NICK WHY DO
GREEN NEED TO KNOW THE SINGLE

● Prince scores first number one ● Pink Floyd's Dark Side tops 13m in US

CHART FOCUS

Prince's 37th hit as a recording artist becomes his first number one this week, as The Most Beautiful Girl In The World topples Take That's Everything Changes. Two other Prince compositions have topped the chart - I Feel For Your by Chaka Khan in 1984 and Nothing Compares To U by Sinead O'Connor in 1990 - but prior to this latest single's success, Prince held the record for most hits as an artist without a number one. As well as being Prince's first number one, it's the first for Music Of Life and Midlands-based distributor Terry Blood, who together handled the single in place of Prince's usual company Warner.

The chart's highest new entry this week comes from Erasure (see story, right) whose Always debuts at number four. As veterans, they might have expected to make a high flying debut, but their success is nearly matched by Canadian band Crash Test Dummies, whose first hit Mmm Mmm Mmm Mmm enters the chart at number five. It's the longest vowel-free hit title to date, beating Fleetwood Mac's Gypsy by some distance.

Consistency is still the name of the game for Reel 2 Real, whose Positiva single I Like To Move It stays at number seven in its 11th week on the chart. It has sold no fewer than 270,000 copies so far without climbing above number five. No record has sold so many copies in the nineties without reaching the Top 3.

Nearly two years after their Abba-Esque topped the singles chart, Erasure return with Always, which debuts at number four this week. It's the 19th hit for the duo of Andy Bell and Vince Clarke, and the ninth to make the top five. Bell was plucked from obscurity in Peterborough to become Clarke's partner in Erasure, while Clarke's own pedigree includes stints with Depeche Mode, Yazoo and The Assembly. In all, Clarke has had 28 hits, including - in this order - songs called Never, Never, Sometimes and Always. That's progress.

I Like To Move It's sales were buoyed this week by an airing on Top Of The Pops. It is worth noting that, aside from the number one, no fewer than six of the eight other records played on TOTP last week were Thorn-EMI releases - a result of the new flexibility in TOTP's policies, since under old guidelines only one of the six records would have qualified to be played. Other labels, who make up more than 80 per cent of the UK market, must be less happy by such events, however random they may be.

It's a great week for another EMI act, Pink Floyd, whose The Division Bell continues at the top of the UK album chart while making its debut at number one in America. It's the third week in a row it's come out top of the stack here, giving the group its longest running number one yet. In America, as in Britain, The Division Bell is the Floyd's fourth number one. Their previous US chart-toppers are Dark Side Of The Moon (1973), Wish You Were Here (1975) and The Wall (1980).

To add to the band's big week, it has just been announced that Dark Side Of The Moon has been certified platinum for the 13th time in America, indicating sales of more than 13m. This makes it the fourth biggest seller of all-time Stateside.

Finally, the recent death of Kurt Cobain continues to spark sales of Nirvana albums with Nevermind (UK: 46 to 23, US: 167 to 56), In Utero (UK: 77 to 25, US: 72 to 27), Incesticide (UK: 177 to 57, US: re-entry to 135) and Bleach (re-entry at 79) all benefitting. At the same time, Hole - the band fronted by Cobain's widow Courtney Love - make their most effective foray yet with the newly-released and ironically-titled Live Through This debuting at number 13 in the UK.
