THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

While Madonna's Music debuts at number one, every record in last week's Top 10 moves down one place to accommodate her arrival. For the entire Top 10 to move in convoy like this is unprecedented in chart history, as is the fact that Music is the 12th number one in as many weeks. This sequence began on 17 June, when Sonique's It Feels So Good was number one for the third and last time. Since then, singles by Black Legend, Kylie Minogue, Eminem, The Corrs, Ronan Keating, Five & Queen, Craig David, Robbie Williams, Melanie C and Spiller have all taken turns at the top.

Madonna's success crowns an incredible August for her. In successive weeks she has given birth to Rocco, celebrated her 42nd birthday and topped the chart. Established as the number one female of all-time, it is interesting to note that Madonna's 19th birthday was on the day that the number one male of all-time, Elvis Presley, died.

Madonna aside, the highest new entry this

SINGLE FACTFILE

Madonna becomes the first female solo artist to score 10 number ones, with Music winning a close chart battle with Spiller's Groovejet to become her second chart topper of the year. American Pie sold just less than 140,000 when it debuted at number one in March. Music sold a more modest 115,000 last week to win a close battle with Groovejet by a margin of just 1,006. Madonna has only scored back-to-back number ones twice before in her 51-hit career, most recently in 1987. Her tally of number one hits is twice as many as any other female soloist (runner-up Kylie Minogue having had just five solo number ones) although Geri Halliwell and Melanie C have both had 10 number one hits, including their solo and Spice Girls hits. The only artists with more number ones than Madonna are the Beatles and Elvis Presley (17 apiece) and Cliff Richard (10).

week is School's Out by Daphne & Celeste. The teenage duo's cover of Alice Cooper's introductory hit debuts at number 12 exactly

28 years after Cooper's single was number one. School's Out is Daphne & Celeste's third Top 20 hit of the year, following their number eight debut Ooh Stick You in February and U.G.L.Y., a number 18 hit in June. Daphne & Celeste are the first of 2000's new intake to register three Top 20 hits. Madasun could have emulated them, but their third single, Feel Good, debuts at a disappointing number 29 this week despite being TV-advertised. Madasun's first two singles - Don't You Worry and Walking On Water - both reached number 14 earlier this year. U.G.L.Y. is still on the chart after 12 weeks, and has climbed in each of the last two, moving 75-51 last week to become the biggest climber of 2000, and improving further to number 48 this week.

Lonestar's Amazed slides seven places to number 64 on its 21st chart week. The single, which has sold more than 183,000 copies without climbing higher than number 21, is just two weeks away from equalling the all-time record for a non-Top 20 hit: Evelyn Champagne King's Shame spent 23 weeks in the Top 75 in 1978 without ever advancing beyond number 39.

by ALAN JONES

Craig David lost his singles title to Robbie Williams four weeks ago, and must be resigned to suffering a similar fate on the album chart next week, when Williams's Sing When You're Winning will undoubtedly debut in pole position. David enjoys his second week on top with Born To Do It, which did brisk trade again last week, selling nearly 123,000 copies to add to its first week tally of 225,000. Despite a 46% decline in sales week-on-week, David easily retains the number one position ahead of Ronan Keating's Ronan, which Born To Do It outsold by a margin of almost three to one.

Melanie C's surge from 17-4 with Northern Star relegates Eminem's The Marshall Mathers LP to number five – incredibly the lowest position of its 14-week chart career. The album has sold quicker than any album in rap's UK chart history, with more than 677,000 buyers to date.

Although their albums appear at lengthy intervals compared to sixties acts like the

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Melanie C's Northern Star album soars 17-4 this week to reach its highest position yet, thanks to a week-on-week increase in sales of 142%. The album, which was released last October, initially peaked at number 10, and climbed to number five in April. Its latest surge is due to the release last week of an updated version of Northern Star featuring the singles mixes of Never Be The Same Again and I Turn To You. As a result, the album sold nearly 27,000 copies last week, increasing its overall sales to more than 460,000, and has overtaken sales of former Spice Girl, Geri Halliwell's Schizophonic album, which has sold more than 452,000 copies to date but which is now selling fewer than 1,000 copies a week. Meanwhile, Melanie has now sold more than 650,000 singles this year, a total beaten only by Craig David, Britney Spears and All Saints.

COMPILATIONS

Artist album sales declined 8% last week but the compilation sector was buoyant again, with six new entries to the Top 10 boosting sales by nearly 20%. The newcomers are Fantastic 80s – Go For It (number 10), Space (number eight), Pure R&B (number seven), Breakdown – The Very Best Of Euphoric Dance (number four), The Best Dance Album In The World Ever! 10 (number three) and The Ibiza Annual – Summer 2000, which brings to an end the supremacy of Now That's What I Call Music! 46 by debuting at number one.

The Ibiza Annual – Summer 2000 sold just over 50,000 copies last week, nearly 2,000 more than Now! 46. It is the latest in a long line of chart toppers for the Ministry Of Sound label, and has numerous parallels with last year's Ibiza Annual 99.

Both albums were mixed by Tall Paul and Judge Jules, were released exactly a year apart, sold a shade more than 50,000 copies on their first week in the shops and ended a four-week reign by a Now! album (Now! 43 in the case of Ibiza Annual 99). The current Ibiza Annual includes hits like Groovejet (If This Ain't Love) by Spiller, Bang by Robbie Rivera presents Rhythm Bangers, When The World Is Running Down by Different Gear Vs. The Police, Time To Burn by Storm and You See The Trouble With Me by Black Legend. It also includes future hits like You Take My Breath Away by SuReal and Atlantis Vs. Avatar's Fiji. Despite losing pole position, Now! 46 has sold 566,000 copies in five weeks, putting it 10.6% ahead of the pace set by Now! 43 in the same period last year.
