THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

CHART FOCUS

Nearly four years after topping the chart with DJ Jazzy Jeff in his former guise as the Fresh Prince, Will Smith returns in a solo capacity with Men In Black, the title track of the current number one movie in which he also stars in an acting role.

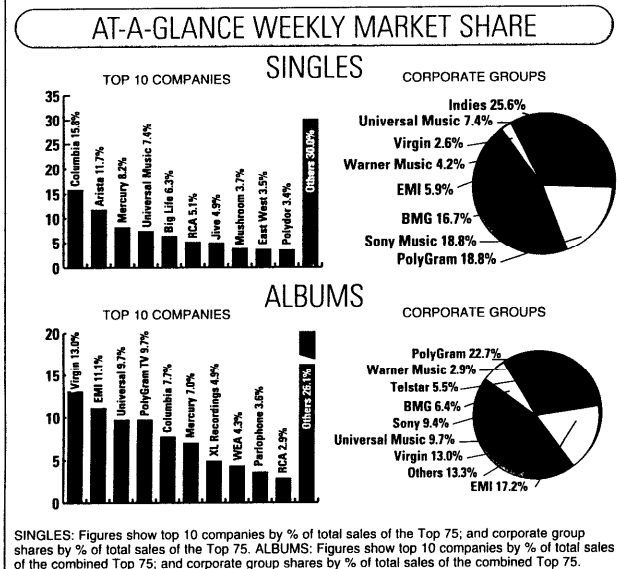

Songs from movies occupy four of the Top 10 places in the singles chart this week, with two from Bean: The Movie - Wet Wet Wet's Yesterday and Boyzone's Picture Of You - and two from Nothing To Lose - Coolio's C U When U Get There and Lil' Kim's Not Tonight, which debuts at number 11. Men In Black is the first title track from a film to reach number one for exactly 10 years, the number one at this stage of 1987 being Los Lobos' La Bamba.

Men In Black sold 182,000 copies last week, easily dethroning Puff Daddy's I'll Be Missing You, which dipped below 100,000 for the first time, with 96,000 new buyers. It's the first time in British chart history that we've had consecutive number one rap hits. Men In Black is the 14th single to debut at number one already this year, putting us well on course to top the record 19 that did so last year. And it's the second number one in 15 months to be based on Patrice Rushen's 1982 hit Forget Me Nots, following George Michael's FastLove in the spring last year.

Wet Wet Wet continue to celebrate their 10th year as a hit act in style, registering their third biggie of 1997 by debuting at number four with their cover of the Beatles' classic Yesterday. The most recorded song of all-time, Yesterday has now been a Top 40 hit for five different acts, something only two other songs - Unchained Melody and Only You - can claim. It's the second time Wet Wet Wet have raided the Beatles' songbook for a hit, having registered their first number one nine years ago with a cover of With A Little Help From My Friends.

Billy J. Kramer and the Dakotas had four Top 10 hits with Beatles songs in the Sixties however, setting a benchmark that still remains. Beatles songs never go out of fashion and two singles that have charted in the past few weeks have had songs written by the group on their flipside. U2's Last Night On Earth features Happiness Is A Warm Gun and Rootjooze's Mr Fxitz surprises Taxman.

Aussie boy band Universal looked down and out last week, when their debut hit Rock Me Good slipped from 19 to 37. This week it bounces back to number 29 - the beneficiary of a fortuitous combination of increased TV exposure of the track and a particularly "soft" region of the chart - their eight place climb was accompanied by a further 10% drop in sales of Rock Me Good. While Black Eyed Boy - the third single from Texas' White On Blonde LP - drops 5-15, the album itself holds at number two after selling nearly 29,000 copies last week, some 1,500 fewer than The Fat Of The Land, the Prodigy album which takes the title for the sixth week in a row. White On Blonde debuted at number one six months ago but was instantly dethroned and hasn't quite made it back to the top since. It probably won't get a chance now, with the Backstreet Boys' new album out today (11th) and the new Oasis album due next week. The highest new entry this week, however, is something of a surprise - Billy Ocean's Love Is For Ever, which debuts at number seven. Billy Ocean had a string of hit albums and singles in the Eighties but has been cold for the best part of a decade. His last charted album was 1989's Greatest Hits, which reached number four. Love Is For Ever is an expanded version of that album, containing all of Ocean's hits as well as the better material from his 1993 album Time To Move On, which itself failed to chart. Alan Jones

After narrowly beating off the challenge of Meredith Brooks' Bitch last week, Texas' Black Eyed Boy makes appreciable gains again this week, to move nearly 10% clear at the top. An extra 197 plays and 5m audience impressions leave Texas looking comfortable for at least another two weeks at number one, by which time Will Smith - whose Men In Black had moved 28-15-7-5 - may be in a position to take over.

The record being played most by radio is none of the above - it continues to be Puff Daddy, Faith Evans and 112's I'll Be Missing You, which gained listeners and plays for the 10th week in a row. That it is still ranked third, with 12m fewer audience impressions than Texas, is down to Radio 1 for which it is only the 24th most played song. It continues to top the ILR chart.

Wet Wet Wet traditionally do better on the airplay chart than at retail - with the obvious and massive exception of Love Is All Around - but their cover of the Beatles' Yesterday is only ranked 30th after a month on the airwaves. It may just be that after 10 years, they're beginning to be seen as old hat. Their last single Strange also performed poorly at radio, reaching 21 compared to its CIN sales chart peak of 13.

Strong support from Radio 1 helps the Refugee Camp Allstars' Sweetest Thing to debut at 44 this week. The song, featuring vocalist Laurn Hill, hasn't really ignited at club level, and Radio 1's support is vital to its success. It got 24 plays from the station last week, one more than it got from all other stations added together. Radio 1 also supplied over 98% of its audience.

Another track dependent on Radio 1 is Oasis' Stay Young. Having hammered D'You Know What I Mean?, Radio 1 is almost alone in discovering the charms of the b-side track. They played Stay Young 22 times last week, as it logged 15 plays elsewhere. Radio 1's support hoists it from 64 to 42, while D'You Know What I Mean slips 6-11.

The longest running hit on the chart is the Cardigans' Lovefool, which continues its slow decline by moving 32-35. The track has spent 21 weeks on the chart and still commands more than 600 plays a week, though the group's new single Your New Cuckoo has now been serviced and should start eating into its popularity next week.

After three weeks in the Top 20 and sales of 100,000, the Mamas & Papas' reissued California Dreamin' is no closer to breaking radio. It does move into the Top 100 this week for the first time - from 134 to 99 - but its gains are minimal, and the majority of its exposure is still coming from chart countdowns. Alan Jones
