CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

After five consecutive weeks of growth, singles sales slumped by more than a fifth last week but one genre that is selling is UK garage. This week's chart finds five garage records – all British – parked in the Top 10, with Oxide & Neutrino at number one, Craig David (admittedly more R&B in its original mix but with garage remixes) at number three, the True Steppers at number seven, Sweet Female Attitude at number nine and MJ Cole at number 10. Whether or not garage will be able to capitalise on this, and become a significant long term chart force remains to be seen. Meanwhile, one of the other notable features of the chart following the arrival of Britney Spears has been a procession of similarly-styled young American females, not to mention the restyling of our own Billie Piper.

Britney herself is looking to claim her third number one hit next week with Oops! I Did It Again, and has been followed into the chart by Christina Aguilera, Jessica Simpson and now Mandy Moore. Mandy is the youngest of the lot, having celebrated her 16th birthday just three weeks ago, and she makes her chart debut this week with Candy, which debuts at number six. Ironically, Moore's arrival deprives one of Britain's rising young female stars, Lolly, of the opportunity to register her fourth straight Top 10 hit in less than a year. Lolly reached number six with Viva La Radio, number four with Mickey and number 10 with Big Boys Don't Cry/Rockin' Robin but has to settle for a number 11 debut with Per Sempre Amore (Forever In Love), which was a mere 186 sales away from snatching a Top 10 slot at the expense of MJ Cole.

-old pal, and their single is an adaptation of the theme tune from long-running hospital soap Casualty, becoming the first TV theme to top the chart since Teletubbies Say Eh-Oh! in 1997. The Fragma single sold nearly 374,000 copies in its first 20 days in the shops, and is now the third biggest seller of the year, a handful of sales ahead of Craig David's Fill Me In but behind Gabrielle's Rise and All Saints' Pure Shores.

The Bad Touch by the Bloodhound Gang bounces to number four this week to register its highest chart placing to date. The single spent a fortnight at number five before slipping to number seven last week, and has sold a highly creditable 200,000 copies thus far. Even so, its climb this week is a fortuitous one – it sold only 40,000 copies last week, compared to 59,000, 51,000 and 50,000 on its first three weeks in the shops, and simply benefits from the fact there were few particularly competitive new singles out last week.

MUSIC WEEK MAY 6 2000

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

MAY 6 2000

by ALAN JONES

With promotion for the sixth single Porcelain yet to hit top gear, Moby's Play remains number one for the fourth straight week but sees its sales decline significantly to just 37,500 last week. A less significant decline allows Tom Jones to retain runners-up slot, with Reload, though it is not yet a threat to Play, which sold 50% more than it last week. Both albums were released in 1999, as were Santana's Supernatural and Westlife's self-titled debut album, which are number four and five respectively, leaving Toni Braxton's The Heat as the only 2000 release in the top five.

With a third of the year gone, there has yet to be a new album of real stature - Oasis' Standing On The Shoulder Of Giants sold fewer than 7,000 copies last week, after just nine weeks in the shops, while 'N Sync's No Strings Attached - a real tonic to the US market this year - and Embrace's Drawn From Memory are performing even less well. No Strings Attached moves 67-79

Drawn From Memory has sold 47,000 copies in the same timescale, and slips 65-72 this week.

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Disputes with their record label LaFace have temporarily silenced TLC and Toni Braxton in recent years, and caused both to declare bankruptcy. They have since settled their differences with the company, owned by former songwriting partners L.A. Reid and BabyFace, and returned in triumph. Braxton's third album The Heat is the highest new entry on this week's chart, debuting at number three after selling more than 20,000 copies. Fuelled by the success of its introductory single He Wasn't Man Enough it has already surpassed the chart peaks of Toni's two previous albums, her self-titled 1994 debut reaching number four and 1996's Secrets peaking at number 10. The Heat includes several singles, aside from He Wasn't Man Enough, including Spanish Guitar and Gimme Some, which features a rap from TLC's Lisa 'Left Eye' Lopes.

Cypress Hill's Skull & Bones debuts at number six, becoming the first rap album to reach the Top 10 since Puff Daddy's Forever last September. The album, which includes the single (Rap) Superstar/(Rock) Superstar, is Cypress Hill's fifth, and the first to reach the Top 10, 1995's II (Temples Of Boom) being their previous biggest success, with a number 11 chart peak. We could see another hip-hop album in the Top 10 soon, however, as Dr. Dre's 2001 continues to tread water in the teens and is about to spawn another hit single. 2001 did actually climb as high as number eight on the midweek chart before Easter but could not sustain its position.

Neil Young's retro Silver And Gold album debuts this week at number 10. It's the 54-year-old's 35th chart album, a tally which includes albums as part of Crosby, Still, Nash & Young and the Stills-Young Band. It is his seventh Top 10 solo album, and the first since 1995's Mirror Ball.

COMPILATIONS

Now That's What I Call Music! 45 remains emphatically ahead at the top of the album chart, a second week sale of more than 130,000 copies taking its two-week tally to more than 330,000 - enough for it to take over as the year's biggest selling compilation, ahead of Warner's Pure Garage, which has sold more than 230,000 copies since it was released three months ago. Now! 45 is the second fastest selling spring edition of the long-running series' history, though it is running 21,000 behind last year's Now! 42, which had sold 351,000 copies after two weeks. Now! 45 is declining more slowly than Now! 42, however, the latter album selling 219,000 on its first week and 132,000 on its second. Now! 45 is running well ahead of the pace set by previous spring Now! albums, like Now! 36 and Now! 39.

Having unexpectedly taken over from the Pokemon movie at the top of the box office chart last week, the Kevin And Perry Go Large film is now selling albums too. The soundtrack includes Ibiza hits (to match the location of the action) like Needin' U by David Morales, 9PM (Till I Come) by ATB and Toca Me by Fragma as well as the Precocious Brats' single Big Girl (a new entry to the singles chart this week at number 16) which features Harry Enfield (Kevin) and Kathy Burke (Perry) and oddities like Kid 2000 by Hybrid feat. Chrissie Hynde and I'm In The Mood For Love by Jools Holland feat. Jamiroquai. It storms 10-4 on the album chart, with more than 26,000 copies sold last week, while the Pokemon movie soundtrack drifts to number 15.
