THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

JUNE 10 2000

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Outside of Boyzone for the first time Stephen Gately registers a Top Three hit with his single New Beginning/Bright Eyes. Stephen sold more than 72,000 copies of the record last week, beating the 70,700 tally that won Oxide & Neutrino top billing four weeks ago, but not enough in the current climate to replace either Sonique or S Club 7 in an unchanged top two. Gately fares better than bandmate Mikey Graham, whose own solo debut You're My Angel debuts 10 places lower with just over a third as many sales as Gately's, but worse than Ronan Keating, whose single When You Say Nothing At All spent a fortnight at number one last August, and subsequently sold over 500,000 copies. As a group, Boyzone have had 16 hits, six of them number ones. The two members of the group yet to release a solo single are Keith Duffy and Shane Lynch.

SINGLE FACTFILE

After four number one hits in a row were able to spend no more than seven days at the top, Sonique registers a second week at the summit with It Feels So Good selling more than 109,000 copies last week, taking its sales to date to more than 304,000. In an unchanged top two, she is still pursued by S Club 7's Reach, which sold more than 123,000 copies on its first week in the shops – the second highest tally for a number two record this year, and more than a number one has sold in 13 of this year's 22 chart weeks – and followed up with a further 87,000 sales last week.

The continuing rise of urban music makes its Top Ten presence felt in a big way this week, with hip hop and R&B acts debuting at five, six and seven. Pink's There You Go – a recent number seven hit in the US – tops that success by debuting here at number six, but narrowly loses out to sisterly gospel/R&B duo Mary Mary's Shackles (Praise You), which debuts at number five.

Just behind them is the rap alliance of Dr Dre and Eminem with Forgot About Dre. On its ninth week in the chart, Lonestar's Amazed rises to number 21, its highest position to date. The Nashville-based country act's single has now risen for five weeks in a row, during which time it has increased its weekly sales from a low of just over 6,000 to nearly 14,000 last week. It soared by 68% last week alone, a significant factor in this being the fact it was finally made available by Woolworth's last Monday. Amazed has sold 85,000 copies so far.

Aqua debut at number 26 with their seventh single Around The World. All six of the Danish act's previous hits have reached the Top 20, the first three reaching number one, and their last hit Cartoon Heroes reached number seven in March. Meanwhile, the third single from Embrace's Drawn From Memory album, Save Me, debuts at number 29, compared to the number 18 position achieved by Hooligan last November and the number 14 peak of You're Not Alone in March. The group's eighth hit, Save Me seems destined to be their least successful since the introductory Fireworks EP reached number 34 in 1997.

MUSIC WEEK JUNE 10 2000

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

WEEK END 2000

by ALAN JONES

It's an all-American top three for the second week in a row, with Bon Jovi debuting in pole position to dethrone Whitney Houston, who reigned for two weeks with The Greatest Hits. It's the first time we've seen consecutive number one albums by Americans since June 1997, when the Wu-Tang Clan's Wu-Tang Forever made way for Hanson's Middle Of Nowhere (the Titanic soundtrack was replaced by Madonna's Ray Of Light the following year, but although American-born James Horner composed and produced the Titanic album, it was performed by the London Symphony Orchestra). The Bon Jovi album is only the second with material released for the first time in 2000 to top the chart this year, the first being Standing On The Shoulder Of Giants by Oasis.

Increasing its sales for the fifth straight week, Tom Jones' Reload album is the only album in the top six not by an American. It continues at number four with sales of more than 39,000 last week bringing its overall total to more than 929,000 since its release nine months ago. Easily the biggest selling album of Jones' career, its sales includes

Bon Jovi's first album in five years, Crush becomes their fifth number one album in a row. That sequence is only bettered in the whole of album chart history by four acts – Abba, Led Zepplin, the Beatles and Rod Stewart – and is a result of Crush selling a total of more than 84,000 copies last week, as it was released hot on the heels of It's My Life, one of their most successful singles. Bon Jovi made their first album chart appearance 16 years ago, peaking at number 71 with their self-titled debut, then reached number 28 with 7800 Degrees Fahrenheit (1985) and number six with Slippery When Wet (1986). Since then, their unbroken string of number ones has included New Jersey (1988), Keep The Faith (1992), Cross Roads – The Very Best Of (1994) and These Days (1995). Jon Bon Jovi's two solo albums both peaked at number two.

more than 480,000 this year alone, a total beaten only by Travis' The Man Who (647,000) and Moby's Play (552,000).

Seven years after leaving Iron Maiden, lead singer Bruce Dickinson's return to the fold has sparked improved fortunes for the band. Their Brave New World album sold nearly 30,000 copies last week, and debuts at number seven, instantly beating the peak positions of their last five albums – since Dickinson departed in 1993. It's a partnership of mutual benefit, however, as none of Dickinson's five solo albums have reached the Top 10.

With his upcoming single Babylon sprinting to number 16 on the airplay chart, acclaimed singer/songwriter David Gray's White Ladder album continues its steady ascent of the album chart. Originally released on the indie label IHT in 1998, the album spent six weeks at number one in Ireland before being reissued here on East West in May, since when it has moved 69-44-32-23-16. It sold more than 11,000 copies last week to bring its overall sales since re-release to 26,000.

COMPILATIONS

After six weeks at the top of the compilation chart, Now That's What I Call Music! 45 steps down, to be replaced by Clubber's Guide To Ibiza – Summer 2000. It was a close thing, however, with Now! 45 selling more than 33,000 (its total sales are now 564,000) and Clubber's Guide selling 35,500. Mixed by Radio One's Judge Jules, Clubber's Guide is the latest success for the Ministry Of Sound label and proves that albums themed on the hot spot of Ibiza are still capable of beating off the best offerings centred around the Cypriot resort of Agia Napa. The highest chart position for an Agia Napa album to date is the number seven spot gained a fortnight ago by the Inspired label's Ultimate Agia Napa. Clubber's Guide To Ibiza – 2000 is the 10th Ministry Of Sound album to reach number one. Launched in 1993, the label didn't have a number one album until 1998's The Ibiza Annual. Followed by two number ones that year, and four in 1999, Clubber's Guide To Ibiza has joined Clubber's Guide To 2000, Rewind – The Sound Of UK Garage and, most recently, Dance Nation, which topped the chart in April, to bring its 2000 total to four so far.

The box office disaster of Honest, the film directed by Eurhythms' Dave Stewart and starring All Saints' Natalie, Nicole and Melanie, has clearly affected the soundtrack album, which – despite including solo covers of Motown hits by all three girls and classic Motown originals by Diana Ross & The Supremes, the Temptations, Marvin Gaye and others – has still to make an appearance in the compilation chart.
