THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

If George Michael meets the Spice Girls on a visit to their mutual record company's HQ in London, he should be forgiven for giving them short shrift. George takes his career very seriously and these young upstarts have deprived him of two number ones with their debut hit Wannabee. Their extended run at the top of the singles chart blocked Robbie Williams' revamp of George's Freedom five weeks ago, and last week it was Michael himself who had to be content with a number two debut for his latest single Spinning The Wheel.

George's single slumps to number six this week, while the Spice Girls spend a seventh week at the summit. Wannabee has now sold 960,000 copies, and has equalled Meat Loaf's I'd Do Anything For Love (But I Won't Do That) as the longest running number one in the 23-year history of Virgin Records.

The biggest challenge to the Spice Girls this week came from Kula Shaker. Showing just how quickly things move in the charts these days, Kula Shaker had no Top 40 hits to their credit just four months ago, and now have three. They debuted fairly quietly with Grateful When You're Dead at the beginning of May, followed up with the number four hit Tattva in July, and now debut at number two with Hey Dude, which sold about 65,000 copies last week, compared with Wannabee's 90,000.

At the other end of the chart, Pulp's attempt to match Oasis by gaining multiple entries for their re-issued catalogue has amounted to very little. Only Do You Remember The First Time?, a number 33 hit in 1994, has re-entered the Top 75, though five other reactivated singles by the group are to be found elsewhere in the Top 200 - The Sisters EP (number 76), Lip Gloss (number 78), Common People (92), Disco 2000 (103) and Mis-Shapes/Sorted For E's And Whizz (116).

Despite the heavy turnover of Top 10 hits - there are four new entries this week - Los Del Rio's Macarena and OMC's How Bizarre hold at number seven and eight respectively. Macarena has sold 330,000 copies to date, and looks set to have an extended and slow fade. How Bizarre has had an old-fashioned chart career, moving 22-19-19-11-8-5-8-8. Its sales increased every week (even when it moved 5-8) until it dipped slightly last week. It has sold 200,000 copies so far. Another tenacious record, with a 15-14-15-15-18-18 career to date is Alisha's Attie's debut hit I Am I Feel, which has sold about 115,000 copies - more than some top five hits.

AIRPLAY: Figures show top 10 companies by % of total airplay audience of the Media Monitor Top 50; and corporate group shares by % of total airplay audience of the Music Control UK Top 50.

Pill spends its 11th week as the nation's number one album, and was certified platinum for the sixth time last week, signifying sales of 1,800,000 copies. Only three albums by female soloists have sold more copies - Madonna's Immaculate Collection and True Blue and Kylie Minogue's Kylie. Jagged Little Pill continues to pile on the sales overseas too, and is currently number one in Holland, Finland, Ireland and the US. Its world sales are now approaching 20,000,000.

The Carpenters documentary and concert screened eight days ago (August 25) gave their Only Yesterday hits compilation a massive boost. It moves 131-28, as its sales increases by 500%. The screening of Riverdance - The Show fuels a 136-71 climb for Bill Whelan's album of the same name. The video of Riverdance has sold well over a million copies, while Whelan's album - obviously lacking the visuals which attract people to the project in the first place - has never climbed higher than 31, though it has managed to accumulate sales of around 220,000 copies so far.

After debuting at number five last week, Neil Diamond's Ultimate Collection dips to number nine. It is his 30th charted album - a figure bettered by only 10 artists in the chart's history.

For a record that hasn't come near the Top 10 of the CIN chart (see sales commentary for details), Alisha's Attie's debut single I Am I Feel is picking up copious amounts of airplay. It holds at number two on the airplay chart this week, with a small increase in plays and a larger increase in audience impression halving the gap between it and the reigning number one, Dodgy's Good Enough, which spends a fourth week at the top, even though it has now peaked.

Moving up smartly behind both records is George Michael's Spinning The Wheel. George has had good support from radio with all three singles from his Older album. The first, Jesus To A Child, was a number one airplay hit. FastLove peaked at number two, and Spinning The Wheel is number three after adding 403 plays and 11 million listeners to its tally last week. All three of George's singles have topped the play chart at Capital Radio. Spinning The Wheel was played 55 times by the station last week, enough for it to swap places with Dodgy.

Capital is also an enthusiastic early supporter of Dina Carroll's upcoming single Escaping, her first for three years. It earned 21 plays at the station last week. Nationally it logged 533 plays to move powerfully 92-50, though, curiously it failed to register a single play at Radio One. On ILR, it moves 103-20. The B-side of the record, a dance track called Mind. Body And Soul is also picking up airplay, though this is on specialist dance shoes, and at Kiss FM and Choice primarily.

Radio One has gone mad on Virtual Insanity, the latest single by Jamiroquai. It secured 28 plays on the station last week, sharing top billing with The Charlatans. It's the first Jamiroquai record to top the Radio One list, and is primarily responsible for the record's 13-7 move on the overall airplay chart. On ILR plays alone, it ranks only 15th. Radio One also gave Tiger's debut hit Race 21 of its 25 plays nationally last week, furnishing it with more than 99% of the audience that helped it to move 75-43 on the airplay chart.

The hottest new entries to Atlantic 252's Top 50 are Mark Morrison's Crazy, Peter Andre's Mysterious Girl and Los Del Rio's Macarena, which debut in chart at 14, 15 and 16 in its chart having earned 29, 28 and 27 plays respectively. Atlantic 252's conservatism in such matters, combined with its large audience often gives records second wind on the airplay chart but, with the exception of Macarena, which moves to a best yet 20th place nationally, these are too far gone, with more desertions than this belated play can compensate for.
