THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

19 AUGUST 2000

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Melanie C registers her second solo number one and her 10th number one in total with I Turn To You. Melanie is only the second female in chart history to register 10 number ones, joining former Spice Girls colleague Geri Halliwell. Geri has had one more number one as a solo artist but one fewer as a Spice Girl, having left the band before Goodbye. Both women also share the honour of being the first female songwriters to write 10 number ones, though all of their efforts were co-written with others. I Turn To You was written by Melanie with veteran US songwriters Billy Steinberg and Rick Nowels. It's Steinberg's second number one, following the Bangles' 1989 single Eternal Flame. Nowels' first number one as a writer was Belinda Carlisle's 1987 hit Heaven Is A Place On Earth. His second, just last month, was Ronan Keating's Life Is A Rollercoaster.

Melanie C's I Turn To You sold nearly 122,000 copies last week to debut at number one. Robbie's single sold more than 102,000 copies last week, a total which would have seen it retain its title in exactly half of the 32 chart weeks we've had so far this year. Instead, we have our 10th number one in as many weeks.

One artist who remains without a number one single to her credit is Janet Jackson. Janet returns to the chart this week with Doesn't Really Matter, which debuts at number five. The track, taken from the soundtrack to the movie Nutty Professor II: The Klumps, is Janet's eighth top five hit, her 15th Top 10 hit and her 33rd hit in total. Janet's highest charting singles were The Best Things In Life Are Free (a duet with Luther Vandross) and That's The Way Love Goes, back-to-back number twos in 1992/3.

French dance act Bob Sinclar's former club chart topper I Feel For You debuts at number nine with sales of more than 21,000. It's Sinclar's biggest hit as an artist, beating the number 56 success of his 1999 single My Only Love, although Spacedust's cover of his album track Gym And Tonic was a number one hit in October 1998. Sinclar's single is one of nine new entries to the Top 40 this week – and four of them have titles which start with 'I' and end with 'You', the others being Melanie C's I Turn To You, Mandy Moore's I Wanna Be With You and Embrace's I Wouldn't Wanna Happen To You, all of which proves that sometimes things just happen without any deep underlying reason.

And talking of Embrace, their latest success swells to five the number of acts with three chart entries this millennium. Although none of their hits – You're Not Alone (number 14), Save Me (number 29) and I Wouldn't Wanna Happen To You (number 23) – has added to their total of Top 10 hits, they have notched up nine hits in just three years.

Finally, although Robbie Williams' Angels is the longest running hit in the current Top 200 (125 weeks and counting), the runner-up, surprisingly, is Paul Van Dyk's 1998 single For An Angel. Despite peaking at number 28, the track has survived for 83 weeks, with sales to date of 72,000.

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUMS FACTFILE

After placing four Top 40 hits on the singles chart in less than nine months, former Byker Grove TV stars Point Break have now extended their chart ambitions to the album listings, with their LP Apocadellid debuting this week at number 21, after selling nearly 8,700 copies. The album includes all four of the trio's hits - Do We Rock (number 29), Stand Tough (number seven), Freakytime (number 13) and You (number 14) and easily outsold the debut album by Scooch, whose career has paralleled Point Break's. Scooch's album Four Sure was also released last week but sold fewer than 4,000 copies to debut at number 41. It's the third time in five releases the two acts have released records on the same day, and even their singles chart peaks are very similar, with Scooch reaching number 29 with their debut, followed by hits peaking at five, 12 and 15.

Despite a 44% dip in sales, Ronan Keating's Ronan album retains a handsome lead on the album chart, its second week sales total of over 99,000 coming in at two and a half times the sales of The Corrs' In Blue, which remains at number two. The Corrs album itself took a 41% fall last week, while Eminem, who retains third place on the list, saw sales of The Marshall Mathers LP decline by more than 22%. With the Coldplay's Parachutes shedding 19% and slipping 5-4 and David Gray's White Ladder off nearly 15% but climbing 5-4, the top five bore the brunt of an overall 14% dip in sales of artist albums.

Defying the downward trend to increase its sales for the fourth week in a row, the Red Hot Chili Peppers' Californication album rides back into the Top 10 for the first time since it was released in June of last year. The album, which improves 17-9, peaked at number five, and has sold more than 390,000 copies to date. Its resurgence is due to the success of the album's title track, which enters the singles chart this week at number 16.

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 41.3% US: 46.7% Other: 12.0%

No new release debuts in the Top 10 this week but garage guru MJ Cole's Sincere album comes close, with more than 11,000 sales propelling it to a number 14 entry a week after the single of the same name entered the singles chart at number 13.

ITV's repeat showing of An Audience With The Bee Gees (Saturday 5 August) sent fans scurrying to buy the group's concert recording One Night Only, which re-enters the chart at number 29, with sales up more than 1000%. The Very Best Of The Bee Gees saw sales increase by a more modest but still spectacular 148%, and jumps 178-60 as a result. The latter album, first released in 1990, was reissued in 1997, and is now less than a fortnight away from selling its millionth copy since its relaunch. If An Audience With... retains its power, look for sales action for Cliff Richard (featured last Saturday) and Diana Ross, the subject of this Saturday's show.

It's the highest new entry to the US album chart this week where it debuts at number 13 but the posthumous Big L album The Big Picture has to settle for a number 122 start here, with sales of just 1,100.

COMPILATIONS

Now That's What I Call Music! 46 enjoys an easy third victory at the top of the compilation chart. The 83,000 plus sales it registered last week proved more than three times as many as runner-up The Best Ibiza Anthems Ever 2K could muster. Now! 46 includes 43 tracks, among them Darude's Sandstorm, Shania Twain's Don't Be Stupid (You Know I Love You) and next week's number one single Groovejet (If This Ain't Love) by Spiller. It has sold more than 459,000 copies in the last three weeks but its sales are falling unusually rapidly after an admittedly fabulous start, with a 35% decline on week two followed by a 44% dip last week. Its sales last week were fewer than last year's Now! 43 managed on its third week (86,000) although its sales for the whole three week period are an impressive 13% ahead of the pace of Now! 43. Compared to 1998's Now! 40, they're up 36%. The rapid progress of Now! 46 suggests that the series has recovered from the minor blip represented by Now! 45, which continues to lag 5% behind the pace of its 1999 counterpart, Now! 42.

Earlier this year, Ayia Napa themed compilations were challenging Ibiza for prominence and success but the Ibiza albums continue to pour out and remain dominant. In addition to The Best Ibiza Anthems Ever 2K at number two and Ibiza Euphoria, which is this week's highest new entry at number four, there are seven more Ibiza albums in the Top 50, compared to just three linked to Ayia Napa.
