MUSIC WEEK 24 SEPTEMBER 1991

Whigfield sales hit historic highs • Clapton pays his blues at top spot

CHART FOCUS

Historic happenings on both the singles and albums charts this week, with Whigfield's Saturday Night single notching the highest weekly sales figures for 10 years, while Eric Clapton's From The Cradle becomes the first album of blues songs to top the LP chart in its 36-year history.

When it deposed Wet Wet Wet's Love Is All Around last week, Whigfield's Saturday Night sold around 150,000 copies. After major media attention, it added a further 220,000 to that figure last week, the highest weekly total since Band Aid's Do They Know It's Christmas and Wham's Last Christmas both topped 500,000 sales in a week at the end of 1984. Apart from Christmas, when single sales are traditionally swollen, it's probable that no single has sold more copies in a week since the late Seventies.

A more modest, but no less laudable achievement is that of Eric Clapton who tops the album chart for the first time ever as a soloist with From The Cradle. Britain's most revered guitar hero, Clapton has reached the top three with four of his last five albums, and was bound to reach the summit sooner or later. The surprise is that he has done it with an album of old blues songs, and not a collection of more contemporary compositions of his own. The previous high tide mark for a blues album was achieved by John Lee Hooker's Mr Lucky, which reached number three in 1991.

Bon Jovi register their 15th Top 40 hit in a row this week, as their latest single, Always, from their upcoming Cross Road hits compilation, debuts at number five. It thus equals the group's highest ever debut – Keep The Faith also entered the frame at number five in 1992 – and is just one place shy of equalling their highest charting hit, 1986's Living On A Prayer. Even in a crowded autumn release schedule, the odds are on Cross Road topping the album chart – each of Bon Jovi's last two albums (New Jersey in 1988, and Keep The Faith in 1992) have reached number one. Just to make sure it does, the album will include a previously unreleased track.

From The Cradle comprises 16 songs originally popularised by Lowell Fulson, Elmore James and Freddy King, among others. The songs vary in vintage from 1928 to 1961, and were recorded "as live" with only two overdubs – a dobro on How Long Blues and a drum on Motherless Child.

Meanwhile, Sinead O'Connor's Universal Mother album debuts at number 22. Even though it only arrived in the shops on Thursday at Sinead's request, it was heavily promoted on TV at the end of the week, and must be viewed as a disappointment, compared with I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got, a chart-topper in 1990, and Am I Not Your Girl, which reached number six two years ago.

After winning the Mercury Prize, M People's Mike Pickering expressed the hope that the group's Elegant Slumming album would top the million sales mark. It climbs from number 48 to number 27 this week in the wake of its triumph, though the initial impact of the win seems to have added only 2,500 copies to its sales.

Among the nine finalists who didn't win the Mercury Music Prize, several seem to have benefited slightly from the screening of the awards on BBC2, and attendant publicity, including Blur, whose Parklife album, the ante-post favourite, climbs to number four, while Prodigy's Music For The Jilted Generation holds at number 10. The latter group's latest single, Voodoo People, enters the chart at number 13, bringing to eight their run of consecutive Top 15 hits.

15 MICHELLE GAYLE: Sweetness (1st Avenue/RCA) UK 2nd hit. First/last hit: Looking Up (11, 1993). Notes: The former soap star teams up with hit producer Narada Michael Walden for her second release, Sweetness. Gayle's (pictured right) forthcoming self-titled album includes contributions from Simon Climie and Take That producer Steve Jervier. Club mixes of the single are by West End and Steve Jervier. Album: Michelle Gayle (October 10).

