CHART COMMENTARY

100

SINGLE FACTFILE

Sales of more than 143,000 copies are usually enough for a number one hit, but with Mr Oizo's Flat Beat faring even better for the second week in a row, Eminem's My Name Is has to settle for a number two debut. Eminem - real name Marshall Mathers (that's M and M), aka Slim Shady – has sold more than a million copies of his Slim Shady album in America in the last five weeks, and has emerged from under Dr. Dre's wing to contribute to at least half a dozen upcoming hip-hop albums. The 24-yearold from Detroit has suffered a very bad press for his album, with US trade magazine Billboard being among those taking him to task - though the admittedly unpleasant lyrics to many of the songs on the Slim Shady LP are no worse than those of scores of black rappers. The man himself is wholly unapologetic, especially about the sexist rants.

by ALAN JONES

r Oizo's Flat Beat had another amazing week, selling more than 184,000 copies to take its two week sales tally to more than 469,000 copies, enough to make it the fourth biggest seller of the year, trailing only Steps' Heartbeat/Tragedy (474,000), Boyzone's When The Going Gets Tough (594,000) and Britney Spears' Baby One More Time (1,220,000). With excellent first week tallies from Eminem (143,000), Phats & Small (116,000) and the multiartist Abba medley (99,000), the singles market is at its most buoyant since Christmas, with sales up 14% on last week.

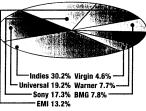

Mariah Carey returns to the chart at number 16 with LStill Believe, which was originally recorded by her mentor, the Latino singer Brenda K Starr. Starr's version was a number 13 hit in America in 1988 and Mariah became familiar with the song when she joined her backing group. Brenda accompanied Mariah to Columbia (Sony) when she got her recording contract and female - Madonna, who lifted her tally to 26 with the recent Nothing Really Matters Beverley Knight's Made It Back returns to the chart at number 19, having reached number 21 last May. Considerably reinforced since then with the bass from Chic's Good Times, it's the second hit of the year to hinge around the classic Nile Rodgers/Bernard Edwards composition, following Da Click's Good Rhymes, which reached number 14 in January.

After falling short of the Top 10 with their last two singles Strange Glue, which peaked at number 11 and Game On, which got no higher than 33, Catatonia return to the upper echelon with Dead From The Waist Down. The introductory single from the new album Equally Cursed And Blessed debuts at number seven this week, with very healthy sales of more than 60,000.

For the first time ever, there are three charity records in the Top 20 this week, with the multi-artist Abba medley at number four (Nordoff Robins), Another Level at 11 (Help A London Child) and Boyzone at 12 (Comic Relief).

OFFICIAL

ALBUM FACTFILE

The Corrs' phenomenal success reaches new peaks this week, with Talk On Corners and Forgiven, Not Forgotten occupying the top two places in the album chart. Talk On . Corners first topped the chart last June, and has now risen to the top on six separate occasions, spending a total of 10 weeks at number one. It's only the seventh album to spend 10 weeks at number one in the Nineties, the others being Spice – The Spice Girls (15 weeks), Stars – Simply Red (12 weeks), Urban Hymns – The Verve (12 weeks), Jagged Little Pill – Alanis Morissette (11 weeks), What's The Story Morning Glory - Oasis (10 weeks) and ...But Seriously - Phil Collins (10 weeks plus the last five weeks of 1989). Talk On Corners has sold more than 2,275,000 copies, and Forgiven, Not Forgotten 526,000.

by ALAN JONES

he Corrs' Talk On Corners is number one for the 10th time in its career this week. while their debut album Forgiven, Not Forgotten jumps 5-2, to make them the first act to occupy the number one and two places simultaneously since Bruce Springsteen debuted with Human Touch and Lucky Town, when they were simultaneously released exactly seven years ago. The Corrs albums were, of course, released separately and some time ago – Forgiven Not Forgotten coming out on February 19 1996, and Talk On Corners on October 19 1997. As reported on page one, the last act to hold number one and two places with albums released separately were The Kids From Fame in 1982.

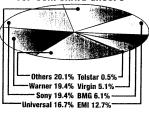

The screening of the documentary Ascent Of An Angel on BBC One a week last Sunday (28 March) had a galvanising effect Charlotte Church's Voice Of An Angel album, which soars 97-17 as a result, with week-onweek sales jumping by 683%. The album, after reaching number 55 with his latest classical release Viaggio Italiano. Sogno is the highest of seven new entries to the Top 50 of the album chart this week, the highest tally of the year.

The Best Of Dusty Springfield reaches a new peak this week, climbing 20-19 with weekly sales exceeding 12,000 for the first time, and cumulative sales topping the 60,000 mark. Another female artist whose current album reaches a new high is Britney Spears' whose Baby One More Time album has moved 8-5-8-4 since release. It sold more than 27,000 copies last week, partly due to deep discounting.

Status Quo register their 30th chart album with Under The Influence, which debuts at number 26. Their Eagle label debut puts them ahead of The Beatles and behind only The Rolling Stones in the table of groups with most chart albums - but their last proper album, Don't Stop, reached number two in 1996 lbum sales increased by 27% last Aweek, with artist albums up 2010. A compilations soaring 61% – a sure sign that there's a new Now! compilation in the shops. Now That's What I Call Music! 42. to give it its full title, had a remarkable week, selling more than 219,000 copies. That's more than Now! 41 sold in any week during its Christmas campaign, and also compares more than favourably with the last two spring Now! releases. Now! 36 sold 187,000 in its first week in 1997, and Now! 39 sold 175,000 copies last year. Now! 42 single-handedly accounted for 30% of the compilation market last week, and outsold New Hits 99, which slips to number two, by a margin of nearly four to one. To be fair, Now! 42 wasn't the only new compilation to make a good start -

COMPILATIONS

Gatecrasher Red, Essential Soundtracks The Female Touch - 2 and Best Dance 98 debuted at four, seven, nine and eleven with sales of 21,000, 12,000, 10,000 and 8,000 respectively.

Among the tracks on Now! 42 are half of the current Top 10 singles – hits by Mr. Oizo, the multi-artist Abba medley, the Cartoons, Billie and the Vengaboys - plus number ones by Boyzone, Cher, the Spice Girls, Lenny Kravitz, Fatboy Slim, Armand Van Helden and 911. The only track not yet released as a single is Deetah's Madonnasampling El Paraiso Rico.

Meanwhile, Andrea Bocelli, another of the

Finally, let's hear it for Chocolate Boy whose Jive/Pepper Shanks & Bigfoot single Sweet Like Chocolate was on all of the top three compilations last week, well ahead of official release in its own right.
