CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

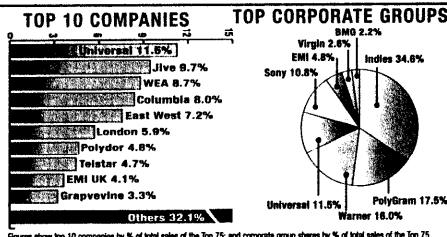

It's the weakest week of the year at the top of the singles chart, a fact which enables All Saints, rather fortuitously, to regain pole position with Under The Bridge/Lady Marmalade even though sales of the disc last week were down 27% on when it was number two the week before, with under 51,000 copies sold. The previous lowest sale with which a record has topped the chart this year came in January, when 54,000 sales were enough for...All Saints to spend their one and only week at number one with Never Ever. Even though it went on to sell over a million copies, Never Ever nearly didn't get its week at the top, as it outsold Bambo's Bamboogie by less than 600 copies. This week, Under The Bridge/Lady Marmalade was almost stopped from returning to the top by the Tamperer's Feel It, which climbed 5-2, and was outsold by just 1600 copies. Reaching a new chart peak this week,

As well as attracting one of its biggest audiences in years, the 1998 Eurovision Song Contest has had a galvanising effect on Imaani's Where Are You? Her valiant attempt at the competition notwithstanding, Where Are You? has progressed 60-32-15 in the past fortnight. It was the first record to climb into the Top 40 from outside – excluding old hits rebounding – since Katrina & The

SINGLE FACTFILE

Waves' 1997 competition winner surged 50-13 exactly a year ago. Before that, the most recent occurrences came in 1996, with Los Del Rio's Macarena soaring 74-11 on 20 July 1996, and Paul Carrack's Eyes Of Blue, taking advantage of the post-Christmas shakedown to climb 49-40 on 13 January 1996. Since Where Are You? was released 10 weeks ago, it has sold 43,000 copies.

Feel It is turning into one of the hits of the year, and has enjoyed solid and consistent demand ever since it was 255,000. It's a splendid start for Zomba's new Pepper imprint, though the label's second release – JDS's London Town – makes a much more subdued debut this week at number 49. The Tamperer record has spent longer – five weeks – in the Top 10 than any current release. The Steps single – on Zomba's long-established Jive label – is the Top 10's second longest-running hit, with four weeks in the upper echelon.

Just outside the Top 10, and showing even greater staying power, LeAnn Rimes' How Do I Live rebounds to number 11 on its 12th week in the chart. It's the biggest hit yet for both The Hit Label, who released it under licence from America's Curb label, and for Grapevine distribution, with sales to date of over 380,000 copies. Grapevine scores again, both as distributor and label, with Arsenal FC's cover of Donna Summer's Hot Stuff, which debuts at number nine.

Fronted by Scotswoman Shirley Manson, Garbage exploded onto the scene in 1995, and have sold nearly 500,000 copies of their self-titled debut album in the UK to date. Their second album, Version 2.0, sold only a little over 5% of that total last week (31,500 to be precise) but that was enough for it to debut at number one. Garbage houses a formidable array of hit singles, including Queer and

ALBUM FACTFILE

Stupid Girl, and peaked at number six. Thus far, the only single lifted from Version 2.0 is Push It, which debuted/peaked at number nine a fortnight ago. Aside from Manson, Garbage's all-American line-up is Steve Marker, Doug 'Duke' Erikson and Butch Vig, of whom the latter is the best-known. Vig produced several acts including Sonic Youth, the Smashing Pumpkins and Nirvana.

Catania's International Velvet album ended its own 14 week wait and its label's 14 year wait for a number one last week, but is instantly overwhelmed this week by Garbage, though the margin of Garbage's victory is slim, with Version 2.0 selling 31,500 copies while International Velvet sold 29,000 - enough to carry the latter album's overall tally over 200,000.

Garbage apart, the chart's highest new entry is, perhaps surprisingly, Sketches For My Sweetheart The Drunk, a 2CD 21 song collection of previously unreleased studio and four track demo recordings of Jeff Buckley, the rising singer/songwriter who drowned last year. Buckley's only previous album, his highly acclaimed 1994 debut Grace, peaked at number 50. The majority of the material on Sketches For My Sweetheart The Drunk are Buckley originals, though the album does include a rare Genesis cover, in the form of Back

In N.Y.C. The album was put together by Buckley's mother, and it is anticipated that there will be further albums comprising concert recordings from an Australian tour, radio shows, outtakes and more.

A more recent death has resulted in a strong 97 place rise this week for My Way - The Best Of Frank Sinatra, which vaults 133-36 after selling over 3,500 copies on Friday and Saturday, following the announcement of Frank Sinatra's death. While that may not sound like a huge amount, don't forget this is stock that was already sitting in the shops. The album peaked at number 13 when released last year, and has sold over 120,000 copies to date.

The first Madonna album to spend more than 10 consecutive weeks in the Top 10 since The Immaculate Collection in 1990, Ray Of Light has sold 427,000 copies to date, and holds at number four on its 11th week in the chart. The title track slips 8-12 on the singles chart but can be expected to bounce back into the Top 10 next week as the second CD single, featuring previously unreleased mixes of Ray Of Light, is issued today (18).

COMPILATIONS

Showing great stamina even for the indefatigable Now! series Now That's What I Call Music! 39 enjoys its sixth straight week at the top of the compilation chart, and has now sold 480,000 copies. That includes nearly 28,000 last week, enough to keep it ahead of Top Of The Pops 1998 - Volume 1, which was fancied to replace it at the summit but unexpectedly saw its own sales decrease slightly week-on-week from 24,400 to 23,600.

Twelve weeks after the release of Fantastic 80's! was a number one hit for Columbia, a second volume of eighties hits debuts at number four. The first album has sold nearly 140,000 copies so far, while Volume 2 sold about a tenth of that number last week.

Meanwhile, Global Television's The Best Dance Album Of The Year, debuts at a comparatively lowly number 13, despite its boastful title. Among the 36 tracks it features are, however, many of the year's biggest hits including All Saints' Never Ever, Run-DMC's It's Like That, as well as more cultish favourites like Junkster's Slide, the Vapourheadz's Don't Play Dead and yet-to-be-released club favourites It's Tricky by Run-DMC, Fight For Your Right by NYCC and Anytime by Nu-Birth.

James Horner's Titanic soundtrack is by far and away the biggest-selling movie title of the year, but it's sales are in steep decline now. Its sold 8,000 copies last week, less than half of its tally a month ago.
