THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

17 JULY 1999

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

SINGLE FACTFILE

The singles chart plays host to its third consecutive number one from Europe, its first number one from Puerto Rico and another in a long run of number ones from America this week with Livin' La Vida Loca by Ricky Martin being all three at once. Previously peaking here with the number six hit (Un, Dos, Tres) Maria, he storms to the top of the chart this week with his latest. Puerto Rico is a collection of islands in the north-east Caribbean, an autonomous political entity in voluntary association with the USA, which means that all its people, including Martin, have the right of abode in the USA, and can hold US passports, both of which he does. However, Martin is signed to Sony Discos in Spain, making Livin' La Vida Loca the third continental number one in a row, following ATB's 9PM (Till I Come) and the Vengaboys' Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom!!.

Ricky Martin's Livin' La Vida Loca becomes the 20th number one in a row to debut in pole position – a record sequence – this week. Martin's third UK hit sold more than 131,000 copies last week, and, after a close contest in the early part of the week, easily overcame the resistance of erstwhile chart-topper ATB's 9PM (Till I Come), the latter disc slipping to second place with sales of 97,000 in the week taking its overall total past half a million, and improving its standing in the year-to-date rankings from 17th to ninth.

Martin's single is the only newcomer to the Top 10 in a week when there are just 12 new entries to the Top 75 – the lowest total for any week since January 16. The second highest new entry is the Manic Street Preachers' Tsunami, which debuts at number 11. It is the Manics' 22nd hit – not bad for a band who said, when they made their debut in 1991 that they would release only one album before disbanding – giving them more hits in the decade than any other UK group. Ironically, they reclaim the title from Blur, who themselves debuted at number 11 with their 21st hit, Coffee + TV, last week. In third place, with 20 hits are The Beautiful South.

As Geri Halliwell has found out since leaving the Spice Girls, going solo after being a member of a teen band can be tough. Gary Barlow did not find it too much of a problem immediately following the disbandment of Take That, starting his solo career with consecutive number ones, but subsequent singles have been less successful. His first hit single for nearly two years, Stronger sold 16,000 copies last week to debut at 16, and is his least successful solo disc, replacing his third single So Help Me Girl, which peaked at number 11. The last time Barlow had a lesser hit was way back in 1992, when Take That's second single Once You've Tasted Love peaked at number 47.

Number 26 is a very low position for the fourth highest new entry, but a credible performance for the Go Go Goo Dolls' Iris, a massive hit for the band Statewide, which underachieved here when first released a year ago, peaking at number 50.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUM FACTFILE

Only 173 sales separate Whitney Houston's My Love Is Your Love from a top three place this week, and a mere 18 sales are all that keep it from fourth place – either of which would represent the top posting of its 34 week career. In the end, a 13% increase in week-on-week sales do nothing but maintain its number five placing. It has, however, now topped the 350,000 sales mark, while the title track has sold upwards of 240,000 copies in just three weeks as a single. It looks like being another long-running and big-selling single for Houston, hot on the heels of It's Not Right, But It's Okay, which has sold more than 482,000 copies to date. The first single from the album – the When You Believe duet with Mariah Carey – has sold a comparatively modest 215,000 copies.

After the problems caused last week by the absence of Virgin and Our Price data, the chart sample is back to normal this week, with all multiples fully represented. Ironically, despite this, the top end of the album chart is remarkably similar to the previous week, with 10 of the top 11 records unmovable. That means that Boyzone are still number one with By Request selling more than 54,000 in the week, to take its overall tally to 706,000 in just six weeks. Having looked vulnerable to the challenge from Shania Twain's Come On Over last week, it has now doubled its lead to 20,000. The only album able to make any upwards progress in the Top 10 is Ricky Martin's self-titled effort, which includes his current number one single Livin' La Vida Loca. That album has been on a steep upward trajectory since the single started getting heavy exposure and has moved 37-15-7 in the last fortnight. The record which shifts out of the Top 10 to accommodate Martin's arrival is The Corrs' Talk On Corners, which slips 7-12, with the £4.99 HMV offer which carried it into the Top 10 last week now withdrawn. The offer replacing it – Oasis' Definitely Maybe at just £5.99 – has proved a less attractive option, bringing that album back into the Top 75, but only in anchor position. Some of the other main beneficiaries of HMV's sale also slip as stocks are becoming more scarce. Prime among this group are Frankie Goes To Hollywood's Welcome To The Pleasuredome (16-20), Take That's Greatest Hits (31-46) and Wham!'s The Final (27-40).

Sony's urban department is responsible for two of the three highest new entries to the chart this week, with new US signings Jennifer Lopez and Macy Gray both making impressive first appearances after just one single apiece. Lopez's On The 6 sold more than 10,000 copies last week, and arrives at number 14, while Gray's On How Life Is sold more than 5,600 copies to make a number 28 debut. Lopez's high profile single If You Had My Love has spent the last three weeks in the Top 10, attracting 147,000 buyers, and provides – along with her movie career, TV appearances and the like – an understandable impetus for the album.

COMPILATIONS

Fresh Hits 99 enjoys a third week atop the compilation chart but sold only 5,000 copies more than Columbia's Music To Watch Girls By compilation, which jumps 4-2 on its seventh week in the chart. The latter album has proved to be one of the outstanding successes of the year in the compilation field, and sold nearly 22,000 copies last week, to bring its overall tally to 136,000. Containing vintage MOR favourites such as Fools Rush In (Where Angels Fear To Tread) by Brook Benton, Theme From A Summer Place by the Percy Faith Orchestra and Andy Williams' title track, it has performed remarkably well, particularly in light of the release last week of Virgin/EMI's similarly-themed Easy Listening compilation, which makes an inauspicious debut in the chart this week at number 42.

More mellow music is also represented by the week's highest new entry. The simply-titled Country, a Universal/Sony collaboration, debuts at number eight, and includes 41 country cuts varying in vintage from the Sixties – Johnny Cash, Jim Reeves and Patsy Cline – to the current day, the latter's representatives including Shania Twain, the Dixie Chicks and Jo Dee Messina.

The movie has been a storming success, but the soundtrack to Austin Powers – The Spy Who Shagged Me has been a mite disappointing to date, despite the inclusion of Madonna's Beautiful Stranger and several other desirable tracks, many of them unavailable elsewhere, but the album sparks into life this week, jumping 31-16 thanks to some timely TV advertising.
