THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

13 MARCH 1999

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Britney Spears' two week reign atop the singles chart is over, and with it the sequence of five number ones in a row by Americans. The new chart toppers are Ireland's Boyzone, who debut in pole position with When The Going Gets Tough. It is the fifth number one single to benefit the Comic Relief charity, following Cliff Richard & The Young Ones' Living Doll (1986), Hale & Pace's The Stonk (1991), Love Can Build A Bridge by Cher, Chrissie Hynde, Neneh Cherry and Eric Clapton (1995) and Mama/Who Do You Think You Are by the Spice Girls (1997).

When The Going Gets Tough was, of course, originally recorded by Billy Ocean, for whom it was a number one hit in 1986. It's ironic to reflect that Ocean's hit was on the Jive label, whose latest sensation Britney Spears is deprived of the number one position by Boyzone's revival of the song. Jive should reclaim the top position next week, with Steps' Better Best Forgotten. The company, however, has a stake in the number one this week via its publishing company Zomba Music, which publishes recorded the second highest first week sale for a Boyzone single last week, being beaten only by the introductory tally of 277,000 posted by No Matter What. Boyzone's last single, I Love The Way You Love Me, opened with nearly 119,000 sales when it debuted at number two in December. Only Elton John and the Spice Girls have now sold more singles than them in the Nineties.

spun off five Top 10 hits. Frozen reached number one, Ray Of Light number two, Drowned World (Substitute For Love) number 10 and Power Of Goodbye number six. This week, Nothing Really Matters debuts at number seven. Madonna is the only female solo artist ever to take five Top 10 hits off an album - and she's now done it three times, having previously reached the target with both True Blue and Erotica.

Twenty-three years after Stevie Wonder recorded it as part of his classic Songs In The Key Of Life album, As Finally Becomes A Major UK Hit, in a duet by George Michael and Mary J Blige. Stevie's version was passed over for UK release at the time, even though it was a number 36 hit in the States. It has subsequently been released as a single here by at least half a dozen acts, without reaching the Top 40. As is the third Stevie Wonder song to be covered by George Michael - the only writer whose work has been more recorded by George is his own.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

ALBUM FACTFILE

Underworld's third album, Beaucoup Fish is the highest debut on the chart this week, entering at number three with sales of over 32,000. They reached number 12 with their 1994 debut Dubnobasswithmyheadman, and number nine with 1996's Second Toughest In The Infants. The latter album, which includes the group's most famous track Born Slippy, has sold more than 800,000 copies to date.

Underworld are currently halfway through a short UK tour, and the first single from Beaucoup Fish will be Push Upstairs.

Underworld are still signed to the JBO (Junior Boy's Own) label, but said label has switched affiliation from Virgin to V2, and helps the latter to a 5.4% share of the album chart this week, the highest figure yet for Richard Branson's fledgling company.

For the second week in a row, Whitney Houston's My Love Is Your Love reaches its highest chart position. When it was first released last November, Whitney's album made a very disappointing chart debut at number 27. A slow decline set it, but it turned around once her new single It's Not Right But It's Okay started to get airplay, and, as the single debuted at number three last week, the album jumped 37-22. It explodes again this week, climbing to number 10. It has taken 16 weeks to reach this position, and sold more than 19,000 copies last week, bringing its overall tally to 130,000. There are several more potential singles on the album, of which the most commercial is the title track, a Wyclef Jean composition which evokes the spirit of Bob Marley's No Woman No Cry. There's still a long way to go, but My Love Is Your Love should eventually win over the doubters and give Whitney another platinum album.

Another album reaching its highest position for the second week in a row is The Cardigans' Gran Turismo, which reached number 10 last week on its 19th week in the chart. It improves a further notch this week to number nine, and has now sold 143,000 copies.

Continuing the theme, the death last week of Dusty Springfield has resulted in vastly increased sales of her back catalogue, with the latest in a long line of hits compilations, The Best of Dusty Springfield, entering the Top 75 at number 51. The album was released last November, at Dusty's request, but got lost in the pre-Christmas rush and peaked then at number 68. Dusty's budget priced Hits Collection on Spectrum re-enters the budget artist album chart at number one this week.

The Corrs continue to top the chart, with Talk On Corners enjoying its eighth week at the summit and its 67th week in the Top 75 in its 73rd week on release. It sold more than 60,000 copies last week, enough to give it a 14,000 margin over The Miseducation Of Lauryn Hill, which remains at number two. The Corrs sales dipped by 5,000 week-on-week, while Lauryn's sales were down just 12 from the 46,739 tally it registered the previous week.

COMPILATIONS

For the first time since the compilation chart came into being a decade ago, the biggest-selling compilation album last week was a budget title. It is not the number one, you will note, since budget albums aren't allowed in the compilation chart any more than they are in the artist chart. The number one album on the compilation chart is, for the second week in a row, Kiss House Nation, which sold nearly 24,000 copies last week. But that was 2,000 fewer than 10 Classic Disney Songs, a budget release (dealer price £2.46) on the Walt Disney label which, having previously been under the wing of Carlton and PolyGram in the last few years, is now affiliated with Germany's Edel Records. 10 Classic Disney Songs outsold the number two budget compilation -

Beechwood Music's Essential R&B - by a margin of more than 28 to one last week.

Back on the regular compilation chart, the highest new entry this week is In The Mix 2000, the new Virgin/EMI double which was compiled by Ashley Abram and Radio One's Mark Goodier but anonymously mixed. It sold nearly 20,000 copies last week to debut at number three, and includes many tracks not otherwise commercially released yet, including Capriccio's Everybody Get Up, Slip N' Shuffle's High Energy and Candi Staton's Love On Love as well as recent monster hits by Blockster, Supercar and the Vengaboy's, among others.

Sales of compilations slipped for the third week in a row last week, accounting for just 23.2% of the total album market.
