Wet Wet Wet high and dry ● Ace Of Base take their time to reach top

CHART FOCUS

Taking their cue from Bryan Adams, who had a lengthy stay at number one with a ballad from a film soundtrack which was not, at the time, on an album of its own, Wet Wet Wet continue their lengthy stay at number one courtesy of their remake of Love Is All Around. Now in its fifth week in the top slot, the song is included on the soundtrack album to Four Weddings And A Funeral, but not an album by the group themselves.

It continues to sell at an impressive rate and, even though it has eased off slightly in the past two weeks, the song is still selling as many copies as the number two and three placed singles added together.

But while Bryan Adams went on to accumulate an incredible 16 weeks at number one, Wet Wet Wet's reign is likely to be ended. If Not by All-4-One, who have a rare double by topping the UK and the US singles chart simultaneously, then by Take That, whose new single, Love Ain't Here Anymore, is released today (Monday).

The week's highest new entry comes from Reel 2 Real, whose Go On Move debuts at number seven. As it does so, their impressive debut smash, I Like To Move It, finally drops out of the chart after a 20-week run.

Ace Of Base's Don't Turn Around slips a notch to number six, but the Swedish group's Happy Nation clambers to the top of the albums chart, becoming the second album in

The Cranberries' Everybody Else Is Doing It, So Why Can't We? became only the fifth album to reach number one for the first time after more than a year on the chart when it climbed to pole position last week. The album made its chart debut in March of last year, at 64, before dropping out. The album was reactivated last November, failing to chart at all. The Cranberries then had their first hit single with Linger, which reached 11. The album was then re-released in March, debuting at three. The subsequent success of a second single, Dreams, at 27, and a TV campaign finally lifted the album to number one last week.

consecutive weeks, but only the sixth ever, to reach the summit more than a year after its chart debut. The Cranberries (see picture) achieved a similarly historic feat a week ago. Meanwhile, the group which first had a hit with Don't Turn Around, Aswad, gather their first Top 10 hit since then as Shine jumps from 19 to nine. They are the reggae group's only two Top 10 hits in their 19-year career.

Disproving the truism that novelties have a limited chart life, Manchester United Football Squad's Come On You Reds enjoys its 11th week on the Top 20, some weeks after the domestic season ended. It is not the only football-related record in the chart either. As World Cup fever grips, Leonard Bernstein's 1985 rendition of America, from West Side Story, debuts at number 44. Currently the theme to the BBC's coverage of USA '94, it has some way to go to match the peak of Luciano Pavarotti's Nesso Dorma, which the corporation used four years ago for Italia '90. The official World Cup theme, meanwhile, Gloryland, by Daryl Hall And The Sounds Of Blackness, debuts at number 36. The lyrics of the song are new, but the tune itself was written nearly 200 years ago. It was originally known as Says Brothers, Will You Meet Me, then became the folk song, John Brown's Body. It was later used as the basis for the Battle Hymn Of The Republic, and the hymn Glory, Glory, Hallelujah. The Battle Hymn Of The Republic actually charted in the UK in 1972, reaching number eight, as part of Elvis Presley's American Trilogy, while the tune climbed as high as 13 in 1983, with new lyrics again, as Glory, Glory, Man United by the famous – and aforementioned – football club.

NEWCOMERS

11 OASIS: Shakermaker (Creation) UK 2nd hit. First/last hit: Supersonic (31, 1994). Line-up: Liam Gallagher (v), Noel Gallagher (v), Paul Arthurs (g), Paul McGuigan (b), Tony Carroll (d). Notes: Evoking musical memories of the New Seekers' I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing, Oasis, the current darlings of the alternative music press, penetrate the Top 20 with their second single. Album: September.

14 JULIET ROBERTS: Caught In The Middle (Cooltempo) UK 4th hit. First/biggest hit: Caught In The Middle (24, 1993). Last hit: Again/I Want You (33, 1994). Notes: Only the second record in the AM Club Chart's 15-year history to reach the pinnacle on two separate occasions – The Power by Nu Colours being the other. Morales and K-Klass mixes revitalised the song which was also the number one club record of 1993. The ex-Working Week vocalist's album has sold nearly 200,000 copies in the US. Album: Natural Thing (out now).

16 AALIYAH: Back And Forth (Jive) US debut. Notes: In America this is a current top five hit and a former R&B number one. Aaliyah is the teenage prodigy of swingbeat artist R. Kelly, writer and producer of her debut single and album, which includes a sultry remake of the Isley Brothers' At Your Best (You Are Love). Album: Age Ain't Nothing But A Number (July 11).

21 KWS & GWEN DICKEY: Ain't Nobody (Loves Me Better) (X-clusive) UK/US 6th hit. First/biggest hit: Please Don't Go/Gone Boy (1, 1992). Last hit: It Seems To Hang On (58, 1994). Line-up: Chris King (k/v), Winnie Williams (k/v), Gwen Dickey (v). Notes: The succession of KWS cover versions continues with Rufus and Chaka Khan's Eighties soul anthem. The group's next single will be an update with Teddy Pendergrass of his Philly floor-filler, The More I

Get The More I Want. Dickey formerly sang with Rose Royce. Album: winter.

36 DARYL HALL & SOUNDS OF BLACKNESS: Gloryland (Mercury) US 5th/5th hit. Hall – First/biggest hit: Dreamtime (28, 1986). Last hit: Help Me Find A Way To Your Heart (70, 1994). SOB – First hit: Optimistic (45, 1991). Biggest/last hit: I Believe (17, 1994). Notes: ITV's theme music to the World Cup is a song based on probably the most historic piece of American music – The Battle Hymn Of The Republic (Glory Glory Hallelujah). It is also known as both the hymn Mine Eyes Have Seen The Glory Of The Coming Of The Lord and the folk song John Brown's Body. Their performance at the opening ceremony was reported to have had an audience of nearly 2bn. Album: Gloryland (out now).

44 LEONARD BERNSTEIN/ORCHESTRA & CHORUS: America (Deutsche Grammophon) US debut. Notes: A posthumous debut on the singles chart for conductor Leonard Bernstein. The original film soundtrack to West Side Story, which in 1962 spent 13 of its 175 weeks on the album chart in pole position. Album: Highlights From West Side Story (out now).

54 IAN McNABB: You Must Be Prepared To Dream (This Way Up) UK 2nd hit. First/last hit: If Love Was Like Guitars (67, 1993). Notes: McNabb was the founder of Icicle Works in the early Eighties. He disbanded the group a few years ago to concentrate on his solo career. The single features the rhythm section from Crazy Horse, Neil Young's backing band, the first time they have recorded with any other musician without Young at the helm. They also guest on other tracks on the forthcoming LP. Album: Head Like A Rock (July 4).

57 SHAWN CHRISTOPHER: Make My Love (BTB/Champion) US 3rd hit. First hit: Another Sleepless Night (50, 1991). Biggest/last hit: Don't Lose The Magic (30, 1992). Notes: The first hit for Champion's BTB imprint was a recent AM Club Chart top three hit. Hailing from Chicago, Christopher previously recorded an album for Arista. Album: October.

61 VERUCA SALT: Seether (Scared Hitless) US debut. Line-up: Nina Gordon (g/v), Louise Post (g/v), Steve Lack (b), Jim Shapiro (d). Notes: The group's name is taken from a character in Charlie & The Chocolate Factory. Seether first appeared on the US Minty Fresh label, before being licensed by Scared Hitless. A 500 limited edition orange 7-inch is also available. Album: October.
