THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

1 JULY 2000

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

More than 40 years after its first number one, and nearly seven years after its last – courtesy of Adam Faith and the late Freddie Mercury, respectively – EMI's venerated Parlophone label, which was home to the Beatles for all but three of their 17 number ones, is back on top, courtesy of Kylie Minogue. Minogue's Spinning Around sold more than 82,000 copies last week to debut in pole position. And, although it is her Parlophone debut, it's Minogue's 29th hit in all – a total which is the highest in chart history by any artist not from either the UK or the US. Spinning Around is also a triumph for another chart veteran, Paula Abdul, who was 37 last week, and who co-authored the song.

The first all-Finnish act to have a hit in Britain (although Him, who recently topped the German chart, should not be too far behind), Darude holds firm at number three this week with his hard house track Sandstorm, as sales dipped just 10% from a

SINGLE FACTFILE

This week see's Kylie Minogue's triumphant return to the top of the singles chart, more than 10 years after her last number one. The Australian, who was 32 last month, has not had a Top 10 hit since 1994 but debuts in pole position with Spinning Around. It's her fifth number one hit in total, and her first since January 1990's Tears On My Pillow. Minogue also reached number one with I Should Be So Lucky and Especially For

You (both in 1988, the latter a duet with Jason Donovan) and Hand On Your Heart (1989). Her four number one solo hits is a total surpassed by one female star – Madonna, who has nine – and equalled only by Whitney Houston. Like Madonna, Minogue is also only the second artist to secure a number one in each of the last three decades. Her last chart outing pre-Spinning Around was guesting on Towa Tei's GBI, a number 63 hit in 1998.

first week tally of 63,000 to a still strong 57,000. Meanwhile, Sonique's It Feels So Good slips 2-4 but sold a further 45,000 copies on its fifth week in the chart, to bring its tally so far to exactly 500,000. Although it has become more commonplace in recent years, in 1984 Frankie Goes To Hollywood became only the second act to top the chart with their first three singles. Proving their pedigree, all three of Frankie's number ones have subsequently returned to the chart in updated versions, with a remix of Relax reaching number five in 1993, an updated Two Tribes reaching number 16 in 1994 and The Power Of Love debuting at number five this week in its new Rob Searle club mix. Welcome back, too, to slightly less veteran campaigners Damage, whose hitmaking career ground to a halt in 1997 after half a dozen hits. They subsequently signed to EMI's Cooltempo label and debut at number seven this week with their debut for the label, Ghetto Romance. It is their fourth Top 10 hit.

Finally, the BBC's use of Andrea Bocelli's Canto Della Terra in its Euro 2000 coverage has had an invigorating effect on the single, which peaked at number 25 last September, and now bounces back at number 24.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Moby's Play spent five weeks at number one earlier this year, and was a mere 1,150 sales short of regaining pole position this week. Since the album's sixth hit Porcelain started promotion, it has become increasingly popular again, improving its sales for five weeks in a row and reaching nearly 45,000 copies last week. Since it was released 13 months ago, the album has sold nearly 730,000 copies. Of that, more than 670,000 sales have occurred in 2000, and by the end of this week Play will replace Travis' The Man Who as the biggest selling album of the year to date.

34-year-old Mancunian singer-songwriter David Gray's 1998 album White Ladder has also had an impressive streak, and surges 13-7 this week, having increased its sales for eight straight weeks. It sold nearly 19,000 copies last week, its acceleration into the Top 10 being aided and abetted by the release of the first single Babylon, which enters the chart at number five with.

Tom Jones' Reload. This week it falls 2-4, however, after its sales slid to 30,856 – a mere 53% of the previous week's tally. There since release, a first week tally of 63,000 followed by 51,000, 45,000, 50,000 and, most recently 46,000 sales. It is also the first rap album to reach number one since the Wu Tang Forever three years ago last month. As the 11th biggest selling album of the year, it overtakes the cumulative sales of its predecessor The Slim Shady LP this week, although the latter is selling 5,000 units per week and climbs 34-28 on the current chart.

seem to be three factors at play here – the end of a TV advertising campaign, the decline of Sex Bomb and the increasing time which has passed since the An Audience With broadcast – which individually would create a more gentle decline but which together produce a noticeable slump.

Stephen Gately became the first member of Boyzone to release a solo album when New Beginning hit the shops last Monday but the relatively disappointing showing of the first single – it has slipped 3-15-27-35 since release – has clearly taken its toll. Although the album is this week's highest new entry it turned in a very modest sale of just more than 14,000 last week to secure a number nine debut. Gately's sales were only a couple of thousand more than the comparatively unknown Deftones, whose much acclaimed album White Pony debuts at number 13 on Madonna's Maverick imprint. The group's only previous album, 1997's Around The Fur, peaked at number 56.

COMPILATIONS

The many and various specialist dance magazines have long since elected Aya Napa in Cyprus as the coolest European resort for clubgoers in succession to Ibiza but record buyers have not yet tired of the Ibiza theme despite the confusing multiplicity of titles available. For the second straight week the number one compilation is Club Mix Ibiza 2000, the latest in Universal Music Television's ongoing series of albums connected to the Balearic island. Club Mix Ibiza 2000 sold more than 37,000 copies last week to bring its two-week tally to more than 80,000, and it is currently selling 50% more than its closest rival.

Top Of The Pops 2000 – Volume 2, another Universal title. The anonymously mixed album includes current hits like Feels So Good by Sonique, Hands Up by Trevor & Simon, as well as some older club favourites and upcoming hits like Take Your Time by the Love Bite and Groovejet by Spiller.

The movie Mission: Impossible 2 will not be released here for a couple of weeks yet but its soundtrack album explodes this week after a quiet start. It jumps 45-14 on the chart, with sales leaping forward by nearly 400%. Publicity for the film is certainly beginning to increase as its release date nears but one of the main reasons for the album's surge seems to be airplay for the introductory single, Take A Look Around, by Limp Bizkit, which incorporates elements of the famous Mission: Impossible theme, and which was aired no fewer than 26 times last week by Radio One, helping it to a number 42 debut on the airplay chart.
