Jackson sets new chart record

SALES

Michael Jackson creates US chart history this week becoming the first artist in 55 years to have a single debut at number one. For 25 years, until earlier this year, the highest new entry in the chart was the Beatles' Let It Be, which debuted at number six on March 21 1970. Jackson's duet with sister Janet, Scream, put paid to that record 12 weeks ago when it debuted at number five, but was matched a week later when the Notorious B.I.G.'s One More Chance/Stay With Me also entered at number five. This week, however, Jacko claims the record for himself, as You Are Not Alone sensationally starts its career at the top of the stack.

In Britain too, the second single from Story is off to a flying start. It debuts at number three, after selling more than 60,000 copies last week. With Blur and Oasis (still number one and two) each experiencing a drop in sales of more than 50%, Jackson should be within striking distance next week, especially as the third format of You Are Not Alone, out today (Tuesday), includes two radical remixes of one of his most popular tracks, Rock With You. While H1Story holds at number 12 this week, it seems sure to return to the Top 10. It is already climbing the US chart again, and has sold more than eight million copies worldwide (half in the US), disputing the suggestion that continuing rumours about his personal life would destroy his career. You Are Not Alone is the most successful of another bumper intake this week, with 16 singles debuting inside the Top 40, seven of them in the top 15. There are, however, a couple of climbers (Michelle Gayle and Smokie/Roy Chubby Brown), while last week there were none at all, for the first time ever, outside the immediate post-Christmas week.

The album chart retains its strong homegrown look, with British acts filling positions two to eight. However, Ireland's Boyzone debut at number one with their introductory album Said And Done. Though U2 and the Cranberries are the only Irish groups to top the chart before, Boyzone's success was anticipated. They are, after all, the only act to have a hat-trick of top three hits this year. Finally, congratulations to the Lightning Seeds, whose Jollification album is a year old this week. It has entered the chart on a number of occasions over the past 12 months, spinning off a quartet of hit singles. It reached a new peak last week at number 16. This week the album, which has sold about 90,000 copies to date, slips back to number 18.

AIRPLAY

After six weeks at the top of the airplay chart, Seal's Kiss From A Rose is still far and away the country's most aired disc. It retains a lead of more than 100 plays over its nearest rival, and commands an audience 20% greater than the number two disc.

The highest new entry to the chart this week, and the highest for many a week, is Simply Red's Fairground. The first single from their new album Life is an instant success at radio, and debuts at number 12 this week after getting more than 400 plays. It no doubt gains slightly from sampling a former hit (the Goodmen's Give It Up), and looks like being their most popular radio smash since Stars, some four years ago. Capital FM is its most fervent early admirer, spinning it no fewer than 41 times, enough for it to debut on the station playlist at number one.

For the third week in a row, Virgin 1215's most-played disc is Del Amitri's Roll To Me, a record whose radio-friendly nature was not matched by its retail performance, as it failed to make the Top 20. Virgin's playlist as a whole retains a steady look about it, though it does seem to be about to adopt a broader spread of music, its repositioning possibly in anticipation of the threat posed by Heart 102. Virgin has already started playing M People, and didn't exercise its rights concerning genre overlays to exclude the Boyzone album from its chart this week, though whether or not it will play the boyos is quite another matter. Meanwhile M People's Search For A Hero continues to command massive support from radio. It has been in the airplay Top 20 for 10 weeks. It garnered 69 plays from Atlantic 252 last week, and 702 plays in total. Placed 16th overall, it is the top ranked record not being played by Radio One, where it was last aired more than three weeks ago. For the umpteenth time this year, Sony proves more able to cajole radio to deliver airplay to unproven acts than perhaps any other company. Its new Epic signing Danielle Brisebois's update of Brenton Wood's hit Gimme Little Sign got 162 plays last week to debut on the chart at number 45. The next highest ranked artist without a sales hit is Alison Krauss, number 67 with her remake of the Foundations' Baby Now That I've Found You. Sony has also managed to get radio to play Celine Dion's new French language single Que Tu M'Aimes Encore, which is likely to be the most popular French language hit since Desireless' Voyage Voyage in 1988 - also a Sony record.
