THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

APRIL 1 2000

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Spice Girls colleague Melanie C's only number one outside the group to date was achieved by teaming up with a female American R&B star (Missy Elliott) and the same route has worked for Melanie C, whose Never Be The Same Again pairing with TLC's Lisa 'Left Eye' Lopes debuts convincingly at number one this week, selling more than twice as many copies as Moloko's The Time Is Now, which debuts at number two.

Never Be The Same Again is the second major hit to feature Lisa Lopes this year, the other being Donell Jones' U Know What's Up, which peaked at number two. The TLC star is likely to score a hat-trick of high charting assists when Space Cowboy (Yippee Yi-Yay), her collaboration with 'N Sync, is released as a single some way down the line.

Lopes's extracurricular work does not necessarily prove the TLC rift rumours, incidentally – all three members got together

SINGLE FACTFILE

After consecutive number ones from her former singing partners Bryan Adams and Geri Halliwell, Melanie C debuts emphatically at number one this week with Never Be The Same Again. It is her ninth number one, the previous eight having been achieved as a member of the Spice Girls. She now joins the growing ranks of women with nine number one hits, the others being colleague Melanie G, Abba's Frida and Agnetha, and Madonna. Beating them all, of course, Geri Halliwell has 10 to her credit. Given her recent remarks about Geri, it must give Melanie C some pleasure to dethrone her erstwhile colleague – and if the two had released singles head-to-head last week she would have even more reason to smile as she would have prevented Bag It Up from reaching number one – Never Be The Same Again sold nearly 145,000 units compared with Halliwell's first week tally of 106,000 for Bag It Up.

a few weeks ago to provide the foil for fellow LaFace recording act Goodie Mob on the single What It Ain't (Ghetto Enuff), which should be out as a single at the end of May. Melanie C's high-flying debut deprives Moloko and the Echo label of the chance of their first number one with The Time Is Now but in debuting at number two the record beats both Moloko's own previous best – Sing It Back reached number four last year – and the previous best for Echo, this being the number three peak of Babybird's You're Gorgeous in 1996.

Babybird's latest, The F Word, debuted more quietly at number 35 last week. and now dips to number 52.

For the first time in chart history, there are simultaneous Top 20 hits by two acts from Norway. Lene Marlin made her debut four weeks ago, and continues to do well with Sitting Down Here, which slips 9-13 and has sold nearly 160,000 copies to date. The 18-year-old newcomer is joined by some even more youthful compatriots this week, namely Marit Larsen (16) and Marion Raven (15), who collectively form M2M. They debut this week at number 16 with Don't Say You Love Me, which is featured in the Pokemon movie.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Though it has had its fair share of big-selling albums, including the current TLC release Fanmail (460,000) and Whitney Houston's My Love Is Your Love (760,000), Santana's arrival at the album chart summit gives the Arista label its first number one since 1993, when David Bowie topped with Black Tie White Noise. Its triumph is a narrow one, however, with Moby's Play also reaching dizzy new heights, climbing to number two with sales of more than 40,000 last week alone.

Home to the current number one single Never Be The Same Again and the two number four hits Goin' Down and Northern Star, Melanie C's debut solo album, also entitled Northern Star, continues to improve. It advances 12-10 this week, equalling the highest position of its 23-week chart career. But former colleague and current rival Geri Halliwell is doing even better, climbing 11-8 with Schizophonic.

'N Sync are destined to debut at number one in America next week but they have to settle for a number 14 debut here with No Strings Attached. The former RCA act's Jive

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Currently number one in the US, Canada, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland, Santana's Supernatural album finally moves to the top of the UK chart. It sold more than 42,000 copies last week, and has increased its sales every week this year. Released last August, it ended 1999 with total sales of 25,000, a total which has since swollen to more than 240,000. The album has, of course, been responding to the belated popularity of Smooth, the introductory single which disappointingly peaked at 75 last October but which debuts at three this week on reissue, with more than 57,000 sales. Supernatural is Santana's first UK number one album, nearly 30 years after first appearing on the chart. Although born in Mexico, Carlos Santana records and resides in America and is, amazingly, the first US act to top the album chart since the Beastie Boys' Hello Nasty in July 1998.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

last album 'N Sync, which contained the Top 10 hits Tearing Up My Heart and I Want You Back but which never climbed higher than number 30 on the album chart.

Hip-hop albums have notoriously short shelf lives both in the US and the UK but one album which is seriously bucking the trend is Dr Dre's latest, 2001. The album has sold 4m copies in America so far, and is still in the Top Five, some 18 weeks after it was released. It has shown similar, if less spectacular, staying power here too. And the success of the current single Still Dre, a collaboration with Snoop Dogg is providing new firepower for the album. Still Dre debuted at six on the singles chart last week and falls just one notch this week as it crosses beyond the artist's core audience. The album responds by rising to a new peak of 17. Sales are already around the 90,000 mark, but there is the prospect of much more to come with the follow-up Forget About Dre already being heavily played.

COMPILATIONS

Album sales overall are down for the third straight week but compilations are on the rise after four weeks of decline. That is not by much, though, with only 10,000 extra sales taking last week's tally to a still low 447,000. At the top, New Hits 2000 rules the roost for the second straight week, even though its sales dip from 33,000 to 26,000. In a weak market that is enough to give it a handsome victory, however, with the new runner-up being New Woman 2000, which sold fewer than 17,000 copies. The latter album – which is aimed at women rather than featuring them exclusively – includes current hits from Precious, Madasun, Kelis and Jamelia among others, but also features many slightly older hits and several standards, including Roy Orbison's Oh Pretty Woman, Jennifer Rush's The Power Of Love and the Spice Girls' Mama. Though not overtly marketed as such, it will presumably be widely purchased as a Mother's Day gift, which substantially increases its chances of being number one next week. Universal's That Ole Devil Called Love and Sony's For You seem similarly suitable, and debut at number 13 and number 21 respectively.

The garage frenzy continues, with four garage albums in the Top 10 – five in the Top 12 – this week, the highest placed arrival being Kiss UK Garage, the latest collaboration between the London dance station and Universal, which debuts at number three. Hardhouse has less of a high profile but there are two hardhouse albums bangin' away in the lower reaches of the chart – Nukleuz Presents Hardhouse Anthems slips 16-19 while This Is Hard House debuts at number 31.
