TOUCH: House Of Love (In My House) (Six6/Strictly Rhythm) US debut. Producer: Morillo/Lewis. Publisher: Strictly Rhythm/Mega Platinum. Writer: Morillo/Lewis. Line-up: Erick Morillo (k), Kenny Lewis (k). Notes: The fourth hit to emerge from NY's Strictly Rhythm this year. House Of Love first appeared on import last August before being remixed and picked up by Birmingham's Six6 label in February. Album: none planned.

UK RECORDING STUDIOS FOCUS

A return to a positive outlook and fully booked rooms at many UK Studios, is well overdue.

Music Week's Special Focus will report on the reasons why.
