MUSIC WEEK 21 OCTOBER 2000

THE OFFICIAL UK CHART SINGLES

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

U2 grab pole position for the fourth time in their career, courtesy of Beautiful Day, the introductory single from their new album All That You Can't Leave Behind. The group previously topped the chart with Desire (1988), The Fly (1991) and Discotheque (1997). Beautiful Day sold less than 65,500 units last week, compared with Discotheque's first-week tally of nearly 125,000, while their last single Sweetest Thing opened at number three with sales of 111,000. Beautiful Day is the sixth number one of the year by an Irish act (Westlife have had three, The Corrs and Ronan Keating one apiece) and puts U2 in joint third place for number ones among Irish acts, behind Westlife and Boyzone (six apiece) and equal with *B*Witched*. U2 are the third act to have number ones in the Eighties, Nineties and Zeroes, following Madonna and Kylie Minogue.

Sales at the top of the singles chart are severely depressed for the second week in a row, slipping below the 70,000 mark for only the third time this year. In the end, U2's opening tally of 65,471 sales was more than enough to see off the challenge of Kids, the Robbie Williams & Kylie Minogue duet, which opens its account with a number two placing and sales of 56,449. The Williams/Minogue duet is the second top two hit from Williams' Sing When You're Winning album and the third from Minogue's Light Years album. It continues Minogue's spectacular comeback which has seen her register a number one single and two number twos in less than four months. The last time she had three Top Two hits in a row was way back in 1988/89.

Many artists, new and established, suffer setbacks this week, with exceedingly modest debuts. Girl groups Alice Deejay and Atomic Kitten both reached the Top 10 with their first three hits and were expecting to do so again with their new singles but Alice Deejay have to settle for a number 16 debut with The Lonely One, while Atomic Kitten debut at number 20 with Follow Me. Meanwhile, female R&B stars

Jamella and Kelis also hit trouble, failing to reach the Top 40 with their latest singles. Jamella reached number five with Money and number 11 with Call Me earlier this year while Kelis reached number four with Caught Out There and number 19 with Good Stuff. This week, Jamella's Boy Next Door debuts at number 42, while Kelis is nine places further behind with Get Along Without You. Nu Generation also falter. They reached number eight with In Your Arms (Rescue Me) but even radio advertising cannot help their follow-up Nowhere To Run to debut higher than number 66. RCA might also have expected better things from the first single from Big Brother housemate Nichola Holt. The programme attracted up to 10m viewers, and Element Four's Big Brother theme has sold nearly 150,000, but Holt's single The Game debuts at number 27 with just 1,500 buyers. Finally, welcome back to Erasure, whose first single in three-and-a-half years, Freedom, debuts at number 27. While it extends their run of Top 40 hits to 26, it is their smallest hit since their introductory single Who Needs Love Like That reached number 58 in 1985.

by ALAN JONES

Radiohead's Kid A remains at number one on the album chart, with a second-week tally of nearly 42,000, representing an unusually steep 68% decline on its first-week sales of 131,500. In remaining at number one – albeit with the help of the Beautiful South's faulty stock problem – they become only the third British act to simultaneously top the UK and US album chart in the past 10 years, the others being the Prodigy who did so in 1997 with The Fat Of The Land and Pink Floyd in 1994 with The Division Bell. Several other acts have missed out by one week, among them The Beatles and Depeche Mode, not least because if a record is simultaneously released in the UK and the US, it must be number one in the UK in its second week to do the double, as the SoundScan/Billboard album chart takes several days longer to translate sales into a chart position.

Gaining strength throughout the week, particularly after the screening of an ITV documentary to mark his 60th birthday, Cliff

While stretching their run of consecutive Top 10 albums to a perfect eight out of eight, The Beautiful South fall to register their fourth straight number one – at least for the time being. The Go! Discs band's latest album Painting It Red is another whimsical collection of songs written by group members Paul Heaton and Dave Rotheray, and seemed to be on course to top the chart but was deflected from its aim by the recall of more than 100,000 copies of the album which were shipped with a 17-track CD instead of the 19 tracks promised on the sleeve. Although their record company worked hard to rectify the problem the consequent loss of sales probably cost them dear, as Painting It Red ended up selling nearly 38,400 units, thus falling only 3,500 short of the number required for it to dethrone Radiohead's Kid A.

SALES UPDATE

Richard's The Whole Story – His Greatest Hits eventually sold nearly 26,500 units to debut at number seven. That means that it is already

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

Richard's highest-charting album since his last "best of", The Hit List, reached number three in 1994.

Had he lived, John Lennon would have celebrated his 60th birthday five days before Cliff Richard, and EMI marked the date by releasing expanded versions of his first solo album (Plastic Ono Band) and his last (Double Fantasy). Sales of both were disappointing, with Double Fantasy being the best received, although sales of only 1,700 units earn the former number one album a number 110 debut. Sales of the Lennon Legend compilation were down, with the album dipping 51-80.

Placebo complete a hat trick of Top 10 albums, debuting at number six with Black Market Music, which sold just over 30,000 units last week. They reached number five with their self-titled debut in 1997, and number seven with Without You I'm Nothing in 1998.

Melanie C is the third original member of the Spice Girls to deliver a solo album, but has to settle for a number 28 debut for Hot, which sold fewer than 7,500 units last week. Geri Halliwell's Schizophonic and Mel C's Northern Star albums both reached number four.

COMPILATIONS

Taking pole position for the third week in a row, the Ministry Of Sound's Trance Nation 4 sold another 23,725 units last week. The album, which contains two CDs' worth of material mixed by Ferry Corsten, includes tracks by artists such as Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Darude, York and Sireal, fought off a determined challenge from Pepsi Chart 2001, which is its runner-up for the third week in a row, and came closer to overtaking it than ever before, the gap between the two closing to just 108 sales. Thus far, Trance Nation 4 has sold more than 92,500 units, while Pepsi Chart 2001 has sold nearly 82,000.

The latest successful British film, Billy Elliott tells the story of a boy's passion for ballet, and has been packing them in at the cinema for three weeks. The soundtrack album debuts at number 10 on the compilation chart this week with sales of more than 5,000, three times as many as the number two soundtrack album, O Brother Where Art Thou. The Billy Elliott album features six T Rex tracks, among them I Love To Boogie and Get It On, plus two other oldies (A Town Called Malice by The Jam and London Calling by The Clash) plus incidental music and a new song by Eagle-Eye Cherry and Stephen Gately's current single I Believe.

Number six on the compilation chart for the fourth straight week, the former number one album Now That's What I Call Music! 46 is showing impressive legs. On its 12th week in the chart, it will sell its 700,000th unit today (Monday), having outsold Now! 45 (668,000) to become the number one compilation of the year – although Now! 47, due soon, will doubtless ruin that record.
