THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

2 OCTOBER 1999

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Effel 65's Blue (Da Ba Dee) completes its second week at number one, achieving a comparatively easy victory, with its tally of more than 164,500 sales proving slightly greater the number two and number three singles added together. Blue has sold in excess of 390,000 copies in a fortnight, and is destined to become one of the year's biggest sellers not just here but just about everywhere it has been released. It is currently number one in no fewer than nine other European countries, namely Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland. Its strength here deprives S Club 7 the opportunity of having their second straight number one, with S Club Party having to settle for runners-up spot.

The first artist and possibly only artist to sell two million singles this year will be Britney Spears, whose third single (You Drive Me) Crazy debuts at number five this week, with sales of more than 63,000 copies. Britney has sold more than 1.9m singles so far this year, with her debut chart topper – and the year's runaway best-seller –

...Baby One More Time topping 1.44m, and the number three follow-up Sometimes topping 400,000 sales to date.

SINGLE FACTFILE

Shania Twain's Come On Over album yields its fifth hit single this week, as Man! I Feel Like A Woman! debuts at number three, equalling Twain's highest chart position, as achieved by That Don't Impress Me Much. The latter single, meanwhile, ends its 19 week residency in the Top 40 this week, sliding 34-45. The other hits from Come On Over are You're Still The One (number 10), When (number 18) and From This Moment On (number nine). Man! I Feel Like A Woman spent the early part of last week in even loftier orbit, holding second place, but was eventually overtaken by S Club 7's S Club Party, which sold 84,000 copies compared to 80,000 for Man! I Feel Like A Woman! Twain has sold over 840,000 singles in the UK this year, the sixth highest tally of any artist. Among female soloists, only Whitney and Britney have sold more singles in 1999.

Thirty years ago this week, Creedence Clearwater Revival were number one with Bad Moon Rising and David Bowie entered the Top 20 for the first time with Space Oddity. The former are long gone, but Bowie returns to the Top 20 again this week, debuting at number 16 with Thursday's Child. It's his 61st hit in all, enough to place him fourth in the all-time hit league. Occupying seventh place in the same table, with 54 hits to their name, are Status Quo. They've had more hits than any other group, but their latest single Twenty Wild Horses is their 12th in a row to fall short of the Top 20 – and it does so by some distance, debuting at number 52 with only just over 3,250 fans turning out to buy it last week.

Former Eternal star Kellé Bryan makes her solo chart debut this week at number 14 with Higher Than Heaven. She's the second member to go solo, following Louise who launched her career exactly four years ago with the number eight hit Light Of My Life.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Leftfield's impressive debut is tough luck on Shania Twain, whose Come On Over album loses pole position after three weeks despite attaining its highest ever weekly sales last week. It's only just its biggest week – it sold an estimated 70,388 compared to 70,072 the previous week – but it takes the five hit album to the 910,000 sales mark, a total which will doubtless be increased considerably by year's end. Whether or not it returns to number one, it has helped boost Canada into first place in the table of weeks at number one by artists from overseas in the second half of the Nineties. In the period 1995-1999, Canadian acts have held pole position 28 times, with Bryan Adams enjoying just one week at number one, and the remaining 27 weeks being contributed by women, with Celine Dion totalling 12 weeks on top from three albums, Alanis Morissette spending 11 weeks at number one with Jagged Little Pill and, of course, Twain's recent run. In second place is Ireland, with 26 weeks on top courtesy of Boyzone (14 weeks), The Corrs (10 weeks) and U2 (two weeks). The USA, a country with more than 271m inhabitants – compared to Canada's 30m, and (the

ALBUM FACTFILE

Leftfield reached number three with their debut album Leftism in February 1995. Combining dub and house and featuring guest vocalists as diverse as Toni Halliday and Earl Sixteen, it was nominated for the Mercury Music Prize, and continues to sell to this day, with more than half a million satisfied buyers to date. Now their long overdue follow-up Rhythm And Stealth has been an instant success. Featuring the single Afrika Shox with Afrika Bambaataa, a number seven hit earlier this month, it sold 74,000 copies last week and ends, at least temporarily, Shania Twain's residency at the top of the album chart. Rhythm And Stealth features several other collaborations including Roots Manuva, Cheshire Cat and Nicole Willis. A set of five 10" singles, retailing at about £30, attracted only 2% of the sales.

Republic of) Ireland's 3.6m – has totalled only 21 weeks at number one in the last half decade, with the Titanic soundtrack (generously categorised as American here, even though it features the LSO prominently) leading the way with three weeks on top. The last number one album by an American act was the Beastie Boys' LP more than 14 months ago.

It's the busiest weeks of the year for debuts, with no fewer than 13 newcomers to the Top 50 this week. As well as Leftfield's Rhythm And Stealth (number one), there's Supergrass (number three), Daniel O'Donnell (number 10), Barbra Streisand (number 16), Lolly (number 21), Tori Amos (number 22), Chris De Burgh (number 23), former Soundgraden man Chris Cornell's (number 31), Yes (number 36), Charlie Landsborough (number 39), All Seeing I (number 45), Type O Negative (number 49) and Glen Campbell (number 50).

COMPILATIONS

Just 143 sales are all that separates Top Of The Pops '99 – Volume 2 and Kiss Ibiza 99 at the top of the chart, but, for the third week running it's the latter album that comes out top. Its tally of just less than 35,000 sales is less than any of the top three last week, and bring its own three week total to just less than 140,000 sales.

The week's highest new entry is the TV-related Ibiza Uncovered – The Return, the CD companion to Sky TV's vulgar holiday documentary, which is being re-run by ITV. Another title directly related to TV making its debut this week is Sex, Chips & Rock N' Roll – a cocktail of genuine sixties hits occasionally interrupted by the inclusion of a track specially recorded for the Debbie Horsfield BBC drama of the same name. It debuts at number 30, with just more than 2,000 sales.

Even as the Ibiza holiday season draws to a close – many clubs shut up shop at the weekend – the name continues to be a passport to chart success. Aside from the Ibiza Uncovered album mentioned above, there are Top 20 entries this week for Sasha – Ibiza, and the original soundtrack to a movie about the Island's notorious club Manumission, which debut at 12 and 17 respectively.

Finally, after 14 Top 10 appearances in a row, Columbia's Music To Watch Girls By compilation dips 7-11 this week. In the 18 weeks since it was released the album, which features the likes of Andy Williams, Doris Day and Johnny Mathis, has sold nearly 320,000 copies, prompting the release of a second volume shortly.
