THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

9 SEPTEMBER 2000

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

A1's Take On Me becomes the 13th different number one in as many weeks and the 30th number one of the year, forcing Madonna to cede pole position with Music, which was trailing the A1 hit all week, and ended up well behind, after selling 65,000 copies. Take On Me is A1's fifth hit in only 14 months – and Lolly is more than matching that pace, taking a week less than them to reach the same target. Her latest hit, Girls Just Wanna Have Fun, looks like being her least successful, however, debuting this week at number 14, three notches down on her last single and lowest charting hit to date, Per Sempre Amore (Forever In Love).

Channel 4's fledgling record label, Channel 4 Music, registers its biggest hit to date, with Element Four (Andy Gray and Paul Oakenfold) debuting at number four with the theme to TV's Big Brother. While that is not as big a feat as the German Big Brother theme Grosser Bruder, which topped the German chart for several weeks earlier this year for Zlatko and Jurgen, it is still the highest position for a TV theme since Teletubbies Say Eh-Oh topped the chart in 1997.

Bon Jovi have managed to have consecutive Top 10 hits for the first time since 1995, following up the number three

SINGLE FACTFILE

Number ones continue to accrue at an unprecedented rate, with this week's chart topper being A1's Take On Me, a cover version of the number two hit by a previous generation boy band, A-Ha, back in 1985. At its peak, the A-Ha original – which was stuck behind Jennifer Rush's The Power Of Love – sold more than 127,000 copies in a week. A1's version sold a more modest 82,000 last week to become their first number one. They have had five singles so far, all of them Top 10 hits, and Take On Me's first-week tally is the highest for the group, beating the 65,500 sales which saw Everything/Ready Or Not open at number three last November. One of the 2 CDs of Take On Me includes a Beatles Medley – actually just I Feel Fine and She Loves You – emulating fellow teen group Take That who included a Fab Four tribute on their 1994 number one Everything Changes.

success It's My Life with Say It Isn't So, which debuts at number 10 this week. Thirteen of the group's 28 chart singles have reached the Top 10.

While A1 are the third boy band to top the chart this year (Westlife and Five were the others), girl groups, especially new ones, are finding the going much tougher. Made In London were launched with much fanfare earlier this year, and managed to reach number 15 with their debut hit Dirty Water. Their follow-up Shut Your Mouth falls catastrophically short of even that modest mark this week, debuting at number 74 with sales of just 1,550.

Number one for nine weeks in its original version in 1984, Frankie Goes To Hollywood's Two Tribes last charted in 1994, reaching number 16 in a remix by Fluke. It returns to the Top 20 this week, debuting at number 17 with a new Bon Searle mix, just two months after The Power Of Love – also remixed by Searle – peaked at number six.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Robbie Williams' third solo album Sing When You're Winning sold more copies last week than any album has sold in any week this year with more than 313,000 buyers, putting it narrowly ahead of the 311,000 opening tally returned by Oasis' Standing On The Shoulder Of Giants in March. The last album to sell more copies in a week was Boyzone's By Request, which sold 329,000 copies on its first week in the shops in June of last year.

Sing When You're Winning easily beats the 132,000 first week sale of Williams' last album I've Been Expecting You, and comes in nearly 300,000 sales ahead of the introductory tally of his debut solo album Life Thru A Lens, which opened in 11th position with a paltry 14,500 sales in October 1997 but eventually reached number one after 28 weeks. Along with three solo number ones, he also featured on three Take That chart toppers.

The 10th album to enter the chart at number one this year, Robbie Williams' Sing When You're Winning effortlessly dethrones Craig David's Born To Do It, its opening sales tally of more than 313,000 being more than three times as many as Born To Do It's 88,000 showing. Williams' latest triumph occurs four weeks after his Rock DJ single similarly dethroned David's 7 Days atop the singles chart.

Sing When You're Winning actually sold more copies than the rest of the Top 10 put together last week – a rare feat – and single-handedly accounted for a sixth of the artist album market. And, as if that is not enough, Williams' two previous albums also upped their sales enormously. I've Been Expecting You jumps 43-21 and Life Thru A Lens charges 100-24 with increases of 146% and 466% week-on-week, primarily because Woolworths was offering them for £4.99 apiece to punters who bought Sing When You're Winning. If Sing When You're Winning manages to emulate I've Been Expecting You, it will be a very big album indeed. I've Been Expecting You managed to stay in the Top 10 for 28 weeks after its release, and did not dip out of the Top 75 for the first time until April, after 77 consecutive appearances. Even though it took seven months to reach number one, Life Thru A Lens had an even more impressive Top 10 career, spending 40 weeks in a row in the top tier once it arrived there. Sales of both albums offer a stiff target for Sing When You're Winning to aim for – I've Been Expecting You is on 2,245,000 sales and Life Thru A Lens is on 1,785,000.

Williams aside, the only new entry to the Top 50 comes from much vaunted teenaged Irish guitar group JJ72, whose self-titled Lakota album sold nearly 13,000 copies last week to debut at number 16. It comes just three weeks after their first hit single Oxygen reached number 23, and a fortnight after their acclaimed appearance at the Reading/Leeds festival.

She has already had more hit albums than any other woman apart from Diana Ross, and Shirley Bassey is back in the Top 75 for the first time in four years with The Remix Album – Diamonds Are Forever, debuting at number 62.

COMPILATIONS

The Ministry Of Sound record label was launched in 1995, and claimed its first number one in 1998 with The Ibiza Annual. It went on to have five more number ones the following year, and has already claimed a further five in 2000 – Clubbers' Guide To...2000 (February), Rewind – The Sound Of UK Garage (February), Dance Nation – Tall Paul/Brandon Block (April), Clubbers' Guide To...Ibiza Summer 2000 (June) and the latest Ibiza Annual, mixed by Judge Jules and Tall Paul. The latter album was erroneously credited in this column with sales of more than 50,000 last week, putting it on a par with the 1999 edition but it actually sold a massive 80,000 copies on its first week in the shops, putting it nearly 60% ahead of the pace of its 1999 equivalent. It sold nearly as many again last week, with a further 74,000 copies crossing the counter, nearly twice as many as runner-up Now That's What I Call Music! 46. Aside from Now! 45 and Now! 46, The Ibiza Annual has sold more copies in its first fortnight on the shelves than any other compilation this year. Among the hit tracks which have elevated it to these heights are The Power Of Love by Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Are You Ready To Party by The Shrink and You See The Trouble With Me by Black Legend.

Even though The Ibiza Annual is selling remarkably well, and sales in the compilation sector are up by 1.3% thanks to six new entries in the Top 20, the sector overall accounted for only 23.9% of total album sales last week, as Robbie Williams' album gave the artist sector a massive boost.
