THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

26 JUNE 1999

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

The biggest act to come out of the Netherlands since 2 Unlimited, the Vengaboys' number one debut with Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom!! was in doubt throughout the week, with their lead over S Club 7 being both small and fragile. In the end, however, the margin of their victory was more than 15,000 sales. Though S Club 7 might have hoped to hold on for a second week at number one, they can be happy that their debut hit Bring It All Back has sold more than 309,000 copies in the past fortnight – and the rate at which it is declining suggests it will sell many more before it's finished.

These are heady days for Polydor, with two records among the top five in both the singles and albums charts. Both of their current hit singles are debuts by new acts – former Coronation Street star Adam Rickitt and the aforementioned S Club 7. Rickitt's single I Breathe Again – an old fashioned hi-NRG track – races to number five this week, with sales of more than 76,500. Rickitt

MARKET REPORT

SINGLE FACTFILE

After reaching number four with their debut single Up And Down, and number three with We Like To Party (The Vengabus), it's third time lucky for the Vengaboys, who debut in pole position with Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom!! The record sold nearly 135,000 copies last week, and brings the group's UK sales since their debut last November to more than 1m. Boom, Boom... is the first number one for the Vengaboys' record label Positiva. Its previous biggest hits by chart position – both reaching number three – were BBE's Seven Days And One Week and We Like To Party, though Reel 2 Real's number five hit I Like To Move It (1994) sold more copies. Reel 2 Real are still Positiva's biggest-selling-act overall, but the Vengaboys are certain to eclipse them, if not with their current hit, then with their upcoming single We're Going To Ibiza.

Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales of the Top 75, and corporate group shares by % of total sales of the Top 75

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Boyzone's By Request surrenders pole position after two weeks at number one but its gentle decline seems unaffected by revelations about Stephen Gately's personal life and, after a mere three weeks in the shops, its sales to date exceed 563,000. That's enough to make it the third biggest seller of the year, behind Abba's Gold - Greatest Hits and The Corrs' Talk On Corners. The sudden decline of the latter gives both Abba and Boyzone a chance of snatching away, at least temporarily, the title of best-selling album of the year, with Abba the more likely to do so, but probably not for another five or six weeks.

Sparked back into life by an Omnibus profile a few weeks ago, The Very Best of Dean Martin - The Capitol/Reprise Years has grown into a genuine hit album, selling more than 90,000 copies so far. It improves its chart position again this week, jumping from number eight to five. That's the highest position the late crooner has ever held in an album chart career lasting nearly 40 years, beating the number seven peak of the 1976 compilation 20 Original Dean Martin Hits.

ALBUM FACTFILE

Though the introductory single Canned Heat could climb no higher than number four, Jamiroquai's Synkronized album debuts atop the album chart, after selling 98,000 copies last week. It's the group's second number one album, emulating 1993's Emergency On Planet Earth. Between their two chart-toppers, they had two number two albums - 1994's The Return Of The Space Cowboy and 1996's Travelling Without Moving. The latter spent a fortnight at two, being prevented from reaching pole position first by REM's New Adventures In Hi-Fi and then by Kula Shaker's K. Its first week sales were 80,000, and now stand at 1.06m. It joins in the fun this week, advancing 113-84, partly because it is reduced to £9.99 at Woolworth. Synkronized was originally due for release on 7 June. Had it not been rescheduled, it would have finished second to Boyzone's By Request last week.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

most recently Slang, which reached number five in 1996. Unless Euphoria can improve, it will be their lowest charting album since Pyromania in 1983.

After just one hit single, Sixpence None The Richer's self-titled debut album makes a credible debut at 27. Their introductory single Kiss Me, which reached number four a few weeks ago and is still top of the airplay chart, is obviously providing much of the impetus but so too is their upcoming single, a cute cover of The La's There She Goes. Oddly enough, even though Kiss Me has sold more than half a million copies in the US in the past five months, reaching number two on the singles chart, the album has been something of a damp squib there so far, with a peak position of 89 to show from an 18-week chart career.

Finally, despite landing their first number one single, the Vengaboys' Party Album declines 23-25 this week. The album has sold 90,000 copies so far.

COMPILATIONS

The Ministry Of Sound's Clubbers Guide To Ibiza - Summer '99 spends its second and last week at number one, selling more than 34,000 copies, to beat off a determined charge by Columbia's excellent MOR compilation Music To Watch Girls By, which advances 9-2 on its fourth appearance in the chart.

Although it goes against the current trend for contemporary hits/dance to dominate the top end of the chart, the latter album does have a familiar line-up for older buyers, with the likes of Andy Williams, Louis Armstrong, Doris Day and Al Martino making appearances.

That's not the case with the other top five album from Columbia, which includes a largely unknown line-up, among them Chantal Kreviazuk, Nikki Hassman, Sozzi, Adam Cohen and PJ Olsson. These are just some of the acts on the Dawson's Creek TV soundtrack, which has done remarkably well in the past three weeks, selling upwards of 63,000 copies, while moving 7-3-4 on the chart.

Overall, it's a very quiet chart this week, with the only new arrival capable of making the Top 10 being Kiss Smooth Grooves Summer '99. A somewhat disappointing selection, it's not greatly surprising it is underachieving compared to recent Kiss albums, debuting at number seven with 16,000 sales.

Among other new arrivals, the rock-based The Matrix soundtrack can't match the film's box office number one position, debuting at number 18 and Baz Luhrmann's Something For Everybody, having been ruled ineligible for the artist chart, debuts at 21.