18 SUEDE: We Are The Pigs (Nude) UK 6th hit. First hit: The Downers/To The Birds (49, 1992). Biggest/last hit: Stay Together (3, 1994). Line-up: Brett Anderson (v), Mat Osman (b), Simon Gilbert (d), Richard Oakes (g). Notes: 17-year-old guitarist Richard Oakes has recently filled the vacancy left by Bernard Butler, who departed to concentrate on composing. The new line-up will make their TV debut on this week's TOTP. We Are The Pigs features brass accompaniment by The Kick Horns and is the a taster from Suede's eagerly-anticipated second album, Dog Man Star. Album: Dog Man Star (October 10).

40 NAOMI CAMPBELL: Love And Tears (Epic) UK debut. Notes: The Epic debut of Campbell, who has appeared in videos by label-mates Michael Jackson and George Michael, is a Tim Simenon and Gavin Friday production. Backing vocals on the single are provided by Chrissie Hynde, while Luther Vandross offers vocal assistance on her forthcoming album. The supermodel from Streatham is currently promoting her novel, Swan. Album: Babywoman (October 3).

42 THE TYRREL CORPORATION: You're Not Here (Cooltempo) UK 4th hit. First hit: The Bottle (71, 1992). Biggest hit: Going Home (58, 1992). Last hit: Walking With A Stranger/One Day (59, 1992). Line-up: Tony Barry (k), Joe Watson (v). Notes: Juliet Roberts provides backing vocals on You're Not Here. Originally from Redcar, the duo's second album is currently being completed and was originally to be titled You Are What You Eat, until Sack released a record by the same name first. The new title, Play For Today, has the double meaning of "tomorrow might never come, live and play for today", as well as being a tribute to the BBC TV play series. Album: Play For Today (1995).

43 CHANGING FACES: Stroke You Up (Big Beat/Atlantic) US debut. Line-up: Charisse Rose (v), Cassandra Lucas (v). Notes: R. Kelly, the prolific Chicago-based R&B artist, handles writing and production chores on this groin-grinder from the New York duo. In the US, the single has reached the top three of the Hot 100 and has sold more than 500,000 copies. Album: Changing Faces (October 3).

44 RAZE: Break Four Love (Champion) US remix of 3rd hit. First hit/biggest: Jack The Groove (57, 1986; reissue: 20, 1987). Last hit: Can You Feel It (62, 1990). Line-up:

Vaughan Mason (k/v), Keith Thompson (v), Eric Dail (v/k). Notes: A club classic from the late Eighties that revisits the chart for the second time after previously peaking at 28 and 59 in December 1988 and September 1989. The latest version includes mixes by Our Tribe and Johnny Vicious and was a recent RM Club Chart number one for Champion (its fourth of 1994). Album: none planned.

47 DJ BOBO: Everybody (PWL International) Swiss debut. Notes: The European dance invasion continues with Switzerland's Rene Bobo. The single has already topped the charts in his homeland and in Portugal; it also reached the top three in Germany. Production of the song's video, which was filmed on the French Riviera, was delayed for several hours after police were called to control the over-zealous crowd. In concert, the 25 year old performs with an eight-piece band, four acrobatic dancers and a female vocalist. Album: tba (1995).

61 ALYSHA WARREN: I'm So In Love (Wild Card) UK debut. Notes: Warren landed a management and recording deal at 35,000 feet over the Atlantic after befriending her adjoining airline passenger. Her companion was Denis Ingoldsby, partner at First Avenue and manager of Dina Carroll and Eternal. As Alisha, Warren previously had a solo deal with RCA and scored with the club hit Touch Me. Her vocal sample was later utilised successfully by the 49ers on their top three hit of the same name. She is the sister of Mica Paris. Album: tba (1995).

63 LA BOUCHE: Sweet Dreams (Bell/Arista) US debut. Line-up: Melanie Thornton (v), Donald Lane McCray (rap). Notes: Although it has the Spanish sub-title Hola Hola En, the song is actually performed by a US duo based in Germany. The single has topped the Italian pop charts and is currently a hit in France, Spain and Germany. Thornton has been singing since childhood, and has taught professionally. McCray is currently serving in the US Air Force. Album: none planned.
