COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

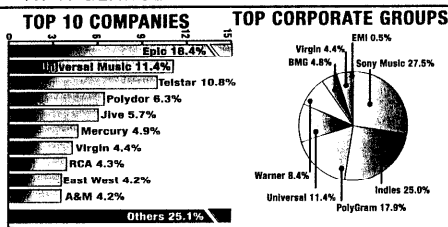

● Dana International debuts at number 11 this week with Diva, which thus becomes the most successful overseas Eurovision entry on the UK chart since 1987, when Johnny Logan reached number two with Hold Me Now. Dana is only the sixth Israeli act ever to have a UK hit, and the third to do so as a Eurovision winner. Previous Israeli hitmakers are Topol, Esther & Abi Ofarim, Izhar Cohen &

Alphabeta, Milk & Honey featuring Galo Atari and Ofra Haza. By reaching number 11, Diva has charted higher than the UK Eurovision entry, Where Are You by Imaani, which reached number 15. The last occasion on which an overseas winner charted higher than the UK entry was in 1987, when our entry, Rikki's Only The Light fell short of the Top 75, and Hold Me Now peaked at two, as noted above.

No fewer than eleven football-related singles are peppered around the Top 75 this week, with the festivities in France providing the spur for Wes, Collapsed Lung, the Tartan Army, the Reggae Boyz, Chumbawamba, England Supporters Band, Del Amitri, England United, Dario G, Fat Les and Baddiel/Skinner and The Lightning Seeds. The latter act's 3 Lions '98 sold a further 150,000 copies last week, and remains significantly ahead of Fat Les' Vindaloo, which stays at number two, with sales of 106,000. 3 Lions '98 was the ninth biggest hit of 1996, selling over 830,000 copies. The new version has sold over 100,000 in just two weeks.

Onel Richie logs the 20th hit of his post-Commodores career this week, debuting at number 26 with Closest Thing To Heaven. It's one of the few Richie singles he didn't write himself, having been penned by Diane Warren, whose How Do I Live remains a Top 20 hit for LeAnn Rimes four months after it was released. Warren also wrote the new Xscape single The Arms Of The One Who Loves You, which is expected to make a high-flying debut next week, as well as upcoming singles by Aerosmith (I Don't Want To Miss A Thing), Brandy (Have You Ever), Nu

Flavor (Baby Be There), Tina Arena (If I Was A River), Vanessa Williams (You Are My Home), LeAnn Rimes (Feels Like Home) and new R&B sensation Mya (My First Night With You) - the latter record marking the first collaboration between Warren and the only writer who comes near to her ubiquity and success in the nineties - Babyface.

Meanwhile, Mya makes her chart debut this week, as guest vocalist on the single Ghetto Supastar (That Is What You Are), by the Fugees' Pras Michel, which also features ODB from the Wu-Tang Clan on rapping duties. It's the highest new entry of the week, debuting at number three, and is based on the old Dolly Parton/Kenny Rogers hit Islands In The Stream, as written by the Bee Gees. Elsewhere, The Gibb brothers song Immortality, written for the stage production of Saturday Night Fever, is the highest ranking import on the chart, climbing 154-100 in a version by Celine Dion - another grateful recipient of Diane Warren.

by ALAN JONES

After three weeks at number three, the Corrs' Talk On Corners climbs to number one this week, temporarily putting paid to Simply Red's chances of a third run at the top with Blue, and Rod Stewart's gallant attempt to have his eighth number one album with When We Were The New Boys. It was close - Talk On Corners sold 34,300 copies last week, while Blue and When We Were The New Boys sold 33,600 and 32,200 respectively. All three albums are Warner Music releases, which thus has the top three albums for the third time in five weeks.

After a period when the juvenile talents of Catatonia, Hanson and LeAnn Rimes, to name but three, have dominated the new release schedules, this week's hottest new albums are by artists of an altogether older vintage. Aside from Brian Wilson (56, see above), Neil Finn, (42), Van Morrison (52) and Dr. John (57) have the only new entries to the Top 40.

● Arguably the two greatest songwriters of the rock era, Brian Wilson and Paul McCartney were born within two days of each other in 1942. Wilson celebrated his 56th birthday last Saturday (20th), two days after McCartney. He had further reason to celebrate on Sunday, when his latest album, Imagination, entered the chart at number 30, comfortably surpassing the number 59 peak of his only previous solo album chart entry, 1995's I Just Wasn't Made For These Times. With a style that harks back to vintage Beach Boys, Imagination's standout tracks are Your Imagination and the Beach Boys revisit She Says That She Needs Me. This is the highest charting album of new material Wilson has been involved in since The Beach Boys Love You peaked at number 28 in 1977.

unreleased rarities from earlier in his career, which debuts at number 20.

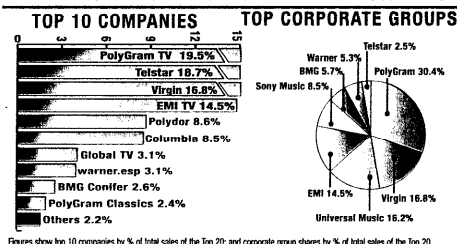

Anutha Zone is Dr. John's UK album chart debut, some 27 years after Dr. John The Night Tripper (The Sun, Moon & Herbs) became his first US album chart entry. That debut, in 1971, was driven by guest appearances from Eric Clapton and Mick Jagger. Anutha Zone features contemporary favourites, too, with Paul Weller, Spiritualized and half of Supergrass guesting. Anutha Zone debuts at number 33.

The most amazing success story in this week's chart concerns Neil Diamond, whose Ultimate Collection explodes 171-68, as a result of its sales increasing 122% week-on-week. Diamond is not touring. His record company is not advertising the album on TV, nor is it involved in retail promotion of the album. The only reason for its heightened profile seems to be the fact that ITV's Stars In Their Eyes was won last week by a Neil Diamond impersonator, Jason Searle.

COMPILATIONS

The Box Hits 98 - Volume 2 retains pole position on the compilation chart but was run close by an album which combines two elements dear to TV merchandisers - the Sixties and summer, which are conveniently combined in The Best Sixties Summer...Ever!. A double album, crammed with 54 hits, it sold nearly 19,000 copies last week to debut at number two, while The Box Hits 98 - Volume 2 sold 21,000. The Best Footie Anthems In The World...Ever! sold 50,000 copies when released to tie-in with Euro 96, and re-entered the chart last week at number 15. It falls back to number 18 this week, as fans turn their attention to the confusingly similarly titled All New - The Best Footie Anthems In The World...Ever!, debuts at number six. The latter title features five of the current football-related singles chart entries and a further 16 tracks whose connections with football range from tenuous to absolute. The former album features such favourites as Liverpool FC's Anfield Rap, England 1970's Back Home, and Nice One Cyril by the Cockerel Chorus. Also making a strong debut, Allezi Olai Olai is Sony's contribution to the festivities, and features six on the current Top 75, as well as Ricky Martin's Cup Of Life - the official song of France 98 - and Jean Michel-Jarre/Apollo 440's Rendez-vous 98, another likely chartmaker. The City Of Angels soundtrack sprints 75-26 following the movie's UK release. The album includes Alanis Morissette's otherwise unavailable Uninvited.
