THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

26 SEPTEMBER 1999

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

There is major continental involvement in all of the top seven records in the chart this week, with Italy's Eiffel 65 leading the charge at number one.

It is followed by Germany's Lou Bega at number two, the Danish remix of Bob Marley's 1971 recording Sun Is Shining at number three, the Netherlands' Vengaboys at number four, Paul Johnson's Get Get Down - licensed from Italy's Time Records - at number five, DJ Jean from Holland at six and Tom Jones' duet with Sweden's The Cardigans, recorded in Sweden with Tore Johansson producing - at number seven.

Such a line-up is both unprecedented and impressive, and in the case of Get Get Down the track sets a new chart record for the most repetitive lyric of all time.

On the three minute radio edit Paul Johnson - an American from Chicago, not the Brit who hit with When Love Comes Calling more than a decade ago - repeats the lyric down or d-down, approximately 182

SINGLE FACTFILE

Already number one in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland, Eiffel 65's Blue (Da Ba Dee) adds the UK chart throne this week. The record, which climbed as high as number 39 as a German import sold more than 226,000 copies last week, far exceeding the sales of the number two and three singles together. Recorded by the Italian trio of Maurizio Labina, Gianfranco Randone and Massimo Gabutti, it was originally released by the Bliss Company label in Italy, and subsequently across Europe on RCA and Logic. In the UK, however, it is on Warner Music's Eternal imprint, which thus earns its first number one since Gina G's Ooh Aah...Just A Little Bit in 1996.

Blue is the third record of continental origin in a row to top the chart - an unprecedented event.

The single's number seven debut with sales of over 50,000 copies gives Tom his highest charting single since his cover of Prince's Kiss reached number five 11 years ago.

Burning Down The House is Tom's first single for the Gut label, and makes him only the second artist to have hits on 10 different labels - an amazing feat, not least because his first 25 hits were all on Decca.

Since then, he has charted on EMI, Epic, China, Jive, Dover, The Hit Label, Childline and ZTT. Lulu was the first to score on 10 labels, reaching the target in May, with her Rocket label single Hurt Me So Bad. She too started out with Decca, had a spell with Jive and returned to prominence in partnership with boyband Take That. It's only a pity that, as two of Britain's gutsiest vocalists and best loved survivors from the sixties, no-one has ever seen fit to pair them together for what would undoubtedly be an explosive single.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

There can be few who aren't impressed much by the rise and rise of Shania Twain's Come On Over album, which topped the 50,000 sales in a week mark for the first time three weeks ago, the 60,000 mark a fortnight ago, and the 70,000 mark last week – some 81 weeks after it was released. The album is being driven to lofty new heights by the continued success of the single That Don't Impress Me Much – 19 weeks in the Top 40 and sales to date just short of 750,000 copies – and the rising tide of support for the next single Man! I Feel Like A Woman!, which is exploding on the radio and – thanks to its tongue-in-cheek Addicted To Love style video – on TV. The 70,072 sales Come On Over achieved last week took its total sales to date to nearly 840,000 and undoubtedly caused a few frowns at Virgin which has been deprived of number one debuts by Martine McCutcheon and Gomez in the last fortnight as a result.

It's exactly a year since Gomez's debut

ALBUM FACTFILE

Year in and year out, the Beatles sell more albums in the UK than all but the most successful of contemporary recording artists. Boosted by occasional catalogue offers from the likes of HMV and Virgin which invariably lift Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band back into the Top 75, sometimes accompanied by Abbey Road, Revolver and others, they sell well over 250,000 albums every year.

Sometimes that figure is much higher, as it was when their three Anthology doubles were released – and will be again this year, with the unleashing last week of the Yellow Submarine Songtrack, the digitally remastered and definitive album which brings together for the first time the 15 Beatles recordings featured in the Yellow Submarine movie. The album sold nearly 19,000 copies last week.

SALES UPDATE

album Bring It On took off following its Mercury Music Prize success. Although it never climbed higher than number 26, it has sold over 270,000 copies to date – a target that Liquid Skin should surpass by year's end.

This year's Mercury winner Talvin Singh saw his album OK make a belated chart debut at number 52 last week, a position it retains this week. With the title track of Singh's album due to be released as a single shortly, the album has sold 27,000 copies so far. Singh is joined in the chart this week by a second British Asian, namely Nitin Sawhney, whose acclaimed Beyond Skin album debuts at number 44.

For The Record: The importation of popular singles continues to impact on the album chart. The budget album chart this week sees new entries at one and three for Bob Marley's Sun Is Shining and Ann Lee's 2 Times. The Marley entry is the import single which was in the regular album chart last week but a reduction in its dealer price has seen it re-classified as a budget album, while Ann Lee's record was in the singles chart last week but has been found to be ineligible by dint of playing time/number of tracks regulations, and has thus been reclassified.

COMPILATIONS

The compilation chart has a three tier structure this week with Kiss Ibiza 99 – the latest collaboration between Kiss and Universal Music TV – romping to a second week at number one with 48,000 sales. That puts it well ahead of Big Hits 99 (38,000) and Top Of The Pops 99 – Volume Two (36,000), which, in turn, are even further ahead of the rest of the field, with the number four album Ibiza Annual 99 selling a mere 15,000 copies.

Kiss Ibiza 99 has sold more than 104,000 copies in the last fortnight and is clearly the right album at the right time for hordes of homecoming tourists not just from Ibiza but from many other European hotspots where the likes of Bob Marley, DJ Jurgens presents Alice Deejay, ATB and Danny Tenaglia are proving to be holiday hits. Name checking Ibiza is reaching epidemic proportions, with five of the Top 10 featuring the sun-drenched Spanish island in their titles, and, apparently, causing hopeless confusion among retailers and punters alike.

Now That's What I Call Music! 43 sold a still buoyant 14,000 copies last week, and has now topped the 600,000 sales mark. It took less than nine weeks to reach the target, which last summer's Now 40 achieved after 14 weeks. Big Hits 99 also continues to outpace its 1998 equivalent by approximately 50% over the same timescale, and has sold nearly 270,000 copies in the last four weeks, during which period compilations have taken an unseasonally high 30% of the album market.
