● Kylie creeps up on the Wets ● Oasis live up to hype with No. 1 album debut

CHART FOCUS

For the first time since it ascended to the top of the singles chart some 15 weeks ago, Wet Wet Wet's Love Is All Around looks beatable. It recorded the lowest weekly sale (about 65,000) in its lengthy tenure last week, making a steepest yet week-on-week decline of 16%. Furthermore, its lead over the chasing pack was cut back from a comfortable 53% to just 28%.

If Love Is All Around stays at number one next week, it will equal the record-setting 16-week residency of Bryan Adams' (Everything I Do) I Do It For You, but it's under threat from no fewer than three records.

Leading the pack is Kylie Minogue, who returns after a 21 month absence to claim runners-up position this week with Confide In Me. It is the sixth time Kylie has debuted at number two – a record for any artist – although she has never managed to debut at number one. Also on the Wets' trail are Youssou N'Dour and Neneh Cherry, whose 7 Seconds continues to gain strength, and Whigfield's much-fancied Saturday Night, which gets its official UK release today, after a seven-week run on the Top 200 as an import.

The album chart receives some welcome injections of new blood this week, with no fewer than five debuts inside the Top 10, the largest contingent of hot new albums delivered in the same week since 19 March. Of the five, the one that impresses the most is Oasis's

While some albums make a high-profile debut at the top of the chart but sell few copies, others perform very modestly chartwise but accumulate big sales. A case in point is R. Kelly's 12 Play, which was released last November, and has since spent an astonishing 23 weeks in the Top 75 without ever rising above number 52. It has, however, sold enough copies – 60,000 – to earn a silver disc for the 24-year-old from Chicago. In the US, 12 Play has sold nearly 4m copies. Kelly's managed two Top 40 hits here so far – Your Body's Callin' got to number 19 and Summer Bunnies reached number 23 last week.

Definitely Maybe, which debuts at number one. Its massive pre-sale of 400,000 translated into actual over-the-counter sales of about 86,000 copies last week, a fine achievement by the band, who thus become the first new act to debut at number one since Jamiroquai's Emergency On Planet Earth 15 months ago.

The Oasis album did so well this week, it would even have dethroned Now That's What I Call Music 28 if the two album charts were still combined. The Now 28 album has been the country's biggest seller in each of the previous four weeks and is already far and away the biggest selling compilation of 1994.

Meanwhile, Terrorvision's How To Make Friends And Influence People album makes a healthy 16-notch climb to number 36, having initially peaked at 18 in March. Its continuing healthy performance (it has sold about 50,000 copies to date) is due to a succession of hit singles, which, although not world beaters, have kept the group's profile high. They are the only act to register four new hit singles in 1994. Curiously, while all four have made the Top 30, none has reached the Top 20.

Finally, after struggling at number 80 in mid-week, the Children For Rwanda single responded to a Top Of The Pops plug by entering the chart at number 57. It's a re-recording of the title track of an album by country act The Judds from 1990. I hesitate to call it obscure in view of the correspondence about my use of the same term to describe a Boy Howdy track (see Letters, p10). Still, my rule of thumb is that a record can be obscure here, no matter whether it's known to millions of Americans.

NEWCOMERS

2 KYLIE MINOGUE: Confide In Me (Deconstruction) Australian 21st hit. First/biggest hit: I Should Be So Lucky (1, 1988). Last hit: Celebration (20, 1992). Notes: Celebrating her 21st hit single, Kylie – the "queen of handbags" – releases her first record for Deconstruction. Confide In Me is taken from her self-titled sixth album. It includes contributions from M People, the Pet Shop Boys, Farley & Heller and the writers and producers of this single, the Brothers In Rhythm. The second CD, available today (Monday), includes two bonus tracks not included on the album. Album: Kylie Minogue (September 19).

9 CORONA: Rhythm Of The Night (WEA) Italian debut. Line-up: Francesco Bontempi (k), Olga De Souza (v). Notes: Already an Italian number one and a pan-European hit. Written and produced by Bontempi, who under the guise of Lee Marrow scored with the club hits To Go Crazy and Pain in the late Eighties. He was also responsible for Cappella's debut hit, Push The Beat/Bauhaus. De Souza, who hails from Rio De Janeiro, moved to Italy in 1990 and teamed up with Bontempi to form Corona last year. The track recently reached the Top 20 of the RM Club Chart. Album: none planned.

