THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

CHART FOCUS

THE UK'S OFFICIAL CHART SOURCE

After the relative disappointment of her French language album D'Eux, which peaked at number seven at the beginning of a brief chart career, Celine Dion is back with a vengeance, debuting at number one with Falling Into You which becomes only the second album this year – the first was the Bluetones' Expecting To Fly – to keep Oasis off the summit. Falling Into You sold 100,000 copies last week and is Celine's second number one, following 1994's The Colour Of My Love. She has a second reason to celebrate this week – the set's introductory US single vaults from five to one on the Billboard Hot 100. The latest in a long line of major hits written by Diane Warren, who ranks with Babyface as the Nineties most successful US songwriter, it brings to an end the record 16-week number one tenure of Mariah Carey and Boyz II Men's One Sweet Day.

Dion's fellow Canadian Alanis Morissette continues at the top of the US album chart with Jagged Little Pill. Though the album has spawned a succession of singles in Britain, it didn't spawn an American single until Ironic, which debuted at number 11 last week and now moves up to number seven. In the circumstances, the popularity of Jagged Little Pill, which has sold more than six million copies in the USA in nine months is staggering and is a tribute to the power of radio where tracks such as Hand In My Pockets and You Learn have been airplay hits.

Back in the UK, Robson & Jerome's self-titled album rebounds from 18 to five. The resurgence is clearly a result of the controversial WH Smith promotion offering the cassette for sale at £1 (see p1 story); sales of the album are up 317%, with cassette making up 87% of its 35,000 sales last week.

On the singles chart, Take That's How Deep Is Your Love remained surprisingly strong especially towards the weekend when it turned a meagre midweek advantage over Robert Miles' Children into a comfortable victory. How Deep... sold approximately 90,000 copies in the week, while Children has its best week yet, selling more than 75,000 copies.

Scots/American band Garbage continue to make impressive progress. Stupid Girl, the fourth single from their self-titled debut album, debuts at four to give them their biggest hit yet. Each of the singles so far has improved on the performance of its predecessors. Last August Subhuman peaked at 50, followed in September by Only Happy When It Rains (29) and Queer in November (13). Their album dips three places to 30, but has now sold well over 100,000 copies.

Gabrielle's Give Me A Little More Time has made a notable recovery after a slow start. After moving 15-14-15-12, it surges to number five this week to become her biggest hit since Dreams, her chart-topping 1993 debut.

DJ Misjah and DJ Tim's Access single demonstrates the value of club support. The single debuts at number 16 despite registering a miserly seven radio plays, each from a different station, and lies 403rd in the airplay chart.

Another of the more reliable ways of boosting a record is to have the artist perform on the Des O'Connor show. It worked wonders in recent weeks for the likes of Diana Ross and Cher, but hasn't done much for Jodie Wilson, whose Falling/Call Me falls short of the Top 75 (it's number 82) this week despite an airing on Des's show. Des will be disappointed, not least because Jodie is Mrs O'Connor.

In a week of unusually strong product with 11 new albums entering the Top 75 and both St Patrick's Day and Mother's Day providing a boost – for Rose Marie and Bill Whelan particularly – album sales were strong, climbing 16% week-on-week.

Alan Jones

Three weeks after losing their sales throne to Take That, Oasis are more reluctant to surrender their airplay advantage to their fellow Mancunians. After moving to the top of the airplay chart last week, Don't Look Back In Anger adds a further 212 plays this week. Meanwhile How Deep Is Your Love is up a notch to number two with 205 extra spins.

Take That are noticeably more popular on regional ILR stations, while Oasis are better supported by Radio One, Virgin, Heart and similar rock/AOR adherents. Neither is being played as much as the Lighthouse Family's Lifted, which slips from number four despite massive support in the provinces and a number one posting from Virgin 1215, where it gained 34 plays, an impressive five more than any other disc. (Incidentally, our mentions of Virgin are always accompanied by its AM frequency because its London FM frequency has daily opt out which mean that it frequently plays records fewer times than Virgin 1215).

Another Manchester band, M People, are benefitting from increased airplay for Search For The Hero. The song, which accompanies Peugeot's TV ad, has been largely responsible for fuelling massively increased sales of their album Bizarre Fruit as their record label Deconstruction continues to starve the market of the single, which is skulking at number 197 on the sales chart. But listeners also continue to demand the single and it has been climbing through the nether regions of the Top 100 of the airplay chart for weeks and enters to the Top 50, making a leap of nine places to 45 after gaining nearly 400 plays last week.

Glaswegian band Bis, who last week became the first unsigned band to appear on Top Of The Pops, are receiving good support from Radio One too. Their song Kandy Pop, which is at number 97 in the airplay chart by virtue of a dozen plays on the national pop station, which thus provides 99% of its total audience. The track picked up only seven other plays from the other stations which are monitored by Media Monitor.

The Top 50 published in last week's Music Week was actually a Top 49, due to gremlins. The record which occupied the bottom rung of the chart was The Beatles' Real Love. It continues to conquer radio playlists, despite Radio One's reluctance to play it and climbs to number 37 this week with a 60% increase in audience and a respectable 434 plays. It remains the least heard record in the Top 10 of the sales chart of any song though.
