THE OFFICIAL UK CHART SINGLES

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

For the first time this millennium, there is an unchanged top three, with Toca's Miracle by Fragma, Fill Me In by Craig David and Thong Song by Sisqo all holding their positions, though all suffer declining sales – their combined tally for last week was 245,828, a 34% fall on the previous week, while their share of the total singles market dropped from 29.9% to 18.7%, not least because the market overall expanded a healthy 5.2%. Singles sales have increased in each of the past five weeks but are still down by 23.5% on the year to date.

The Fragma single is well ahead at the top, with second-week sales of more than 116,000 propelling it past 305,000 in a fortnight, while runner-up Craig David's 69,000 third-week sales with Fill Me In push that disc's overall tally to more than 328,000. The Fragma single is the first to spend more than a week at number one since All Saints' Pure Shores, and it is also the second-fastest seller of the year, behind the same disc. Pure

MARKET REPORT

Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales of the Top 75; and corporate group shares by % of total sales of the Top 75

Shores had sold in excess of 354,000 copies after its first two weeks in the shops and is still emphatically the biggest hit of the year,

There is good news and bad news for Oasis this week. The good news is that Who Feels Love? extends their sequence of consecutive Top Five hits to 10. The bad news? Its number four debut is their lowest since Cigarettes & Alcohol checked in at number seven in October 1994. Who Feels Love? was number two in early sales flashes but faded badly and sold just 57,500 copies in the week, slightly less than a third as many copies as their last single Go Let It Out sold in debuting at number one in February. The group's latest album Standing On The Shoulder Of Giants – which features both Go Let It Out and Who Feels Love? – has reaped no discernible rewards from the release of the latter as a single and continues its decline, slipping 23-26 this week. Its total sales, after eight weeks in the shops, exceed 430,000.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

He Wasn't Man Enough is Toni Braxton's first single from her new album The Heat and has a superb week on both sides of the Atlantic. In America it surges 24-3 while in the UK it debuts at number five. The single is Braxton's biggest hit since Un-Break My Heart reached number two here and number one in America in 1996.

Cypress Hill make a similarly successful return to the UK chart with their double A-sided hit pairing (Rap) Superstar and (Rock) Superstar. It's their ninth single and ninth hit since they launched their career with Insane In The Brain in 1994 – and the biggest. Its number 13 debut beats the number 15 mark set by their 1995 hit Throw Your Set In The Air. It's the first single from their new album Skull & Bones.

While Sisqo's current hit samples his number one Livin' La Vida Loca, Ricky Martin returns to the upper echelon of the chart this week with Private Emotion, his duet with Scandinavia's Meja, which debuts at nine.

MUSIC WEEK APRIL 29 2000

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

APRIL 29 2000

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUM FACTFILE

Status Quo extend their impressive album chart career to 27 years with the release of their latest collection, Famous In The Last Century, which debuts this week at 21. It is the group's 31st chart album – a tally beaten by only one group in chart history, that being the Rolling Stones. Quo's career has had several peaks and troughs but Famous In The Last Century catches them on the upswing, having already surpassed the number 26 peak of their last album, 1999's Under The Influence. Famous In The Last Century is a title which applies not only to Quo itself but also to the songs on their new album, which comprises covers of hits like Hound Dog (Elvis), Claudette (Everly Brothers), Rock 'n' Me (Steve Miller) and the first single Mony Mony (Tommy James & The Shondells). The only original track on the album, somewhat perversely, is band member Andy Bown's title track which opens and closes proceedings.

While sales of other albums ebb and flow below it, Moby's Play is enjoying flat but impressive demand and extends its reign at number one to three weeks. In each of those weeks it has sold more than 48,000 and less than 49,000 copies. It enjoys its easiest victory at the top of the charts to date this week, outselling Tom Jones's Reload – which jumps 5-2 – by more than 65% and has now sold nearly 430,000 copies since it was released last May. Incidentally, though it has performed more modestly in the charts in the US and has yet to spin off a Hot 100 single, Play has sold more than 500,000 copies Stateside and this week it climbs 59-53 to achieve its highest position to date.

The recent Saturday night TV broadcast of a Shania Twain concert generated increased sales for all her albums last week. Come On Over jumps 10-7 with a 56% increase week-on-week – carrying the album's sales past 2.8m – while The Woman In Me's 43% acceleration generated a 12-10 move. The pre-frame demos import Wild & Wicked slips 100-101 despite a 23% improvement while her self-titled 1993 debut, which has never charted before, enters at number 124 with sales more than doubled.

Also resurgent is All Saints' self-titled 1997 debut, which peaked at number two the following year, returns to the chart this week at number 27. This development reflects the pent-up demand for the album which has been unavailable for a while, following London Records' switch from the Universal camp to Warner Music.

Special offers in the multiples are also driving many old favourites back up the charts, with REM's Automatic For The People (37-19) and Out Of Time (48-38), The Corrs' Talk On Corners (54-25) and Forgiven, Not Forgotten (74-63), Guns N' Roses' Appetite For Destruction (re-entry at 57), Tracy Chapman (88-58) and Dire Straits' Brothers In Arms (re-entry at 69) all prominent, and helping overall artist album sales to increase by more than 13% in the week.

Sisqo's debut solo album Unleash The Dragon beat the average – it increased sales by 14.5% – but was in a tough part of the chart and slipped 18-20 nevertheless.

COMPILATIONS

The compilation sector had easily its best week of the year, with sales ballooning by a massive 76.4% week-on-week. More than 750,000 compilations were sold last week, this massive tally ensuring that a small downturn for the year to date as compared to 1999 has been overturned, with a 4.1% improvement now the trend.

There are seven new entries to the Top 10, with Kevin & Perry Go Large in at number 10, Trevor Nelson's Rhythm Nation at number nine, The Classical Album at number six, A Perfect Love III at number five, Pure Euphoria – Level 4 at number three, Cream Live at number two and – of course – Now That's What I Call Music! 45 at number one.

Now! 45 sold 200,000 copies, accounting for a little over a quarter of the market as a whole while outselling the number two album by nearly five to one.

Now! 45's first-week sales are the second highest for the spring edition of the all-conquering EMI/Virgin/Universal series, being outgunned only by Now! 42's opening tally of 213,000 last April.

Among the 45 tracks on Now! 45 are all of this week's top three singles – which may also explain why their sales were down significantly this week – as well as tracks such as Sitting Down Here by Lene Marlin, Don't Give Up by Chicane featuring Bryan Adams and The Time Is Now by Moloko. Unusually, it also includes a couple of tracks which have yet to be released as singles – Watergate's Heart Of Asia and Big Girl by the Precocious Brats featuring Kevin & Perry.
