CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

The second number one in a row to extend its stay at the top to two weeks, Mariah Carey and Westlife's Against All Odds sold a modest 78,500 copies last week to retain pole position, while Zombie Nation's Kernkraft 400 is still runner-up, after shifting a further 55,000 copies. Of the new intake, the most successful is hot UK garage act the Archtechs' Body Groove single, which sold nearly 53,000 copies to debut at number three.

Meanwhile, one of the biggest new garage acts of the year, DJ Luck & MC Neat, land their third consecutive hit with Ain't No Stoppin' Us in at number eight. They previously reached number 11 with their debut A Little Bit Of Luck and number five with Masterblaster 2000. Don't get the idea that all garage acts are in the ascendancy, however. Such is definitely not the case for Sweet Female Attitude, who reached number two and sold more than 271,000 copies of their debut hit Flowers but who struggle to a number 43 debut with their follow-up, 8 Days A Week, which sold fewer than 6,000 copies last week. On the same day they made their Returning from the lowpoint of her career to date – the number 14 placing earned by her cover of Cameo's Word Up last year – Melanie B earns a number four placing with Tell Me. Its success means that all past and present members of the Spice Girls have landed top five hits outside of the group in the last year. Tell Me sold nearly 45,000 copies last week, and would surely have sold even more had it been given more support from radio. It was just beginning to pick up when the Spice Girls' new single Holler was serviced, and has suffered as a result, although it does climb 45-32 this week with stations finally accommodating it while dropping Melanie C's I Turn To You and Victoria Beckham's Out Of Your Mind from the playlists. Tell Me was co-written by Rodney Jerkins, for whom it is the eighth UK hit to date – with Holler sure to be his ninth.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

same day as 8 Days A Week, and is also something of a disappointment. It enters the chart this week at number 55, with only 3,000 copies sold. Amazed reached number 21, spent 22 weeks in the Top 75 and has sold more than 188,000 copies.

The Beautiful South score their first hit of the year, and their 24th it total, debuting at number 22 with Closer Than Most. Their 19th Top 40 success, it represents a turnaround in form from their last single, 1999's The Table, which peaked at number 47. Closer Than Most is the first single from the band's upcoming album Painting It Red.

There are two climbers in the Top 40 but both are records which improve their position by chance. Madonna's former number one Music recovers 14-13 despite a 14% decline in sales week-on-week, while newcomer Anastacia's debut hit I'm Outta Love improves 7-6 with a 15% dip in sales. Overall singles sales are off less than 4%, so both records are lucky to climb.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Madonna's Music spends its second week at number one, following up its 152,000 first week sales with a fine second week tally of more than 84,000 – marginally less than the combined totals of EMI's Kylie Minogue and Robbie Williams, who follow at two and three, both with sales of approximately 43,000.

Aside from Minogue, three other artists have Top 10 debuts this week – Mark Knopfler, David Bowie and Gomez. Former Dire Straits leader Knopfler lands his highest placing outside of the group with Sailing To Philadelphia in at number four with sales of more than 31,000, while fellow veteran David Bowie's triple CD Bowie At The Beeb – collecting together vintage sessions from 1968 to 1972 and some new material specially recorded less than three months ago – earns a number seven debut with sales of nearly 22,000. Meanwhile, Abandoned Shopping Trolley Hotline, Gomez's third album in two-and-a-half years, debuts at number 10

Home to the number one hit Spinning Around, the number two follow-up On A Night Like This and the upcoming smash duet with Robbie Williams, Kylie Minogue's Light Years album was obviously going to mark a major resurgence in the Aussie's career. Although it could not topple Madonna's Music, Light Years makes a fine debut at number two, with sales of more than 43,000 copies. Minogue's last album of new material, 1998's Kylie Minogue LP, debuted at number 10, with first week sales of just 15,500. It spent only four weeks in the Top 75 before disappearing for good and has still to sell as many copies as Light Years sold last week alone. Minogue has had three number one albums, most recently Kylie's Greatest Hits in 1992. Light Years is her highest charting album of new material since Enjoy Yourself in 1989.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

gains its highest chart placing for 22 years, as it surges to number 20 on the chart. The reason is that it is one of the featured titles in the latest HMV sale, with a tempting price tag of £2.99, which attracted nearly 12,500 buyers from when the sale started on Thursday morning to close of business on Saturday. Following close behind, Talking Heads' Stop Making Sense's number 24 placing is the highest of its career. It is also priced at £2.99 in the sale.

Proving you can't keep a good song down, covers of the Beatles' Here, There & Everywhere and Simon & Garfunkel's Bridge Over Troubled Water are included on albums which make their chart debuts this week. Simon & Garfunkel's hit is included on Russell Watson's Decca album The Voice, which debuts at number 13, while the former is on Naturally by Ian Moor – 'Champion Of Champions' on Stars In Their Eyes for his uncanny impersonation of Chris De Burgh – which debuts at number 38.

COMPILATIONS

Dance music continues its recent lock on the compilation chart summit, with Trance Nation 4 debuting in pole position after selling nearly 36,000 copies last week. The Ministry Of Sound compilation mixed by transceimeister Ferry Corsten includes tracks by artists like Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Darude, York and Surreal and is the sixth Ministry Of Sound album to top the chart so far this year, on top of the four number ones they had in 1999 and the two they secured in 1998. This year's winners for the label are Clubber's Guide To 2000, Rewind – The Sound Of UK Garage, Dance Nation, Clubber's Guide To Ibiza and The Ibiza Album – Summer 2000. Trance Nation 4 is the third album in the Trance Nation series to reach number one, with only Trance Nation 3 – which was released in the third week of Now That's What I Call Music! 45's reign and consequently had to settle for a number two slot – failing to reach the summit. First week sales for the other three albums are: Trance Nation 1 – 40,500, Trance Nation 2 – 29,000, Trance Nation 3 – 29,000. It was exactly a year ago that Trance Nation 2 debuted at number one, so it's valid to compare sales with that of Trance Nation 4, and the latter album is ahead by nearly 23% at this early stage.

Debating at number two behind Trance Nation 4, Pepsi Chart 2001 sold nearly 30,000 copies and is the first of this year's albums to bear a 2001 tag, although, of course, it contains only old hits. Among the 42 tracks on the double CD are 15 which have topped the Pepsi Chart.
