THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

It's a magnificent week for Sony Music, whose artists hold down four of the top five places on the singles chart.

courtesy of Fugees and Mariah Carey on Columbia and Epic's Lightning Seeds and Celine Dion. Fugees had another superb week last week, raising their 20 days' sales total for Killing Me Softly to 525,000, while Carey snared her fourth Top 10 hit in a row from her Daydream album, debuting at number three with Always Be My Baby. In all, Carey has had 11 consecutive Top 10 singles, last failing to reach the upper echelon in 1992 with Make It Happen.

The only non-Sony artist in the top five is Peter Andre, whose Mysterious Girl has thus far moved 3-3-3-2, despite losing sales every week. It has, however, sold a highly creditable 275,000 copies, and is the biggest selling hit on Mushroom to date, overtaking Garbage's Stupid Girl.

For the first time since August 13 last year there is no Oasis single in this week's chart. The re-release of the band's back catalogue has given them multiple entries in the interim, with as many as eight singles charted some weeks. Already in 1996, they have spent an amazing 82 weeks on the singles chart. The most weeks on the chart in a calendar year is 110, by Bill Haley and his Comets in 1956. With a new single due imminently, and their back catalogue due for another re-promotion in the autumn, Oasis could beat that total. Thus far, their longest charting hit is Whatever, which has spent 35 weeks in the chart, longer than all but 22 records in the whole of chart history. Oasis are actually having a bad week (for them) - their album (What's The Story) Morning Glory? dips to number 10, its lowest position in 37 weeks of chart action to date. Even so, the band have sold more singles and albums in 1996 than any other act.

Bryan Adams' 18 Till I Die debuts at the top of the albums chart, after selling over 50,000 copies last week. It's Adams' third number one LP, following 1991's Waking Up The Neighbours and 1993's hits package So Far So Good. His debut prevents fellow-Canadian Alanis Morissette from returning to number one with her resurgent Jagged Little Pill LP. Giving Canada a creditable three albums in the top five, Celine Dion's Falling Into You stays fifth, but probably deserves more after a 36% surge in support.

Meanwhile, a precipitous dip in sales of Metallica's Load - down 69% in a week - sees the album plunge from the top spot to number eight. There's compensation for the group, however, with the news that Load debuts at number one in America, with a huge sale, thought to be close to a million units, last week.

Paul Weller's appearance on Top Of The Pops on Friday performing The Changingman and his new single gave his album a considerable lift. Stanley Road moved from number 27 to 20 with a 71% increase in sales, while Wild Wood moved from 116 to 56 (up 116%), while Paul Weller and Live Wood re-entered the Top 200 at 104 and 132 respectively.

TV coverage of Euro '96 gave massive exposure to a slew of singles connected to the soccer championships too, with no fewer than seven singles in the Top 50 associated with the event, including Three Lions by Baddiel/Skinner/Lighting Seeds, We're In This Together by Simply Red, Purple Heather by Rod Stewart/Scotland Euro '96 Squad and Eat My Goal by Collapsed Lung.

With Gloria Estefan's Olympic theme Reach at 51, and domestic soccer hit Move Move Move by Manchester United in 56th place, sport is really making an impact. The upcoming Olympics are bound to spawn more hits, as at least four official albums are planned. And don't forget that the next World Cup will be along in a couple of years...

Alan Jones

Fast Love continues its slow burn, spending a sixth week at the top of the airplay chart for George Michael.

That's the longest any record has spent at number one this year, eclipsing the five-week reign of Gabrielle's Give Me A Little More Time, which it replaced at number one. The last single to spend longer than Fast Love at number one was Simply Red's Fairground, which reached number one last September, and stayed there for 11 weeks.

George's chances of spending a seventh week at number one are practically non-existent. His previously huge lead at the top has been whittled down to virtually nothing, with Tony Rich, The Lighthouse Family and Fugees all moving closer. It seems almost inevitable that it will be Fugees who take over from George, however, as Killing Me Softly makes massive gains for the third week in a row. Its audience grew by 9% last week, while it picked up an extra 40% plays, climbing from 1271 to 1785. That's 408 more than George Michael, who nevertheless reached 201 listeners last week for every 200 who heard Fugees.

The highest new entry of the week, inevitably, is Gary Barlow's Forever Love, which had its first full week of radio exposure, gaining 356 plays, and debuting at number 24. Barlow's main supporters were Power FM (36 plays), Invicta FM (34 plays) and BRMB (30 plays). London's Capital Radio played Forever Love 18 times, while Radio One spun it 16 times.

Critics of Chris Evans say that he isn't passionate about music and that he frequently fails to namecheck the records he plays. In fact, though he is maddening lax about pre-announcing and back-announcing records, Evans can be passionate and frequently champions leftfield records others hesitate to support, and not necessarily because they are outlandish. Two of Evans' current favourites are Kula Shaker's Tativa and Divine Comedy's Something For The Weekend. He played them both every day last week, and managed to pass his enthusiasm for the records on to some of his Radio One colleagues. The result is that both are in the airplay Top 50, Kula Shaker at number 47 and Divine Comedy at number 45, with Radio One providing 98.7% and 99.4% of audience impressions respectively.

The lead track on the Collapsed Lung single is London Tonight, with Eat My Goal listed second, but it's the latter title that's getting the lion's share of airplay, with 30 spins nationally and 64th place, compared with just three plays for London Tonight - two from Radio One and the other from TFM.
