THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

15 MAY 1999

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

For the first time ever, all of the top three slots on the singles chart are filled by boy bands. 911's cover of the 1968 William Bell and Judy Clay hit Private Number debuts at number three, while Westlife's Swear It Again declines 1-2, surrendering top spot to the Backstreet Boys' I Want It That Way. The current front-runners among boy bands, Boyzone, are favourites to debut at number one next week in their intriguing battle with former Spice Girl Geri Halliwell.

There are 16 new entries to the Top 40 and 22 to the Top 75 this week, figures which once would have seemed commonplace but which are now fairly rare. The last time there were more new entries to the Top 40 was over a year ago, on May 2, 1998, and the last time there were more Top 75 newcomers was on October 17 last year. While it's a busy week for new entries, however, it's a very quiet year. Thus far in 1999, we've had 320 new entries to the singles chart, compared to 386 in 1998.

SINGLE FACTFILE

Time Is Through and a previous Backstreet Boys hit, Quit Playing Games (With My Heart).
I Want It That Way sold 93,000 copies last week, and is the Backstreet Boys' ninth hit single, their eighth Top 10 hit in a row, their sixth top five hit in a row, and their fourth top three hit in a row. Their last single was All I Have To Give, which reached number two in February of last year.

The Stereophonics register their third straight top five hit with Pick A Part That's New, which debuts at number four with sales of 56,000. They reached number three with The Bartender And The Thief last November, and number four with Just Looking in March. All three singles are from their current album Performance And Cocktails, which has sold more than 315,000 copies since it was released nine weeks ago, enough to make it the biggest selling 1999 artist album release, though six 1998 releases have sold more copies this year.

Terrorvision had the biggest hit of their career with their last single Tequila, which was prevented from reaching number one only by The Offspring's Pretty Fly (For A White Guy). But they have a swift and stunning fall from grace with Ill Wishes, which sold fewer than 5,000 copies last week, and debuts at a lowly number 42. Lack of radio support has been a major problem for Ill Wishes.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Suede register the third number one album of their career with Head Music taking the crown, though it sold a rather lacklustre 32,884 copies in the week, just 499 more than Abba's eight year old Gold - Greatest Hits, which takes second place. Suede previously topped the chart with their self-titled 1993 debut and returned to the summit in 1996 with Coming Up. Their last album, the odds and sods compilation Sci-Fi Lullabies, reached number nine in 1997. Head Music has the lowest first week sale of any of Suede's three number one albums, and contains the introductory single Electricity, which reached number five three weeks ago. Coming Up also topped the chart by the skin of its teeth, taking the crown from Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill by a margin of less than 5%.

ALBUM FACTFILE

The Corrs continue to have two albums in the Top 10, with Talk On Corners and Forgiven, Not Forgotten both in gentle decline, slipping 5-6 and 6-9 respectively. Talk On Corners is far and away the biggest selling album of the year, while Forgiven, Not Forgotten is the year's fourth biggest seller. Their combined 1999 sales will top a million tomorrow (Tuesday), putting them exactly 50% ahead of runner-up Robbie Williams (667,000 sales in the year to date). Fatboy Slim is a distant third with sales of 469,000, but emulates The Corrs and Robbie by having two albums in the Top 75 this week, taking third place with You've Come A Long Way baby and returning to the chart at number 73 with his Better Living Through Chemistry set, which made only a brief appearance in the chart when first released in 1996, when it peaked at number 69.

Aside from the Suede album, (see above), there are just two new entries to the album

new Star Wars movie The Phantom Menace makes a highly creditable debut at number eight, despite the fact that the film itself has yet to be released either here or in the states. That's already a major improvement on the number 21 peak of the original 1978 Star Wars soundtrack, and suggests that the album - issued by Sony Classical - will be the highest ranking "classical crossover" album since James Horner's Titanic soundtrack last year.

American-born and 67 years old, Williams' new album is, rather confusingly, on the same label and released on the same day as his Aussie namesake (58 year old, guitarist, formerly of Sky, lives in the UK) released his new album. The difference between the two could hardly be greater - the latter artist's performance of Giuliani's guitar concerto debuts at 1733.

While TLC's No Scrubs single slips a couple of notches from its number three peak, their album FanMail continues to blossom. It holds at number seven, but its sales jump by 6.5% to reach a new peak, with nearly 14,000 copies sold last week.

COMPILATIONS

With its own sales suffering a small second week decline, Kiss Clublife can't quite bridge the gap between itself and Now That's What I Call Music! 42, leaving the latter title to claim pole position on the compilation chart for the sixth straight week, even though its week-on-week sales tumble by 24% to a new low of 33,329. That's still enough to make it not just the number one compilation but also the number one album overall in the UK last week, though it sold only 445 copies more than Suede's Head Music. It's certain to be surpassed in the combined chart next week by the new Texas album, but it could hang on for a further week atop the compilation chart, though it's pretty sure to fall to Telstar's Euphoria II the following week.

In the meantime, the highest new entry on the compilation chart this week is the Virgin/EMI compilation Tranceformer, which sold nearly 12,000 copies last week, to take third place. As its title suggests, it brings together all the current trance favourites, including tracks by Tilt (Invisible), DJ Sakin & Friends (Nomansland), Paul Van Dyk (Forbidden Fruit) and Veracocha (Carte Blanche). With no mix credits, the double album, which runs over two and a half hours, makes a conspicuously bigger splash than the only other newcomer to the Top 10, the Ministry Of Sound's Galaxy Weekend, despite the fact the latter album, comprising mainstream house and disco cuts, includes mixes from star names Boy George and Allister Whitehead.
