CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Though he has been unable to repeat the number one success of his debut solo single Men In Black in the two years since its release, Will Smith comes close this week, and yet again it's with the title track of a movie in which he stars. Smith debuts at number two with Wild Wild West, which sold over 65,000 copies last week. The rapping actor's latest hit is based on Stevie Wonder's 1976 number five hit I Wish, and brings to six his tally of hits since his duo days as The Fresh Prince in partnership with DJ Jazzy Jeff – all of them heavily based on oldies. Wild Wild West is the fourth single in a row by Smith to reach the top three, following the 1998 hits Gettin' Jiggy Wit It (based on Sister Sledge's He's The Greatest Dancer), Just The Two Of Us (Bill Withers' hit of the same name was the inspiration here) and Miami (And The Beat Goes On by the Whispers).

ATB's 9PM (Till I Come) retains pole position on the singles chart, despite a massive 60% dip in its week-on-week sales, from more than 270,000 to a little under 109,000. It is one of the main factors behind a steep 31.5% decline in singles sales, which slumped from 1,555,000 a fortnight ago to just 1,065,000 last week. Some records benefit from the collapse in the market – the Vengaboys and S Club 7 hold at three and five despite downturns of 45% and 40% respectively, while Shania Twain's That Don't Impress Me Much enjoys its eighth week in the Top 10 and climbs 9-8 despite a 37% fall.

The chart is more heavily populated by singing actors and acting singers than ever before. Half of the Top 10 have appeared in major movies or TV dramas, with a sixth soon to follow. Will Smith, Whitney Houston, Jennifer Lopez and Madonna's acting credentials are well known, and S Club 7 have their own Miami 7 TV series, while

SALES UPDATE

VERSUS LAST WEEK:

YEAR TO DATE VERSUS LAST YEAR:

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 42.7% US: 38.7% Other: 18.7%

Britney Spears has just been signed up for her first movie role. Fewer new acts have made their singles chart debut in 1999 than in any of the last six years. But Polydor is currently enjoying a particularly fruitful period, having established three new acts in the Top 10 in the last four weeks. S Club 7 topped the chart with Bring It All Back, then Adam Rickitt reached number five with I Breathe Again, and now Lolly debuts at number six with Viva La Radio.

Madonna's Beautiful Stranger dips 8-10 on its fourth week in the chart, earning her 45th silver disc in the UK. Marking a less welcome milestone is the other single from the new Austin Powers movie, namely Melanie G's Word Up, which sold only a little over 20,000 copies last week and struggles to a debut position of number 14. It's the first single from a present or former member of the Spice Girls to fall short of the top three. Melanie's previous solo single I Want You Back was a number one last September, when she was known as Melanie B. Mel C also has a new track in a movie – her recording Ga Ga appears in Big Daddy and has good initial airplay reaction, though it's not yet clear whether it will be a single.

MUSIC WEEK 10 JULY 1999

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Heavyweight hip-hop talent Missy Misdemeanor Elliott keeps herself fearfully busy writing, producing and lending her abrasive raps to a succession of hits by other artists, but she still somehow finds time to pursue a career as a recording artist in her own right. Her 1997 debut album Supa Dupa Fly fell just short of the Top 75, but her second set Da Real World debuts at number 40 this week. Elliott has worked on numerous major R&B hits in the past few years, including SWV's Can We, Aaliyah's If Your Girl Only Knew and Timbaland's Here We Come. She also wrote the new 702 single Where My Girl's At as well as Confessing, a future Destiny's Child single. Da Real World debuts at number 10 in America this week, with sales of 131,000 - down on Supa Dupa Fly, (number three) which sold well over a million copies.

Boyzone's By Request reclaims pole position on the album chart even though sales of the album amounted to under 38,000 copies last week, 50,000 fewer than when it was last number one two weeks ago. Artist albums performed unusually badly across the board last week selling 16.8% less than the week before and 35.7% less than the same week last month, despite a major pricing campaign by many of the multiples. The slowdown means that By Request may now not become the biggest seller of the year, as the gap between its week-on-week sales and those of The Corrs' Talk On Corners is narrowing rapidly. The Corrs' album has sold over 722,000 copies this year, while By Request is in second place on 653,000.

Talk On Corners jumps 14-7 this week as one of the albums retailing at well below regular price in the latest HMV sale, where it currently costs a meagre £4.99. The same price point is behind the explosion in sales responsible for the return of Frankie Goes To Hollywood's Welcome To The Pleasuredome at number 16.

Regular priced releases enjoying their best week yet include Shania Twain's Come On Over, which moves 4-2, 18 months after its debut, and the Vengaboys' The Party Album, which jumps 12-8 to make its first Top 10 appearance on its 15th week on release.

With Boyzone at one and Abba at two, Polydor acts occupied each of the top two slots on the albums chart last week, for the first time since the label was established here in the early Sixties, but that is no excuse for Music Week's accidental assassination of one of the company's other acts, Shed Seven. For the record, they are far from "defunct" as suggested last week. Their Greatest Hits will be followed by new material at a later date.

Finally, apologies to the Chemical Brothers for crediting their 1997 album Dig Your Own Hole as Tellin' Stories last week. The latter album was, of course, a Charlatans release.

COMPILATIONS

Fresh Hits 99 continues atop the compilation chart, its sales of 31,000 last week being 50% higher than The Box - Dance Hits, which debuts at number two. Fresh Hits 99 sold 43,000 copies the previous week, and its fast decline is ominous. The album has sold fewer copies in its first two weeks in the shops than its 1998 equivalent - Fresh Hits 98, oddly enough - sold in one week at retail last July. Fresh Hits 98 sold 76,000 on its first week and 78,000 on its second, to give it a two week tally of 154,000, compared to Fresh Hits 99's 74,000 at the same stage. Fresh Hits is, of course, part of the Warner/Global/Sony Hits series, which plays second fiddle to EMI/Virgin/Universal's Now series. And it's interesting to note that despite the problems Fresh Hits is having, the latest regular Now release - Now 42 - has sold over 691,000 copies since its release 14 weeks ago, putting it a remarkable 71,000 sales ahead of the pace set by Now 39 in the same 14 week period of 1998.

The 16 millennium Now albums released a fortnight ago started to get into their stride last week after a shaky start. Only two were featured among the Top 50 compilations on their first week in the shops, but they are joined by a further five this week. It's still the early years that dominate, with Now 1983 the biggest seller last week, occupying 38th place in the chart ahead of Now 1982 (39th), Now 1981 (42nd), Now 1980 (43rd), Now 1986 (46th), Now 1985 (47th) and Now 1984 (50th).
