CHART
COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

After just one week at number one, All Saints's Under The Bridge/Lady Marmalade is overhauled by Aqua, who register their third consecutive number one – and second number one debut – with Turn Back Time, which sold 75,000 copies last week, just 4,000 more than the All Saints single. Turn Back Time is one of five new entries in the Top 10.

Run-DMC's It's Like That single sold its millionth copy on Saturday, and is the 21st single to achieve a seven figure sale in the Nineties – more than in any previous decade. Another million seller, Heart Will Go On, became Celine Dion's biggest seller on Saturday too, reaching 1.237m. Her previous biggest hit Think Twice sold 1.235m. The complete list of million sellers of the Nineties, in descending order of sales is: 1 Something About The Way You Look Tonight – Elton John; 2 Unchained

Aqua create a piece of chart history this week after debuting at number one with Turn Back Time. The Danish group also reached number one with their two previous singles Barbie Girl and Doctor Jones. They thus become the sixth act ever to start their career with a hat trick of number ones, following Gerry & The Pacemakers, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Jive Bunny & The Mastermixers, Robson & Jerome and the Spice Girls – but the first from overseas.

Its eight months since their UK chart debut with Barbie Girl, since when they've been chart ever-presents, and sold over 2.3m singles here, including more than 1.7m copies of Barbie Girl, earning the track fourth place in the list of best-selling singles of the Nineties. It's the biggest selling single of the Nineties by an act from overseas (see list below).

MARKET REPORT

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

Whitney Houston; 9 Killing Me Softly – Fugees; 10 Wannabe – Spice Girls; 11 Never Ever – All Saints; 12 My Heart Will Go On – Celine Dion; 13 Think Twice – Celine Dion; 14 Gangsta's Paradise – Coolio; 15 Spaceman – Babylon Zoo; 16 Saturday Night – Whigfield; 17 2 Become 1 – Spice Girls; 18 Teletubbies Say Eh-Oh – Teletubbies; 19 I Believe/Up On The Roof – Robson & Jerome; 20 Earth Song – Michael Jackson; 21 It's Like That – Run-DMC Vs. Jason Nevins

It would be remiss of me not to mention that Imaani's Where Are You made the Top 40 at the ninth attempt this week, surging 60-32 on the back of unprecedented TV coverage of Eurovision in the days leading up to the competition. Seeking to give the UK its fifth outright win, Imaani came close, but finished in second place, as a remarkable 14 other Brits have before her, just seven points behind Israel's Dana International.

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

US-born but UK-domiciled Tori Amos has been more popular in the UK than in the country of her birth since her career began, but she seems to have gone off the boil a little with From The Choirgirl Hotel, which debuts this week at number six. Tori's introductory album Little Earthquakes peaked at number 14 paving the way for the number one album Under The Pink and the number two Boys For

ALBUM FACTFILE

Pele. Those three albums have sold a combined half a million copies so far but From The Choirgirl Hotel sold only 16,000 last week, despite rave reviews in the music press and beyond. Let's keep this in perspective though - From The Choirgirl Hotel is the highest debuting album of the week, beating in vogue artists like Saint Etienne, Money Mark and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones at a canter.

The blanco y negro label earns its first ever number one album this week as Welsh band Catatonia take over in pole position with International Velvet. The 14-year-old imprint, which was initially an indie but is now part of the Warner Music family, has previously never had anything higher than number five - this being the pole positions of both Everything But The Girl's 1993 compilation Home Movies - The Very Best Of Everything But The Girl and the Jesus And Mary Chain's 1987 album Darklands. International Velvet sold 32,000 copies last week, some 8,000 more than Massive Attack's Mezzanine, which drops to number two after a fortnight at the top. Aided by TV advertising, International Velvet has sold over 170,000 copies.

Helped enormously by the screening of several Eurovision specials and Muriel's Wedding, the Aussie film in which their music is very prominent, Abba's Gold -

SALES UPDATE

Greatest Hits accelerated its recent return to chart success, soaring from 39 to 19, with a week-on-week sales increase of over 141%.

Aqua registered their third number one single from their debut album Aquarium this week, but the album itself simply drifts 27-30. Released exactly six months ago, it might have been expected to have performed better than it has, in view of the group's enormous singles success. Thus far, Aquarium as a peak position of 10 and has sold 377,000 copies. The All Saints album is vaguely comparable, since it was released three weeks later and includes two number ones and a number four hit, but while Aqua's album has resisted the chart's high numbers, All Saints has reached number one and has sold over 915,000 copies. This week it rises 10-5, responding to the success of Under The Bridge/Lady Marmalade.

Jive's excellent year just keeps getting better. The company's George Benson compilation Essentials, licensed from Warner Music, went gold last week, while its latest release, Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince's Greatest Hits debuts this week at number 20.

COMPILATIONS

Now That's What I Call Music! 39 is number one for the fifth week in a row, selling over 37,000 copies last week, to bring its running total to over 450,000. Despite turning in its lowest sales figure to date, it comfortably outsold the number one artist album for the fourth time in its chart career - the only time it was topped by any album was a fortnight ago, when Massive Attack's Mezzanine beat it. Now! 39 sold slightly over 50% more than its nearest competitor last week, Top Of The Pops 1998, Volume 1, which makes a very satisfactory debut at number two, and more than twice as many as The Best Of Anthems III...Ever, which debuts at number three. All three albums - of course - feature both Cornershop's

Brimful Of Asha and Run-DMC's It's Like That, mentioned hereabouts before for their ubiquity.

Making its debut at number 19 this week, A Song For Eurotrash is the EMI album companion to the Channel 4 programme which featured contemporary remakes of some of Eurovision's biggest hits. Among the tracks featured are Kenickie's take on Save Your Kisses For Me, Bananarama's Waterloo and Shane McGowan's What's Another Year. It's already beaten This Is...Eurovision, a Virgin compilation released a year ago.

The ninth biggest selling compilation of the week is the Moving Shadow compilation 98.1, which sold nearly 8,000 copies last week but isn't eligible for the chart, as its dealer price is just 60p.
