Take That enjoy career-best sales

SALES

Take That continue to turn in impressive sales at the top of the singles chart, with a further 140,000 copies of Back For Good finding buyers last week, taking the cumulative sales of the record to more than 650,000 in just three weeks.

Already the second-biggest seller of the year, Back For Good is now Take That's biggest hit and is still outselling its nearest competitor – the Outhere Brothers' Don't Stop (Wiggle Wiggle) – by a margin of nearly two to one.

"Nobody loves me" whinge Portishead on their single, Sour Times, and, while that may have been true when it first came out, it isn't now. Sour Times was initially released last August and peaked disappointingly at number 57. Since then, the group has won great acclaim and sold more than 1,000 copies of their debut album, Dummy. In January, its single, Glory Box, peaked at number 13, setting up the re-issue of Sour Times, which debuts at number 13.

The UK's going crazy – or so it seems. And what it's going crazy for is songs called Crazy which, this week, becomes the chart's most recurrent title, replacing Tonight, a hit name 10 times, all of them different songs.

It's less than 25 years since the first hit called Crazy entered the chart, providing a number 12 hit for Mud in 1973. A quarter of a century later, we've had 11 hits entitled Crazy (10 of them different songs) including five in the past year – from Bob Geldof last May, which reached number 65, followed by Julio Iglesias (43 in June), Aerosmith (23 in November), Eternal (15 in January) and now Mark Morrison, the hotly-tipped Leicester lad whose debut hit enters the chart this week at number 19. Other Crazy hits came from the Manhattans in 1983, Icehouse (1987), Boys (1990), Seal (1990), and Patsy Cline (1990). Only the Cline and Iglesias hits are the same song.

Wet Wet Wet register their fourth number one album of their seven-LP career as Picture This debuts in pole position. It sold around 140,000 copies last week, more than four times as many sales as any other artist album, but 60,000 fewer than Now That's What I Call Music! 30, the first regular Now! release since Now! 29 achieved a record 1,600,000 sales for the series at Christmas.

The remainder of the artist albums chart is beginning to reflect early sales in the Woolworths' Best Of The Best campaign in which 72 full-price best of... albums have been reduced to £9.99. Expect this campaign to bite more deeply next week.

THE OFFICIAL CHARTS

MONITOR

AIRPLAY

For the second week in a row, Take That's Back For Good logs more than 1,000 plays – the highest tally for any record – but its total audience is still 15% smaller than that of Freak Power's declining hit, Turn On, Tune In, Cop Out, largely because Atlantic 252 played Turn On... 97 times but gave Back For Good just two spins.

Radio One gave Back For Good 31 plays last week but, while it supports the popular favourites, it continues to go out on a limb, giving no fewer than 14 plays to the Gigolo Aunts' Where I Find My Heaven, accounting for more than 99% of that record's overall audience. The track served as a theme for recent BBC2 sitcom, Game On, and is included on the soundtrack to the Dumb And Dumber movie.

Oddly enough, one record that might have been expected to garner more Radio One support than average failed to do so. Love City Groove's self-titled pop/rap nugget that is the UK representative in the Eurovision Song Contest is 25th on Radio One's chart, compared with 24th nationally. ILR stations are graciously rooting for the record, even though the BBC monopolises UK broadcast rights for Eurovision.

Virgin continues to wring long-lasting airplay out of dead pop hits, with Simple Minds' Hypnotised, Janet Jackson's Whoops Now and Mike & The Mechanics' Over My Shoulder taking sixth, seventh and eighth places in the airplay chart, although they are long past their sales peak, occupying 38th, 29th and 70th places in the list of best-selling singles.

Radio is also showing staunch support for Sophie B Hawkins' As I Lay Me Down, which never really caught fire at retail, but continues to command more than 300 plays a week.

Currently the 21st most popular record on the airwaves, it has climbed as high as number 12 on this chart, even though its CIN career ended with a number 24 peak more than a month ago.

Joshua Kadison's Jessie is beginning to get into its stride third time round, with 202 plays and 72nd place in the airplay chart, setting it up nicely for its re-release this week.

It has been assisted by the fact that it has been promoted to radio in a special sleeve which reminds programmers that Danny Wilson's Mary's Prayer, Sam Brown's Stop, Elton John's Sacrifice, Marc Cohn's Walking In Memphis and Celine Dion's Think Twice were "not instant successes...but radio made all of them massive hits."
