MUSIC WEEK 6 APRIL 1996

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

CHART FOCUS

The highest dealer price for a single CD/cassette (£9.10 and £6.40 respectively) failed to stop Take That's Greatest Hits from making a significant impact. The album debuts at number one after selling around 275,000 copies last week - comfortably more than the rest of the Top 10 combined. The album outsold its nearest rival - Oasis's (What's The Story) Morning Glory? - by a margin of more than five to one.

Of Take That's four albums, only Take That & Party has failed to reach number one. On many occasions the launch of a hits album can stoke up sales of an artist's earlier work, although with Take That, the reverse seems to be true. Take That & Party slumps from 68 to 122, while Nobody Else and Everything Changes - neither of which chart this week - also lose sales. The likely reason for this trend is that their fans cannot afford more than one album, and the choice at the moment is Greatest Hits. Where it is not discounted, the album is selling for between £14.49 and £14.99, although it can be picked up for as little as £11.99 at John Menzies.

Last week's number one album, The Beatles' Anthology 2, dips to number four, but it is up and running in a big way in the US, where it has sold around half a million copies to debut at number one. Anthology 1 is caught up in the excitement too, rising from number 83 to number 44 stateside, while the single Real Love is behaving erratically on the Hot 100; debuting at 11, diving to 26, and now climbing again to number 21.

Back in the UK, the singles chart is crammed with new entries, with 18 in the Top 40 and 28 in the Top 75. The most intriguing is Simply Red and White's Daydream Believer (Cheer Up Peter Reid), an anthem to promotion-chasing Sunderland Football Club. The record is selling only in the Sunderland area but, amazingly, debuts at number 49.

The highest new entry, however, is Ooh Aah...Just A Little Bit by Gina G, Britain's entry in next month's Eurovision Song Contest. The Aussie-born singer is the first foreign-born artist to represent the UK in the event, and her single has already eclipsed last year's self-titled Eurovision entry from Love City Groove, which peaked at number seven. In fact, it is the highest-charting British entry since 1982 when Bardo reached number two with One Step Further.

Following the disappointing performance of her single One More Good Night With The Boys, which peaked at number 45, Tasmin

AIRPLAY

AIRPLAY: Figures show top 10 companies by % of total airplay audience of the Media Monitor Top 50; and corporate group shares by % of total airplay audience of the Media Monitor Top 50.

Archer's Bloom album also disappoints, entering the chart at number 95. Tasmin's debut album, Great Expectations, reached number eight in 1992.

One of the biggest surprises on the singles chart is the number eight debut of DJ Dado's version of The X-Files Theme. Self-distributed by the Wembley-based subsidiary of Germany's ZYX label, it joins Mark Snow's original recording of the TV theme in the Top 10. Snow's version debuted at number two last week, and it stays there in an unchanged top three, though it has made significant inroads into the Prodigy's lead at the top of the chart. The DJ Dado version of the X-files cleverly incorporates elements of Robert Miles' Children, which remains at number three. Children has been remarkably consistent in a seven week chart career, being placed second or third every week, with only a 10% variation in sales. By the end of this week, it will have sold nearly half a million copies.

Finally, Paul Carrack who first made a name for himself 21 years ago as lead singer on Ace's one and only hit How Long, has re-worked the song, and his efforts earn him a debut at number 34 this week.

With an extremely impressive tally of 1,724 plays, the highest yet on Media Monitor's analysis of the output of 66 of the UK's leading radio stations, Gabrielle's Give Me A Little More Time soars to the top of the airplay chart. A solid sales hit which is peaking after seven weeks in the top 15, Give Me A Little More Time has been steadily climbing the airplay chart for 10 weeks, but has only made a significant impression in the last month. It is Gabrielle's first number one airplay record, her debut smash Dreams was never quite radio's top choice.

Another proven sales hit, with a CIN chart career that so far reads 6, 6, 6, 4, Mark Morrison's Return Of The Mack has had a more gradual impact on the airplay chart, progressing 47, 33, 16, 13 and 4. It tops a 1,000 plays for the first time this week, and is getting massive support where it counts, with 29 plays at Radio One - a tally inferior only to the current Garbage and Prodigy hits - and 43 at Capital, where it is number one. It is even picking up plays from Heart 106.2.

Following Paul Kavanagh's departure from Atlantic 252 it has become noticeable that the station is hammering its top tunes fewer times. In the past, a few records were played more than 100 times a week. Even in an average week, the station's most favoured discs would get between 70 and 80 plays. Last week, Simply Red's Never Never Love and Oasis's Don't Look Back In Anger were the top spins, with 53 plays each. The extra time freed up by this move does not appear to be helping new records, however. The only new entry to Atlantic 252's top 50 is Cast's Walkaway at number 23, while oldies like Midnight At The Oasis by the Brand New Heavies, Itchycoo Park by M People, Dreamer by Livin' Joy and One Sweet Day by Boyz II Men & Mariah Carey move 89-25, 80-36, 89-36 and 128-44 respectively.

Radio is still lukewarm towards the top three records in the CIN chart - The Prodigy, Mark Snow and Robert Miles. Miles eases from 18-19, the Prodigy from 33-21 and Mark Snow from 294-71. M People's Search For A Hero ends six weeks of steady growth by slipping from 34 to 37, although if the BBC is stripped out of the figures, it moves up again, from number 30 to number 36 on ILR. Radio simply complied to requests to hear the song, which is featured in Peugeot's TV advertisement, and, despite being unavailable at retail, its airplay performance is strong enough for it to be featured on the Network Chart, which incorporates sales and airplay.
