THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Much-vaunted Scots band Belle & Sebastian register their highest chart position this week, debuting at number 10 with Fold Your Hands Child, You Walk Like A Peasant, as notable for its short playing time (less than 41 minutes) as for its lengthy title. Despite the fact it could run almost twice as long and still fit on a CD, it does not include Legal Man, which reached number 15 on the singles chart to give them their biggest hit a mere fortnight ago. Belle &

Sebastian previously reached number 12 in 1998 with The Boy With The Arab Strap and number 13 last year with Tigermilk, a reissue of their 1996 debut album, which was originally released only on limited edition vinyl on their own Electric Honey label. Fold Your Hands Child, You Walk Like A Peasant sold nearly 15,000 copies last week for the band, who won the best newcomer award at the Brits in 1999, beating the odds-on favourites Steps.

Sex bomb Tom Jones celebrated his 60th birthday last Wednesday and got a belated present on Sunday when his latest and biggest-selling album Reload returned to number one. The album, which has spawned four Top 20 singles, returns for its third stint at number one as a result of the ongoing popularity of the current single Sex Bomb, renewed TV advertising and the screening on ITV the Saturday before last of An Audience With Tom Jones.

Jones's album increased its sales for the sixth straight week last week, registering a massive 38% improvement over the previous seven days, to sell more than 54,000 copies. That is the second best week of the album's 37-week chart career, being beaten only by the 56,000 sales it registered in the seven days immediately prior to Christmas – a total which was only enough for 23rd place that week. Reload has sold more than 984,000 copies to date.

Jones records for the Gut label, which

McDonald – who starred in the BBC's The Cruise – was the first artist ever to have a number one debut on the album chart without first having a hit single.

McDonald has now moved to Universal and her second album came out last week, with expectations high, particularly at Woolworth's where it was rated number one on the store's own chart. The album, entitled Inspiration, sold nearly 22,000 copies and is the week's highest new entry at number six. Her debut album sold almost 10,000 copies more on its first week in the shops.

German trance artist Paul Van Dyk had his first Top 20 single just last November with Another Way/Avenue and improved on that with his only subsequent single, Tell Me Why (The Riddle), a number seven hit last month. Despite his fairly limited success as a singles artist, Van Dyk proves that intelligent dance music can sell by debuting at number 12 with his album Out There & Back, which sold more than 13,000 copies last week. That is a higher position than that achieved by veteran German dance act Sash! for their latest album Trilenium.

COMPILATIONS

After just one week in pole position, The Clubber's Guide To Ibiza – Summer 2000 is relegated to runners-up spot, selling exactly 10,000 fewer copies than Top Of The Pops 2000 – Volume 2, which debuts at number one. The 10th Top Of The Pops album (this tally does not include the Top Of The Pops 2 compilation, released in conjunction with the BBC2 programme of the same name earlier this year), it is the third to top the compilation chart, following 1995's Top Of The Pops 2 and last year's Top Of The Pops '99 – Volume 2. The most recent TOTP album – Top Of The Pops 2000 Volume 1 – reached number three in March, its first and best week's sale being 33,500, compared to the near 38,000 tally turned in by...Volume 2 last week.

Despite the debut of Top Of The Pops 2000 – Volume 2 and the arrival at six and seven of two new Virgin/EMI compilations (The Best Summer Holiday Ever and Best Footie Anthems Ever), compilation sales slide by nearly 11% week-on-week, dipping below the 500,000 mark. Year-to-date, they are beating 1999 by 5.6%, while artist albums are up 7.7% year-on-year.

All too often most of the albums in the compilation chart are the same tried and trusted recordings which have appeared on several previously successful compilations. It is good to see, therefore, that the new Global TV release All You Need Is Love – which debuts this week at 18 – takes a few risks, mixing classic hits with little-known but excellent recordings such as Jose Feliciano's instrumental take on the Beatles' Here There And Everywhere and Nina Simone's interpretation of Bacharach/David's The Look Of Love.

by ALAN JONES

For the third week in a row, Sonique is number one with It Feels So Good and S Club 7 are number two with Reach. The Sonique single sold a further 85,000 copies last week to take its sales to date to an impressive 389,000, while Reach has sold 264,000, including 53,000 last week. The last occasion on which the top two remained the same for three weeks was in June/July 1998, when Baddiel, Skinner & The Lightning Seeds' 3 Lions held off a challenge from another football anthem, Vindaloo by Fat Les. That was in the midst of World Cup '98 fever, and Fat Les return to the chart this week at 10 with their latest effort, Jerusalem, which is tied in to the current Euro 2000 tournament.

The highest new entry is TV personality/comedian Richard Blackwood's Mama - Who Da Man?, which debuts at three with 43,000 sales - a total which has won a top three place only once in the last 20 weeks. Blackwood's single is based partly on Mama Used To Say, a hit in 1982 for his uncle, Junior Giscombe.

the Top 40 to increase its sales week-on-week was, naturally, Lonestar's Amazed, which bucked the trend with a small but significant

SINGLE FACTFILE

On Me at number 10, Turn peaking at number eight and Coming Around debuting this week at number five, after selling nearly 36,000 copies. The latter is the first single from their forthcoming, as-yet-unnamed album. Their last album, The Man Who, was the biggest-seller of 1999 and leads the 2000 rankings too. Currently number 16 on the album chart, it has thus far sold more than 2,068,000 copies.

1.5% increase. It sold more than 14,000 copies last week and has increased its sales six weeks in a row. Despite this, it actually suffers a slight dip - falling from 21 to 23 - pushed down by the high level of new entries above it. The single has now sold 100,000 copies and shares with the Bloodhound Gang's The Bad Touch and Craig David's Fill Me In the honours for being the longest-running hit (at 10 weeks) in the Top 40.

The pairing of superstars Whitney Houston and George Michael gives both artists another Top 10 hit, with If I Told You That - formerly a solo Houston track on the album My Love Is Your Love - debuting at nine. Houston has achieved a unique record, debuting on both the UK and US charts with no fewer than three different singles and partners in the same week - in the US she debuts on the Hot 100 at 71 with Canadian diva Deborah Cox and Same Script. Different Cast and at 74 with Spaniard Enrique Iglesias on Could I Have This Kiss Forever.
