CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Registering their ninth number one from 10 singles, the Spice Girls' double header Holler/Let Love Lead The Way helped to bring some welcome relief to the previously depressed singles market last week. The record sold more than 106,000 copies to become the first number one for five weeks to sell more than 100,000 copies, and romped to an easy victory. First week sales for the Spice Girls' singles make impressive reading, their previous nine singles performing as follows: Wannabe – 71,000, Stop – 115,000, Who Do You Think You Are/Mama – 248,000, Too Much – 252,000, Viva Forever – 278,000, Spice Up Your Life – 321,000, Say You'll Be There – 348,000, Goodbye – 380,000 and 2 Become 1 – 429,000. They are now fourth equal in the all-time list of acts with most number ones, alongside Abba. Ahead lie only Cliff Richard (14 number ones), Elvis Presley and the Beatles (17 each).

The singles market perked up considerably last week, with the arrival in the marketplace of several hot new singles happily coinciding with the half-term holiday to push overall sales up by more than 22%. All of the top three singles are new entries, with the Spice Girls' Holler/Let Love Lead The Way taking pole position with sales of more than 106,000, some 62% ahead of runner-up Martine McCutcheon's I'm Over You (65,500 sales). Ricky Martin fills third place with She Bangs, which also showed its muscle by selling more than 60,000 copies.

The Baha Men were worst affected by the influx of new records, their Who Let The Dogs Out single slipping 2-4 despite displaying spectacular 75% growth. Even Steps, who fall 1-5 with Stomp, saw an insignificant 9% decrease in sales week-on-week.

Several other records have even smaller declines, while the current Top 40 hits by Anastacia, Eminem, Madonna and S Club 7 all post increases in sales, despite enjoying mixed fortunes in terms of their chart performance.

Gabrielle's latest single Should I Stay

debuts at number 13, an appropriate position for what is her 13th hit. It is slightly unlucky for her too, bringing to an end a run of five straight Top 10 hits, but it is still a decent placing for what is the fourth hit from her Rise album, bearing in mind the album has sold more than 700,000 copies. The previous hits from the album are Sunshine (number nine), the chart-topping title track and When A Woman (number six).

Meanwhile, Coldplay enjoy their third hit with Trouble, which debuts at number 10. The highest-profile new rock act of the year, they were nominated for the Mercury Music Prize, are still in the running for three Q awards, and wound up a highly-acclaimed sell-out tour last Monday. Small wonder then that their debut album Parachutes – which has sold more than 425,000 copies in less than four months – surges 9-3 on the album chart, with a week-on-week increase in sales of nearly 51%. Trouble sold nearly 22,000 copies on its first week in the shops and continues the group's string of single word hits, following the success of Shiver (35) and Yellow (four).

by ALAN JONES

You know Christmas is getting near when the four highest new entries to the charts are retrospectives. That is what happens this week, with Texas' The Greatest Hits debuting at number one, UB40's The Very Best Of - 1980-2000 in at number seven, Lenny Kravitz's Greatest Hits in at number 12 and Freddie Mercury's Solo in at number 13.

The Texas album obviously benefits from pent-up demand for a best of by the group but the UB40 success is also impressive, given the fact that they have already had three well received compilations of their work. The latest obviously has the extra angle of celebrating the group's 20 successful years, but as long ago as 1982 The Singles Album reached number 17 for the group, even though it contained but three hits. A more comprehensive The Best Of UB40 - Volume One climbed to number three in 1987, while the group's ongoing string of hits necessitated The Best Of UB40 - Volume Two, which reached number 12 in 1995. The current album

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Nearly 12 years after their chart debut with I Don't Want A Lover, and with an impressive tally of 20 hit singles under their belt, Texas collect their career highlights together on their first compilation. The Greatest Hits sold more than 147,000 copies on its first week in the shops, outpacing the number two album, All Saints' Saints & Sinners by a margin of nearly three to one. The Greatest Hits - which contains three new tracks, including the current single In Demand - is the third Texas album in a row to reach number one and is selling at a faster pace than the other two. White On Blonde debuted at number one in February 1997, with 47,000 sales, while The Hush's top-ranking May 1999 debut came with sales of 92,000. As well as the regular edition of The Greatest Hits, there is a limited double CD edition which adds remixes and videos.

MARKET REPORT

contains the highlights from both of those and has so far sold 26,000 copies. Between 1988 and 1994, Eraseur put together a remarkable string of five consecutive number one albums, a run which came to an end when their self-titled 1995 album peaked at number 14. They appeared to have recovered some ground when Cowboy reached number 10 in 1997 but their follow-up Loveboat debuts at number 45 this week with sales of just under 6,000.

By contrast, their Mute Records labelmate Moby goes from strength to strength. His Play album is the biggest seller of the year, and holds at 14 this week, with a further 18,000 sales bringing its overall tally to 1,158,000. Meanwhile, a double album version of Play, adding 11 B-sides on a second CD, sold more than 11,000 copies last week and debuts at 24. If the two issues of Play could be added together for chart purposes, they would rank number five this week. (Incidentally, the reason they can't be combined is that for CIN to do so, 80% of the constituent tracks of the records must be common to both. Although all 18 tracks on Play are also on Play/The B Sides, the 11 extra tracks on the latter mean that only 63% of its contents (18 tracks out of 29) are on the original album.

COMPILATIONS

The compilation market really comes into its own as Christmas approaches with sales not only reaching their highest level in absolute terms but also in terms of the percentage of the market which they constitute. As October gives way to November, it is neither a surprise nor a coincidence to find sales of compilations soaring by 20% week-on-week (compared to a 12% hike in terms of units sold) while the top three albums are all new entries.

Debuting at number three, with more than 18,500 buyers last week, the latest mix album by DJ Luck & MC Neat, Kiss Garage Presents. At number two, Huge Hits 2000 is the latest in the Warner/BMG/Sony series which is second only in terms of units sold to the EMI/Virgin/Universal juggernaut Now! - and it is a Now! album which takes pride of place this week in the form of Now! Dance 2001, which sold a magnificent out-of-the-box tally of nearly 53,500 copies last week, compared to Huge Hits 2000's opening tally of more than 32,000. Now! Dance 2001 is the 12th in the series to reach number one - a series which started in 1985, and which was originally of varying frequency, with some years bringing no albums, others two or more. For the past four years it has been at the rate of one a year, however. The current success emulates Now! Dance 2000, which debuted at number one exactly a year ago, with first week sales in excess of 44,000 - a total which Now! Dance 2001 exceeds by more than 20%. Now! Dance 2001 includes 43 tracks, spread across two albums, among them the Spice Girls' current number one Holler.
