CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Even the presence of seasoned veteran Russ Ballard (Zombies, Argent) on the writing credits of Wonderland cannot stop it from being the least successful 911 single since Love Sensation peaked at number 21 in 1996. Since then, the boy band have had 10 consecutive Top 10 hits, culminating in their cover of Dr. Hook's A Little Bit More, with which they topped the chart in January. Their remake of William Bell & Judy Clay's Private Number also did well, reaching number three in May, but Wonderland has to be content with a modest number 13 debut, after selling fewer than 27,000 copies last week. The track is taken from the trio's upcoming Greatest Hits & A Little Bit More package which is due at the end of the month. Their last album, the all-covers There It Is, reached a highly respectable number eight when it was released in February.

Cristina Aguilera and Ann Lee continue to hold the top two slots in the chart with Genie In A Bottle and 2 Times racking up six figure sales for the second week in a row. Genie... sold 123,000 last week and 2 Times 110,000, bringing their tallies to date to 292,000 and 262,000 respectively. They easily saw off ATB's attempt to register his second straight number one with Don't Stop, which takes pride of place among this week's newcomers, debuting at number three with sales of 91,000. Meanwhile, having reached the top two with each of their last four singles - including number one with Tragedy/Heartbeat - Steps' popularity has cooled slightly but perceptibly, with After The Love Has Gone settling for a number five debut with sales just short of 60,000.

The Rugby World Cup is in full flow and for the third tournament in a row there is a new version of World In Union - which served as the theme for the first time in 1991 - in the chart. In 1991 it was a number four hit for slot for their 1995 remake. The 1999 version, which debuts at number 35 this week, is an all-Welsh duet between Shirley Bassey and Bryn Terfel. Bass baritone Terfel, 34 next month, has hitherto been a stranger to the singles chart, while the formidable Bassey will celebrate her 63rd birthday eight days into the next millennium, and has had 31 hit singles.

New Zealand's soprano Kiri Te Kanawa, while South Africa's Ladysmith Black Mambazo surprisingly had to settle for a number 47

Honeyz maintain their record of reaching the Top 10 with every single, debuting at number seven with their latest hit Never Let You Down. A year ago, their number four debut Finally Found was still riding high, since when they have also scored big with The End Of The Line (number five) and Love Of A Lifetime (number nine).

Certain to occupy a lofty position in the Top 10 next week having been released here today (Monday), R. Kelly's new single If I Could Turn Back The Hands Of Time is the latest to taste chart success on import. It debuted last week at number 65, and now climbs to number 57, with more than 5,000 punters thus far electing not to wait for the track to get an official UK release.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Shania Twain's Come On Over topped 70,000 sales for four weeks in a row – the first album to do so this year – but slipped back to 59,000 last week. That was still enough to ensure it an easy victory atop the album chart, which it therefore tops for the fifth time. The record which came closest to it last week was Mercury Records labelmates James' new album Millionaires, which sold more than 34,000 copies while debuting at number two. That is a good showing, though maybe not as good as expected, given that the group's Best Of was a number one album last year, and has sold more than 525,000 copies so far. Even so, Millionaires sold twice as many copies as the Pet Shop Boys' new album Nightlife, whose number seven debut was significantly lower than could have been expected, considering the Top 15 success of the album's first two singles – I Don't Know What It Is But I Can't Give It Any More and New York City Boy – and the fact that their last album Bilingual reached number four. Nightlife is the Pet Shop Boys' 10th album, of which all but one has made the Top 10.

Things keep getting better for Macy Gray. The 29-year-old from Canton, Ohio, whose debut album On How Life Is spans funk, soul, jazz, hip hop, R&B and pop, to name but a few genres, is in the Top 10 of the singles, album and airplay charts this week. Gray's first single Do Something peaked at number 51 earlier this year but the follow-up I Try has shown remarkable consistency since debuting a fortnight ago, moving 10-10-9 while selling nearly 100,000 copies. This, and word of mouth from some well-received dates, has helped give radio exposure of the single a massive boost, and it jumps 14-6 on the airplay chart, while On How Life Is has been making steady upwards progress on the album chart. It arrives at a new peak this week, jumping 8-6 on its 15th appearance in the chart. It will top the 100,000 sales mark this week.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

Days was released to a very muted reception last week. It sold fewer than 5,000 copies in the week, enough only for a number 35 debut. That compares unfavourably with Barlow's introductory solo album Open Road, which entered at number one in June 1997, with first week sales of more than 48,000.

Abba's Gold – Greatest Hits continues its remarkable chart history, jumping 18-10 this week, primarily as a result of Channel 5's evening of Abba-related programmes a week last Saturday, which generated substantial spin-off sales at the start of last week. Gold – Greatest Hits has sold 842,000 copies so far this year, a total beaten by just two albums – Shania's Come On Over (942,000) and Boyzone's By Request (1,085,000). Also back in the Top 10 is the Stereophonics' Performance & Cocktails, which jumps 11-8, worth mentioning because the 694,000 copies it has sold thus far make it the biggest selling 1999 album of new material by any act.

COMPILATIONS

Land Of My Fathers is the official album of the Rugby World Cup, and is also the surprise new tenant of the number one slot on the compilations chart, having sold more than 21,500 copies last week. The fact the sales threshold it had to reach was low compared to most weeks of 1999 undoubtedly helped the album but its number one position compares well to the only previous World Cup album, World In Union – Anthems which reached number eight on the compilation chart in 1995. Land Of My Fathers includes the current Top 40 hit single World In Union by Shirley Bassey and Bryn Terfel plus favourites such as Jerusalem by the Royal Choral Society, Swing Love Sweet Chariot by Russell Watson, Land Of My Fathers by the Llanelli Male Choir, Danny Boy by Miriam Stockley and a medley of Scotland The Brave and Flower Of Scotland by the Black Mountain Male Choir. Land Of My Fathers is one of five Universal Music TV titles in the Top 10, a record for the company, which also has the number 11 title, and commands a massive 38.6% of the Top 20 sales, nearly three times as much as joint runners-up EMI and Virgin. Other Universal titles doing well include Top of the Pops 99 – Volume Two and Mobo 1999.

The highest new entry to the chart, debuting at number two with more than 18,000 sales is The Best Pepsi Chart Album In The World Ever!, containing 43 tracks from the alternate chart/alternate Coke combo, though because of its sales/airplay combination not all of them actually made the Pepsi Chart.
