THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

CHART FOCUS

After initially matching Virgin labelmates the Spice Girls' early week sales tally, George Michael's Spinning The Wheel finally ended up debuting at number two. It sold 90,000 copies in the week compared to the 110,000 tally of Wannabe, which has now spent six weeks at number one and has sold nearly 850,000 copies so far. Spinning The Wheel is the third single from George's Older album. Jesus To A Child topped the chart with a first week tally of 105,000. FastLove did likewise with a slightly lower total. George's Virgin career has, by any standard, started well. He's the only artist with three Top five hits this year and Older is already the year's fourth biggest seller, with 750,000 sales in 15 weeks.

Aside from Wannabe, the whole of the top five is comprised of new entries, setting a new record. Among the artists making most impact, Jamiroquai and REM both have the biggest hits of their careers, debuting at numbers three and four respectively with the first singles from new albums.

After having all nine of their Creation singles climbing the Top 100 last week, Oasis still have all nine still in the Top 100 but, like their albums (What's The Story) Morning Glory? and Definitely Maybe, they are now falling as the Knebworth effect fades. That's the group's entire official output – but such is the appetite for the Mancunians that their words are a saleable commodity too. They became the first act ever to have two interview discs in the singles chart last week, with Wibbling Rivalry (on Fierce Panda) at number 128 and the simply titled Interview (on Shad) at number 190. Wibbling Rivalry falls a little this week while Interview drops out of the chart – but a new and untitled disc, released on the Richard Branson-owned Sound & Media label, is the week's 33rd biggest selling album though its budget price means you won't find it in the album chart. Selling even better, Smashing Pumpkins' Zero is priced like a single, but can't qualify for that chart as it contains seven tracks. It to, therefore, assumes the role of a budget album and is outsold by only 14 full-priced albums this week. If it were eligible for the singles chart it would be more modestly placed at 37. A slew of Blue Note albums selling at £1.99 and the Mercury Music prize sampler help make it a big week for budget product.

Back on the singles scene, the increasingly hard-to-find Fugees deletion Killing Me Softly slides 12-21 but, with a small contribution from their previous single Fu-Gee-La, they have now sold more singles this year than any other act, ahead of Oasis.

AT-A-GLANCE WEEKLY MARKET SHARE

SINGLES: Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales of the Top 75; and corporate group shares by % of total sales of the Top 75. ALBUMS: Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales of the combined Top 75; and corporate group shares by % of total sales of the combined Top 75.

AIRPLAY: Figures show top 10 companies by % of total airplay audience of the Media Monitor Top 50; and corporate group shares by % of total airplay audience of the Music Control UK Top 50.

Not quite matching the number four debut of Eternal's Someday, the group's former member Louise registers the fourth hit of her debut solo album Naked, debuting at number five with Undivided Love. That equals her previous highest position as a solo artist, as achieved by the title track of her album three months ago. Naked the album has started to increase its sales too, and climbs 34-29 this week, having sold around 70,000 copies in its nine weeks on release so far.

The only singles to move up this week are by Canadians Bryan Adams and Alanis Morissette; Adams' Let's Make This A Night To Remember climbs 13-10 and Morissette's Head Over Feet stages a surprising 36-33 bounce a month after peaking at seven. It's Adams fifth consecutive Top 10 hit and his seventh in total.

Morissette, meanwhile, continues with a commanding lead at the top of the album chart through Jagged Little Pill, her 10th week in pole position there. That's the longest reign by a Canadian, beating Celine Dion's seven week rule with Colour Of My Love last year. With re-releases of early Morissette singles You Oughtta Know and Hand In My Pocket already mooted, Jagged Little Pill still has plenty of life in it.

Alan Jones

Dodgy are good enough to spend a third week at the top of the airplay chart, pushing further ahead of its rivals. Nearest challenger Alisha's Attie's I Am I Feel – a solid seller with five weeks in the Top 20 – has a 25% smaller tally of audience impressions and registered 458 fewer plays than Good Enough last week.

Despite six weeks at the top of the sales chart, the Spice Girls' Wannabe has not climbed above four on the airplay chart and is currently stuck at number five. It is now only beginning to get substantial support from Atlantic 252, where it moved 26-13 with 30 plays last week. The Dublin-based station has finally started to decrease support for Alanis Morissette's Ironic however. After seven weeks in which it registered between 58 and 61 spins, Ironic had just 39 plays on the station last week, losing its top billing to the aforementioned Alisha's Attie.

As it continues to bounce around the sales chart – its down again this week, but not out – Los Del Rio's Macarena continues to make a slow but determined climb up the airplay chart as more stations realise they can't resist their listeners' appetite for it. It achieves a best-yet 22nd place on the chart this week, a six-place improvement with Capital the latest station to weigh in, playing it 50 times last week. The poorest supporters, apart from the specialist stations – are Radio One and Atlantic 252. These being the two main stations outside the ILR network, its no surprise to find it as high as 15 on the ILR chart.

ILR stations regard Radio One as their biggest rival, yet the gulf between what they play grows ever wider, suggesting that it requires something of a quantum jump to move from being a listener of one to being a listener of the other. While the ILR Top 40 this week contains just one unreleased single – the upcoming Lighthouse Family release – eight of the 40 most played records at Radio One had yet to be released at the end of the survey period (Saturday 24), including two of its top three. While Radio One runs with new singles and hits of limited magnitude, ILR sticks to proven hits.

One of Radio One's biggest favourites this week is The Charlatans' One To Another, which earned 27 plays last week, one fewer than the station's joint top tunes, Suede's Trash and Kula Shaker's Hey Dude. Though it won the Battle Of The Bands on ITV's Chart Show at the weekend, One To Another is getting fewer plays – 24 – from all other stations on the panel than from Radio One, which also contributed more than 97% of its audience last week.
