CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

It took nine weeks for Never Ever to become All Saints' first number one. This week, after 24 weeks on the listings, it finally dips out of the chart. As it does, their new single, pairing remakes of the Red Hot Chili Peppers' Under The Bridge and LaBelle's Lady Marmalade, debuts in pole position after selling 107,000 copies last week. Although that is more than Never Ever managed to sell when it was number one, it is nevertheless very unlikely to match the enormous popularity of its illustrious predecessor, which has thus far sold 1 250,000 copies.

While both All Saints and Madonna – who sits at number two with Ray Of Light – consolidated their "midweek" chart positions, Garbage and Massive Attack, who were ranked third and fourth in the first sales update of the week, both dropped away with the first singles from their long-awaited new albums. Even as late as Thursday, it looked like there could be four new entries to the top five – a feat completed on only three occasions: once in 1996 and twice last year. By week's end,

● Looking to register consecutive number ones for the first time in 11 years, Madonna was never really in the chase with the title track from her album Ray Of Light lagging behind All Saints' Under The Bridge/Lady Marmalade from day one. In the end, Ray Of Light sold 76,000 copies in debuting at number two, some 31,000 fewer than the All Saints single, which had the advantage of being issued in two CD versions, both widely available at £1.99, while the only CD of Ray Of Light was priced at a minimum of £2.99. Though it didn't equal the chart-topping Frozen, Ray Of Light's success gives Maddy her first consecutive top two hits since 1990. Ray Of Light is her 45th hit in all, and the 41st to reach the Top 10. Ray Of Light started life as Seraphin, under which title it was recorded by obscure Sixties group Bodaca.

them was Tex Mex group the Mavericks' debut hit Dance The Night Away, which suffered a slight decline in sales but still managed to improve by one place on its number nine debut of a week ago. The group completed a 14 night sell-out tour of the UK last week, and also made an appearance on the new-look Top Of The Pops, both factors in the success of the single and its parent album Trampoline, which bounces 13-11.

With All Saints' Never Ever losing its grip on the Top 75, as mentioned above, the Teletubbies' Teletubbies Say Eh-Oh! is the chart's new longest-running hit, with 22 weeks on the listings. The record, which has sold 1,060,000 copies to date, dips 46-52.

Meanwhile, a single which was released eight weeks ago finally enters the Top 75 this week. The record in question is Imaani's Where Are You, which will carry British Eurovision hopes in Birmingham next week. Debating at 60, it has already sold more than 11,000 copies.

by ALAN JONES

Despite a 56% decline in its week-on-week sales, Massive Attack's Mezzanine was strong enough to hold on to pole position on the album chart, after selling 38,000 copies last week – 8,000 more than the new runner-up, Catatonia's International Velvet. The release of Mezzanine – and its introductory single Teardrop – has reawakened interest in Massive Attack's previous album releases, with Blue Lines moving 121,857 and Protection advancing 162,136 in the last fortnight.

Meanwhile, the release of its title track as a single lifted sales of Madonna's Ray Of Light by 28%, enough for it to climb 9-4. Two weeks after it was released, Ray Of Light has sold more than 400,000 copies, and has never dipped out of the Top 10.

Another diva of dance, Ultra Nate, has the album chart's highest new entry, debuting at 17 with her Situation: Critical album, which includes both her number four hit Free and its number six follow-up Found A Cure.

MARKET REPORT AT A GLANCE WEEKLY MARKET SHARES

Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales, and corporate group shares by % of total sales, of the Top 75 artist albums

Released more than five years ago, and already a triple platinum million seller, Abba's Gold – Greatest Hits album bounces

● Sold-out tour dates and a second hit single are the major factors behind the rise-and-rise of Catatonia's International Velvet album, which climbs to number two on the album chart this week. The Welsh group peaked at number 40 with their 1996 debut Way Beyond Blue, a position instantly improved upon by International Velvet when it made its chart debut 13 weeks ago, in the wake of the success of their Mulder & Scully single. The subsequent success of Cerys's Ballad of Tom Jones collaboration with Space (not on the album) and their new single Road Rage have consistently lifted Catatonia's stock in recent weeks. International Velvet has sold 140,000 copies and its chart history to date (11-18-20-20-25-28-36-31-25-19-13-5-2) shows a slow and gradual decline, followed by an accelerating improvement.

memoir to many fans of the group.

The death of lead singer Michael Hutchence has had little effect on INXS's back catalogue but that's changed a little, with The Greatest Hits now being actively re-promoted. The album, which has already sold more than 330,000 copies, is at 100 this week, and likely to re-enter the Top 75.

Titanic's box office decline has been mirrored in the gentle fall of James Horner's score for the movie. At one time looking likely to replace The Verve's Urban Hymns as the year's biggest-selling album, it is now selling fewer copies than its rival week-on-week, with the result that Urban Hymns is moving further ahead. In America, where Titanic has spent 16 weeks at the top, it is being helped by the fact that Top 40 radio stations are playing the track Southampton. In the UK, with just My Heart Will Go On on the airwaves, Titanic has slipped to ninth place, although its record to date – 650,000 sales in 16 weeks – is still outstanding.

COMPILATIONS

Now That's What I Call Music! 39 remains far ahead of the pack. It sold 55,000 copies last week, two-and-a-half times as many copies as any other compilation, to spend a fourth week at the chart summit. With 415,000 copies sold to date, it's the biggest selling compilation of the year.

While Now! 39 and many other albums on the compilation chart are packed with hits, Off Yer Nut!!, which debuts at number 13 this week includes no hits at all. A triple CD set comprising happy hardcore mixes by DJ Brisk, DJ Sy and DJ Ramos, it's the debut release on the new TVD imprint, which supported the record with £65,000 of TV advertising in one week.

...but one of the 55 tracks featured on the album is known beyond the happy hardcore fraternity. Titles include The Pimp, The Pusher and The Panther by Rozzer's Dog, Mad Cows On Acid by DDR & The Geezer and Top Banana by Punk Floyd.

The highest new entry is the latest in the successful series on Kiss branded compilations from PolyGram TV. Kiss Garage debuts at number three, and is the follow-up to Kiss Smooth Grooves 98, which has sold more than 80,000 copies since it was released 10 weeks ago.

The impressive eight-week chart climb staged by the Jackie Brown soundtrack was examined here last week. The album holds at 11 – its third week in that position – but now seems to have peaked, and suffered a 16% decline in sales last week.
