Simply Red sales eclipse Oasis

SALES

While Mariah Carey tops the singles and albums charts in the US, Simply Red turn in a similar performance here. Their single Fairground is in its fourth week at number one, while their album Life debuts at the summit, comfortably eclipsing Oasis's (What's The Story) Morning Glory.

Morning Glory sold 122,000 copies last week, to add to the 346,000 it sold the week before. Life launched its career with a sale of 283,000. Aside from Morning Glory and Life, the only album to sell a quarter of a million copies in a week this year is Take That's Nobody Else, which means the three highest one-week album sales achieved in the UK this year have all been by Mancunian groups.

Life is Simply Red's fifth album, and the band have shown enviable consistency, reaching number two with the first couple - Picture Book and Men And Women - and number one with the last three, namely A New Flame, Stars and Life.

On the singles chart, the fast action continues with a third of last week's titles losing their places to the latest influx. Few records get to show any growth at all these days and fewer still sustained growth, so the continuing advance of Smokie & Roy Chubby Brown's Living Next Door To Alice is remarkable. In its 22nd week of chart action, and its ninth since entering the Top 40, it climbs yet again this week, reaching number three. It thus equals the previous highest position attained by a Smokie hit, specifically their 1975 debut hit You Think You Know How To Love Me. With 350,000 copies sold, it has outsold each of the group's 12 previous hits.

One of only two other climbers this week is a record that leapfrogs over Smokie to reach number two - Def Leppard's When Love & Hate Collide. Their 18th hit takes them to dizzy heights they've reached just once before, with 1992's Let's Get Rocked, and sets up their forthcoming hits retrospective Vault to become one of the Christmas season's biggest sellers.

In April, Wildchild reached number 34 with Legends Of The Dark Black Part 2. This week, Wildchild debuts at number 11 with Renegade Master - it's the same song with a new title. In a similar scenario, Pearl's C'Mon C'Mon (I'm Not In Love With You), number 82 this week, fell just short of the charts earlier this year when the act was called Velvet Jungle. Nowadays you can't rely on either the artists or title staying the same even if the record does.

AIRPLAY

With Simply Red's Fairground at number one for the seventh week in a row, and the Rembrandts' I'll Be There For You at number two for six weeks in succession, East West continues its unprecedented domination of the chart. Both records continue to command almost unanimous support, though the gap between them and the chasing pack is finally closing. While Simply Red seem certain to stay top next week, the Rembrandts are more susceptible to challenges.

One of the biggest is likely to come from Queen's Heaven For Everyone. It showed it meant business last week when it amassed 70 plays between 8am on Friday (when Capital Radio broke the embargo on it) it was played 538 times, and consequently debuts at number 16 this week. Among its most enthusiastic supporters is Capital, where it was spun 45 times and Virgin, which aired it 25 times. The fact that it merely strips a Freddie Mercury guest vocal from a track by the Cross excited much comment on radio, and a few plays for the Cross original too.

In keeping with its more modern image, Radio One is very cool on Queen, spinning Heaven For Everyone just five times last week. It continues to champion Sleeper, whose What Do I Do Now? it played 30 times, more than any other record. It also went nap on two records that have yet to be released: Coolio's Gangsta's Paradise and Everything But The Girl's Missing, which were played 23 times each, to rank fourth equal on the station's playlist.

Having a major hit doesn't ensure airplay, and Nick Cave and Kylie Minogue's dark duet Where The Wild Roses Grow managed only 86 plays last week. Since it debuted at number 11 on the sales chart, the majority of the plays it got would have been on chart shows, where playing it was unavoidable. The plays it did get left it at a lowly 86 on the airplay chart.

The arrival of Heart 106.2 seems to have resulted in Virgin shying away from the more pop/black AOR sounds it was flirting with. Its current Top 20 is dominated by traditional rock/pop hybrids, with less emphasis on the Britpop acts favoured by Radio One, and little or no attention being given to R&B style acts aired by Heart - Mariah Carey, Shara Nelson and the like. The folk style of Seal's Kiss From A Rose and Dionne Farris's I Know mark the limit of Virgin's aspirations in this direction, while a strange but abiding affection for Roxette marks the outer limits of its poppier output.
