THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

Thirteen proves to be a lucky number for Eternal who, having previously reached the top 15 with their first dozen singles, debut at number one with their 13th, I Wanna Be The Only One. The record, on which the girl trio are joined by US gospel star Bebe Winans, sold 150,000 copies last week. That's the third highest weekly sale recorded by a number one so far in 1997, being inferior only to tallies registered by the Spice Girls' Mama/Who Do You Think You Are and No Doubt's Don't Speak.

I Wanna Be The Only One is the third hit lifted from Eternal's third album Before The Rain, which peaked at three in March and which rebounds 36-14 this week. It's also the first number one for First Avenue, the management and production company set up by Oliver Smallman and Denis Ingoldby six years ago. Via licensing deals with EMI, BMG, PolyGram and Sony, First Avenue has released more than 70 singles and achieved a near 100% Top 70 strike rate, with 27 records becoming Top 10 hits. Louise, Michelle Gayle, MN8 and Dina Carroll are among their signings and the company receives 170 demo tapes a week in a very hopeful mood.

Eternal's success is bad news for Sarah Brightman and Andrea Bocelli, whose duet Time To Say Goodbye holds at number two despite a 50% increase in sales. A number one for 14 weeks in Germany, where it sold an unprecedented 2.5m copies, Time To Say Goodbye has also unleashed an appreciation of Bocelli. The 29-year-old Italian's Romanza, a compilation of work previously released on the continent, is the highest new entry to the album chart, debuting at 10.

The Rembrandts, meanwhile, provide the week's other sales success, sprinting from 11 to five with I'll Be There For You's sales nearly doubling week-on-week. Reissued to tie-in with the video release of the first series of the C4 sitcom Friends, for which it is the theme, I'll Be There For You peaked at three when first released in 1995 and has sold 410,000 copies so far.

Likely to provide a strong challenge to Eternal next week, Hanson's Mmmmbop single isn't officially released until today (Monday) but imports of the American CD single have sold extremely well in the past fortnight, despite being priced at more than £5. It debuted at number 138 last week and now features at 144 as stocks are depleted.

Chelsea FC's FA Cup Triumph helps their Blue Day single with Suggs continue to climb. It has moved 26-24-22 so far. It may dip a little this week, as the glow of victory fades, but a second CD of the record, remixed and airplay chart. It had 1,620 monitored plays last week – the same as the week before – and a slightly increased audience, with nearly 71m impressions. Its main threat now is likely to come from Hanson, whose Mmmmbop single climbs 5-3, reaching the highest position on the airplay chart ever attained by a new act prior to the release of its first single. Among the 1,553 plays Mmmmbop received last week were 28 from Radio One. That is sometimes enough for a record to top the Radio One list, but earns it only sixth place in a week when the station's favourites are the Seahorses' Love Is The Law and the Cardigans' Lovefool, both of which were aired 32 times last week – the most spins Radio One has awarded to any record so far in 1997.

Olive have narrowed the gap yet again but the Cardigans' Lovefool enjoys a third week at the top of the

DJ Quicksilver's Belissima is a massive sales success. It finally dips out of the sales Top 10 this week, slipping one place to number 11, and has sold 340,000 copies to date. But that has not impressed radio; it peaked at number 20 in the airplay chart a fortnight ago and this week falls 31-36. Contributing massively to its 414 plays, Atlantic 252 has played the track 192 times in the past three weeks, including 65 in its most recent. Until a year or so ago, Atlantic regularly played its most popular hits 90 or even 100 times but it rarely now exceeds 60, and Belissima's exposure over the past three weeks represent the most concentrated support it has given to any record this year.

No Doubt's Don't Speak registered more than 1,000 plays for 15 weeks in a row but finally dips below four figures this week, as it declines from 1,012 to 847 plays. It holds at number 23 on the chart, however, and is likely to add several more weeks to its 19-week run before it expires altogether.

For all the support radio gave No Mercy's Where Do You Go, it clearly thought that the group's success was a flash in the pan, and gave almost no pre-release airplay to their new single Please Don't Go, which debuted at number four on sales and 117 on airplay last week. It perks up considerably this week, however, with 481 plays fuelling a jump to number 40 on airplay, though a tumble to 13 on the sales chart will do much to impede further progress. Katrina & The Waves also continue to make slow progress. Love Shine A Light gained 386 plays last week, an improvement of 94 on the week before, but most are from small stations and restrict the record to a move from 48 to 46.

Alan Jones

revamped after their victory, should fuel a renewed clamour for the record next week. Defeated finalists Middlesbrough's Lets Dance single – recorded with Chris Rea and Bob Mortimer – which debuted at number 44 last week, now dips to 76.

Michael Jackson's Blood On The Dancefloor: History In The Mix enjoys a second week at the top of the album chart despite selling a disappointing 30,000 copies last week. It only narrowly prevented the Spice Girls from regaining pole position, after selling a further 25,000 copies of their Spice album. And Paul McCartney reversed his decline, climbing 5-3 as

Flaming Pie sold 18,000 copies, 5,000 more than the week before.

Apologies for suggestions hereabouts that the Spice Girls were without a Top 75 hit a couple of weeks ago. In fact, the girls – who are at 56 with Mama/Who Do You Think You Are and at 63 with 2 Become 1 this week – have maintained a singles chart presence dating back to Wannabe's debut on July 20 last year. Given that the average life of a hit single these days is less than four weeks, that's a remarkable record. But they have some way to go to beat Elvis Presley's all-time record of 144 successive weeks between 1960 and 1963.