11 M-BEAT featuring GENERAL LEVY (pictured): Incredible (Renk) UK re-entry of 1st hit. First/last hit: Incredible (39, 1994). Notes: Selling more than 25,000 copies and peaking at number 39 in June, Incredible – billed by many as the jungle anthem – is given a new lease of chart life. M-Beat, a 19-year-old East Londoner, plans a follow-up with General Levy later in the year on London Records. Levy's recording home. London has also acquired the rights to M-Beat for the rest of the world – Japan will be the first territory to issue the single. Album: later in the year.

16 THE WONDER STUFF: Unbearable (Polydor) UK 16th hit. First hit: Give Give Me More More More (72, 1988). Biggest hit: Dizzy (with Vic Reeves) (1, 1991).

Last hit: Hot Love Now (19, 1994). Line-up: Miles Hunt (v), Malcolm Treece (g), Rob Jones (b), Martin Gilks (d). Notes: This is a reissue of the (now disbanded) Wonder Stuff's second single from 1987. Unbearable is backed by the previously unreleased tracks Hit By A Car and a P.W.E.I. cover, Inside You. Vocalist Miles Hunt is now the presenter of MTV's 120 Minutes show. Album: If The Beatles Had Read Hunter... The Singles (September 26).

19 BLONDIE: Atomic (Remix) (Chrysalis) US remix of 9th hit. First hit: Denis (2, 1978). Biggest hit: Heart Of Glass (1, 1979). Last hit: Call Me (Remix) (61, 1989). Original line-up: Deborah Harry (v), Chris Stein (g), Jimmy Destri (k), Frank Infante (g), Nigel Harrison (b). Notes: This is a remix of Blondie's two-week chart topper from February 1980. The new mixes have been created by Positiva recording artist Diddy and DJ

Alan Thompson. Next Monday (12) sees the issue for the first time on CD of four Blondie and three Deborah Harry albums, complete with bonus tracks. The group have just renegotiated their contract with Chrysalis. Album: none planned.

27 ROLLINS BAND: Liar/Disconnect (Imago) US 2nd hit. First/last hit: Tearing (54, 1992). Line-up: Henry Rollins (v), Jim Cain (d), Chris Haskett (g), Melvin Gibbs (b). Notes: This double-header single is the Rollins Band's first release for more than two years. Henry Rollins has just completed filming for a starring role alongside Keanu Reeves in a new Hollywood film, Johnny Mnemonic. Album: Weight (out now).

45 REDD KROSS/SONIC YOUTH: Yesterday Once More/Superstar (A&M) US/US 2nd/5th hit. Redd Kross – First/last hit: Visionary (75, 1994). Sonic Youth – First hit: 100% (28, 1992). Biggest/last hit: Bull In The Heather (24, 1994). Line-up: Redd Kross – Jeff McDonald (v/g), Steve McDonald (b/v), Robert Hecker (g). Sonic Youth – Thurston Moore (v/g), Lee Ranaldo (g), Kim Gordon (b/v), Steve Shelley (d). Notes: Two alternative recordings taken from a tribute album to mark the 25th anniversary of The Carpenters. Other artists featured on the project include The Cranberries, 4 Non Blondes and Sheryl Crow. The originals on the double A-side single respectively reached numbers 18 and two in the early Seventies. Superstar was a US million-selling chart topper. Album: If I Were A Carpenter (September 12).

46 AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB: Wish The World Away (Virgin) US 2nd hit. First/last hit: Johnny Mathis' Feet (58, 1993). Line-up: Mark Eitzel (v), Vudi (g), Tim Mooney (d), Dan Pearson (b). Notes: After their acclaimed performance at Reading, the group return to the UK in October for a seven-date tour. In 1991, Rolling Stone voted Mark Eitzel songwriter of the year for his work on the group's Everclear album. Album: San Francisco (September 12).
