CHART FOCUS

Robson & Jerome make chart history this week, debuting at number one with their single, comprising What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted, You'll Never Walk Alone and Saturday Night At The Movies. The first triple-a-side to reach the summit, it sold approximately 196,000 copies last week, fewer than either of their other number ones but comfortably enough to despatch the Spice Girls' Say You'll Be There.

The singles chart is 44 years old this week and R&J are only the fourth act in all that time to open their career with a hat trick of number ones, emulating Gerry & The Pacemakers, Frankie Goes To Hollywood and Jive Bunny. As well as being one of the three tracks on R&J's third number one, You'll Never Walk Alone was also Gerry & The Pacemakers third chart topper. It is only the second song to reach number one in three versions. The other was Unchained Melody, a number one for Jimmy Young, the Righteous Brothers and... Robson & Jerome.

The fact that the latest R&J single opened with a lower tally than their first two hits may be due to seasonal factors rather than RCA's controversial decision not to issue free product, which effectively caused indies to price it at £3.99, while even multiples struggled to peg its price to £2.99. By stark contrast, Bjork's new singles Possibly Maybe was released in three different CD editions, all widely available at just 99p. Despite this, and Bjork's outstanding track record, it debuted at number 13, selling just 36,000 copies.

It is a mixed week for PolyGram who, having sorted out their distribution problems, saw five new release singles – by El Mariachi, Cool Jack, Status Quo, Lucky Monkeys and T-Empo – make disappointing debuts. In the album charts PolyGram fares better though, claiming the top spot in both rundowns. Kiss In Ibiza is the biggest selling compilation for the fourth week in a row, while Boyzone make their debut at the top of the artist album chart with A Different Beat.

Boyzone's second number one album from as many releases, A Different Beat sold 95,000 copies last week, three times as many as their first album Said & Done managed as it debuted at one last year. Said & Done has since reached double platinum status, however, and spent 58 of its 63 weeks in release in the Top 75, though this week isn't one of them, as it falls 68-89.

The Beatles' Anthology 3 debuts at four, after selling 52,000 copies last week. Anthology 2 opened at two in March with 78,000 sales – 50% more – while Anthology 1 opened at two as well last November by selling 121,000 copies. Of Beatles back catalogue, Sgt Pepper's Lovely Hearts Club Band is perennial best seller, and has quietly sold 43,000 copies this year.

The Original Soundtrack of Evita debuts at seven on the artist album chart, while the first single from the project – Madonna's You Must Love Me – plunges from its debut position of number 10 to 24. Evita qualifies for the artist chart rather than the compilation chart because it was put together for the purpose using the same backing musicians throughout, regardless of whether the vocalist was Madonna, which in most cases it was.

The Waiting To Exhale OST could have been made eligible for the artist chart last year, as all the songs were written, produced and played on by Babyface, but Arista opted not to do so.

Bis, the acclaimed Scottish group, have released singles on three different labels this year, each less successful than its predecessors. Their Secret Vampire Soundtrack EP (on Chemical Underground) reached 25 in March, while Bis Vs The DIY Corps (on Teen-C) reached 45 in June. Their current single Atom Powered Action!, their first under a longer deal with Wiiiija, signed despite fevered major label interest, debuts at number 54. Alan Jones

The Spice Girls' Say You'll Be There continues to make spectacular advances on the airwaves, registering a heady 1,735 plays last week, the second highest tally on any record this year. But that's not enough to make it number one, as the Beautiful South's Rotterdam was heard by 3.5m more listeners, even though it registered 106 fewer plays. Rotterdam, which has been number one for three weeks, has peaked now, and the Spice Girls should be able to capitalise on their continuing growth next week. East 17 and Gabrielle's If You Ever is mounting a formidable challenge though, moving 14-3 this week. Prime amongst its supporters is Radio One, where it tops the list with 26 plays.

The hottest new entry to the chart this week is a disco record by a 45-year-old Geordie and a 59-year-old Welshwoman – La Passione by Chris Rea and Shirley Bassey. From a cold start, the record debuts at number 38 this week with 110 plays.

Former Take That star Mark Owen continues to struggle with what is a certifiable sales smash. His Child single moves 77-50 on its fourth week at radio. It increased its plays from 147 to 166, with Power FM continuing to be its biggest supporter. Mark's former colleagues Robbie Williams and Gary Barlow also found airplay hard to come by before their singles proved themselves at retail.

Robson & Jerome are clearly popular, with three number ones in a row, but support for the three songs which make up their third number one is, to say the least, lukewarm. What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted moves 37-28, while Saturday Night At The Movies is unranked with 11 plays, five of them at Signal Cheshire. You'll Never Walk Alone doesn't register a single play.

With radio showing a bias towards the dance remixes rather than the original ballad, Michael Jackson's Stranger In Moscow is showing spectacular growth. Last week it exploded 144 to 32, and this week it surges to number 13 with 844 plays, some 325 higher than last week's tally. Radio One is behind the record in a big way, giving it 21 plays last week, while Capital was even kinder, spinning it 28 times.

Another veteran, Madonna, is making less impact at radio with her latest single than with any other in her 41 hit career. You Must Love Me is not a traditional ballad and radio seems to have problems slotting it in. It does rise this week, from 72 to 43, but much of that is fuelled by plays on radio chart shows. Alan Jones
