THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

A triple A-side it may be but sales of Robson & Jerome's third chart-topping single What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted/Saturday Night At The Movies/You'll Never Walk Alone - seem unlikely to come near matching their first two. After debuting at number one with sales of around 196,000 last week, it suffers a dip in demand, selling only 113,000 in its second phase. With their new album out today likely to take even more of an edge off the single's sales, it will be vulnerable to challenges next week.

Creation's latest re-activation of Oasis's back catalogue pays big dividends, with all nine of the group's singles thus far returning to the Top 75, while boxed collections - each featuring four of the group's singles and an interview disc - enter the album chart.

Including the boxed sets, some 218,000 Oasis singles were sold last week. The last - and indeed only - act to have more than nine singles on the chart simultaneously were the Jam, who had 14 hits charted on February 5 1983 after a similar reissue blitz.

Oasis singles have spent 103 weeks on the chart so far in 1996. The 100 weeks mark has been broken in a calendar year only twice before, most recently in 1957. If eight of Oasis's singles stay on the chart next week they will establish a new all-time record - but more of that as and when it happens. Of all their singles, whatever is the one with the lengthiest Top 75 career, clocking up 41 weeks on the chart, a total beaten by only 12 records in the history of the 44-year-old chart.

Two other Oasis-related singles are on the chart this week: Beck's Devils Haircut, which has a mix by Noel Gallagher to which he contributed additional guitarwork, debuts at number 22, while the Chemical Brothers' Setting Sun, on which he sings lead, continues its descent, dipping 39-54. Setting Sun debuted at number one but spent only one further week in the Top 10, equalling the shortest stay in the Top 10 by a number one set by Queen's Innuendo in 1991.

In an otherwise completely unchanged top five this week, the only newcomer is Michael Jackson's latest single, Stranger In Moscow, which thus becomes the fourth new recording from his HISTORY project to dent the top five, may go higher still, as the second CD Stranger In Moscow was issued today. HISTORY is not responding to the success of its latest single very forcefully, drifting up a couple of notches to number 88, though it has sold around 1.25m copies since it was released in June 1995.

AT-A-GLANCE WEEKLY MARKET SHARE

It's one of those little ironies of life that while Robson & Jerome's latest single is shaping up to be their least successful at retail, it has blossomed into their biggest radio hit to date. The lead track on their single, What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted, climbs 28-14 on the Airplay chart this week, though it has received little support from Radio One - so little, in fact, that it has been played only on the chart show.

Meanwhile, the record knocked off the top of the sales chart by R&J - Spice Girls' Say You'll Be There - surges to the top of the Airplay chart, though East 17 and Gabrielle are dancing close attendance with If You Ever, which received just 28 fewer plays and an audience of 60.8m compared to the Spice Girls' 61.3m. If If You Ever is earlier in its "spins" cycle than Say You'll Be There and is gaining rapidly, expect it to overtake next week.

The reissue of Oasis's entire singles output sparked renewed play for many of them last week, with Don't Look Back In Anger (95-53) and Wonderwall (145-77) leading the charge, though Atlantic 252's long-term preference for Champagne Supernova helped that song to break into the Top 50 last week - a rare feat for an album track.

Atlantic 252 has also taken a rare unilateral decision to play Merrill Bainbridge's upcoming Arista single Mouth, which it spun 23 times last week. The Aussie songstress's single is currently a hit in the US, and Atlantic 252's patronage helps it to move 121-70 on the Airplay chart.

Radio One's on-off support for Blackstreet's No Diggity is causing the US number one to bounce around the Airplay chart, moving 27-44-28.

Having gone nap on Jamiroquai's Virtual Insanity, Virgin sticks with JK & Co, awarding their upcoming single Cosmic Girl seven plays last week. The occasional inclusion of artists like Jamiroquai, Freakpower and Tony Rich is as far as Virgin goes to accommodating R&B, but it's a start.

After topping the Airplay chart (not to mention the sales chart) with their last two singles, Fugees are aiming to make it three in a row with their re-working of Bob Marley's No Woman No Cry, which moves 59-31 this week. It's a shrewd choice, though Fugees must have no idea that Marley's gentle reggae rhythms attract more stations across more formats than any other artist. Kiss, Heart, Virgin, Radio One, Melody, Radio Two and every gold station in the country are among those that regularly programme tracks by Marley, with No Woman No Cry the most frequent choice. Alan Jones

The Spice Girls knocked Boyzone off the top of the singles chart four weeks ago, and to show it wasn't a fluke they repeat the feat on the album chart. The girls' debut album Spice sold 155,000 copies last week, three times as many as any other album, to debut in pole position.

It's the biggest splash made by a debut album since Robson & Jerome's self-titled introduction arrived 50 weeks ago, and the first album by an all-girl group to top the chart since 1977, when a Diana Ross & The Supremes retrospective reached number one.

While the Beatles' Anthology 3

makes a dramatic debut at number one in the US to give the group their 18th number one there - twice as many as Elvis Presley and the Rolling Stones, who are their joint nearest rivals - it disappointingly sags 4-21 in the UK. It's a sad fact that the Beatles are far more revered in America than in Britain these days, even though their influence on bands like Oasis and Ocean Colour Scene is widely documented and means a great deal more here than Stageside. The 32 years and nine months which have elapsed between the Beatles' first and last number one albums is also a US chart record. Alan Jones
