Robson & Jerome retains sales lead

SALES

It can't match last week's storming debut when it sold 258,000 copies but Robson & Jerome's I Believe/Up On The Roof managed to shift a further 224,000 units last week to bring the singing soldiers' 1995 singles sales tally to 2,302,000. They are the first act to sell two million singles in a year since Madonna in 1985. I Believe/Up On The Roof is also the 15th number one hit produced by Stock and Aitken, putting them in joint third place in the all-time producers' hall of fame, alongside Norrie Paramor. I Believe is the 10th single to debut at number one this year, and the 47th in exactly (happy birthday!) 43 years of charts. It's also the 11th on RCA, a tally unmatched by any other label.

Surprisingly, after debuting last week at number two, Oasis' Wonderwall single slips to number three, allowing the former number one, Coolio's Gangsta's Paradise, to rebound to number two. The fact that Oasis didn't reach number one after debuting at number two is less surprising – 11 singles have entered the chart at number two this year, and not one of them has subsequently reached number one.

26 more new entries to the singles chart bring the year-to-date tally to over a thousand making it the liveliest year yet. The highest new entry comes from the Happy Clappers, whose I Believe debuts as number seven. It was first released in January without charting, and again in June, when it reached number 21.

Queen's Made In Heaven debuts at number one on the album chart, after selling over 140,000 copies last week. A poignant reminder of the talented Freddie Mercury, who died four years ago next week, and comprising of previously unreleased material, this is the group's ninth number one album, a tally bettered only by two acts who have a chance of increasing their own tally in coming weeks – The Beatles and The Rolling Stones.

Finally, eight years after entering the TV merchandising game in earnest, Sony has managed to land three number ones in a year in the compilation chart for the first time. After early year success for The Best Of Heartbeat and Top Of The Pops 1, its return to the Heartbeat theme via Heartbeat – Forever Yours, worked like a charm. The album debuted at number one, and stayed there for six weeks longer than any compilation outside of the Now! series since the Bodyguard soundtrack. Alan Jones

AIRPLAY

Although there's a smaller gap between it and the number two record than at any time in its 11 week reign at number one, suggestions that Simply Red's Fairground would begin to lose its grip on the nation's playlists have proved premature; this week it actually increases its play marginally from 1324 to 1337. The record which has come closer to dethroning it than any other is, surprisingly, Def Leppard's When Love & Hate Collide, which mysteriously more than makes up a 19% dip in support the week before to power its way to runners-up position. It's not the only record close to Fairground – the top six airplay tracks' audiences are within a 6% band.

Mike Stock and Matt Aitken joined Jonathan King on Talk Radio UK last Thursday for a CIN-bashing session, premiering the Lance Ellington/Frank Bruno single Eye of the Tiger, and expressing their frustration at the lack of plays given by Radio One to the new Robson & Jerome single, I Believe, which of course, they produced.

On the latter subject, Media Monitor figures confirm Radio One's reluctance to spin the fictional soldiers' disc. I Believe was played just three times last week, all on chart countdowns. The record's notional other A-side, Up On The Roof, was avoided altogether by Radio One. For a number one record, I Believe is also getting precious little support from other stations, although it is picking up steam. It moves from number 60 to number 20 on the airplay chart this week. Up On The Roof doesn't make the Top 200, although it was played 77 times last week. The airplay chart is a tracks chart, but if it were a records chart, I Believe/Up On The Roof would earn 15th place.

The airwaves were alive with Beatles oldies last week, with talk stations, news stations and religious broadcasters all joining the gold and current music stations in playing the formerly Fab Four's catalogue. Unfortunately Media Monitor doesn't monitor oldies, and can't provide a list of most-played Beatles tracks, so what follows is from personal observation. The fact that they recorded so many well-known and well-loved songs means that no one has gained the upper hand in the current nostalgia-fest. Interestingly enough, though I heard a couple of dozen Beatles tracks over the airwaves last week, I only heard three as much as twice – Yesterday (natch) plus two whose use was in ironic and disapproving editorials on the Beatles' ubiquity – Let It Be and Here, There And Everywhere. Alan Jones
