Now 29! set for million sales ● East 17 and Carey pull away from pack

CHART FOCUS

Last Wednesday, Bon Jovi's Cross Road album became the biggest seller of 1994, but by close of business on Saturday it had already lost its crown, dropping to second place behind Now That's What I Call Music! 29. Both albums should accelerate past the million sales mark by the end of this week.

It's also conceivable that the current number one album, The Beautiful South's Carry On Up The Chart, might top the million mark by the end of the year. Also hitting the high numbers are a trio of EMI albums - The Beatles' Live At The BBC (380,000 copies sold in three weeks), Cliff Richard's The Hit List (300,000 in 11 weeks) and Eternal's Always & Forever album, which celebrates its first anniversary on sale last week by being certified triple platinum, indicating 900,000 sales to dealers, though its retail sales lag somewhat behind this figure.

With their latest single Crazy debuting this week, Eternal have now taken no fewer than six top 15 singles from their debut album. Their initial hit, Stay, reached number four last October, and has been followed by Save Our Love (number eight in January), Just A Step From Heaven (number eight in May), So Good (number 13 in August), Oh Baby I... which climbed to number four last month, and Crazy which debuts at number 15.

Always & Forever therefore becomes the first debut album ever to yield six top 15 hits. Acts like Take That and D:Ream have also taken half a dozen hits from debut albums, but not all of them have charted as highly as Eternal's hits.

Eternal also become the only act to have five Top 20 hits this year, upstaging fellow EMI act Terrorvision, who are the only other act to have five top 30 hits in 1994, though, curiously, none of their hits went on to make the Top 20.

For the second week in a row it's RCA's A&R department, in the form of Simon Cowell, who take the honours for highest new entry on the singles chart. While last week's top newcomers, The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, dip a notch to number four, Zig & Zag's Them Girls Them Girls makes its debut at number eight.

It's their debut UK hit, although they previously had a number one Forget about everyone else - the battle for the Christmas number one is now very much a two-horse race with East 17 galloping towards the final furlong way ahead of the field, but with that game contender Mariah Carey coming up on the outside. In truth, East 17 already have the Christmas number one - at least for 14 hours, the new chart being announced well into Christmas afternoon on Top Of The Pops. After four weeks in the shops, Stay Another Day has sold nearly half a million copies, though its week-on-week sales dipped marginally last week, as it eased down to a seven-day tally of 170,000. Meanwhile, even though it's a Spectoresque pastiche that's too fast to be considered a ballad, the sentiment of All I Want For Christmas Is You is making Mariah Carey's single increasingly popular with lovebirds. It increased its sales by 25% last week, though it is most unlikely to make up a gap of more than 50% on East 17 by Saturday.

been enlisted from all-girl quartet Eden for this single. Album: next summer.

44 THE CARPENTERS: Tryin' To Get The Feeling Again (A&M) US/20th hit. First hit: (They Long To Be) Close To You (6, 1970). Biggest hit: Yesterday Once More (2, 1973). Last hit: Rainy Days & Mondays (63, 1993). Notes: First recorded for the duo's 1975 Horizon album, this song was never finished and was consigned to the A&M vaults until it was uncovered in 1991. Karen's vocal and most of the backing were intact so Richard Carpenter added strings and backing vocals to complete the song for its first public airing. Album: Interpretations: A 25th Anniversary Collection (out now).

48 BYKER GROOVE: Love Your Sexy...! (Groove) UK/debut hit. Line-up: Jayni Hoy (v), Vicki Taylor (v), Donna Air (v). Notes:

single in Ireland in the Eighties.

The Irish chart is usually greatly influenced by the UK chart, with big hits here almost invariably becoming successes there, usually after a slight time lag.

But there are three current singles which are only now UK hits, long after topping the listings in the Emerald Isle.

Bill Whelan's Riverdance, as seen on the Eurovision Song Contest and the Royal Command Performance, has been popular here in a cult kind of way for months, and surges from number 53 to number 32 this week, after nearly six months in the lower reaches of the chart. An 18-week chart-topper in Ireland, it was eventually replaced by Perez Prado's Guaglione, which won't become a big hit here, and eases down two notches to number 57 this week. The record that ended Prado's posthumous stint at the top of the chart in Ireland was Boyzone's Love Me For A Reason, which has become a great success here, and climbs to number three this week. It has sold 200,000 copies in its first three weeks on sale in the UK.

Cliff Richard is the model of consistency, and has shown up in the Christmas countdown seven years in a row - a record no other act can equal. Cliff's All I Have To Do Is Dream duet with Phil Everly is not one of his biggest. Having peaked at number 14 a couple of weeks ago, it now drifts to number 20.

Seasonal factors always cause recent big hits to resurge at Christmas, and this year is no exception to that rule, with Whigfield's Saturday Night moving from 24 to 21, Let Loose's Crazy For You rebounding from 85 to 56 and Wet Wet Wet's long-deleted Love Is All Around drifting up from 60 to 52. Youssou N'Dour and Neneh Cherry's 7 Seconds and Boyz II Men's I'll Make Love To You meanwhile re-enter the listings at 68 and 75 respectively.

Finally, a brief word about the US charts, where The Beatles' Live At The BBC debuts at number three, while Pearl Jam's Vitalogy makes an unprecedented in-chart jump, rising from 173 to number one, as CD, cassette and MiniDisc editions of the recording join the previously available vinyl version. It's the group's second number one album, coming 13 months after Vs. debuted in pole position, since when it has sold a remarkable 8m copies domestically. Alan Jones

Following the lead of former co-stars PJ & Duncan, three of the cast of Byker Grove have enlisted the services of the series' music composer Simon Etchell for this Shampoo-styled effort. The trio are all in their mid-teens and Taylor hopes to bump into Take That's Mark Owen while promoting the single. Album: none scheduled.

51 THROWING MUSES: Bright Yellow Gun (4AD) US/3rd hit. First hit: Counting Backwards (70, 1991). Last/biggest hit: Firepile EP (46, 1992). Notes: Following the release of her solo album early this year, Kristin Hersh has regrouped Throwing Muses for their first single in over two years. The band release their seventh album proper in the new year and head out on a UK tour in February. Album: University (January 16).
