THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

3 FEBRUARY 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Despite registering fewer sales last week than any number one single for more than a year, Limp Bizkit's Rollin' is the nation's choice for the second week in a row. The single sold 47,435 copies – an insignificant 4% decline over its debut week but fewer than any number one since Westlife's I Have A Dream/Seasons In The Sun sold 34,739 copies in its fourth and last week in pole position in January 2000. Fewer than 15% of the last 50 chart toppers have managed to spend more than one week at number one, so although Limp Bizkit's sales are low, it is a notable achievement, particularly as their Chocolate Starfish And The Hot Dog Flavored Water is simultaneously the number one album.

Although there is no change at the top, there's a massive shake-up in the rest of the singles chart, with half of the Top 20 made up of new entries. The last time there were more was nearly five years ago, on 1 June 1996, when 11 singles made their debut in the Top

20. Since then, and before this week, we have had 10 new entries on no fewer than 11 occasions, most recently on 17 June last

SINGLE FACTFILE

Three years ago this week, Usher knocked Oasis off the top of the singles chart with You Make Me Wanna. The follow-up Nice & Slow was a lesser hit reaching number 24, since when the young R&B singer has been silent – until now. His new single Pop Ya Collar isn't strong enough to unseat Limp Bizkit, but still sold a creditable 40,000 copies last week to secure runners-up position. It is the first single from the 22 year old's upcoming album All About U, which is due imminently. Co-written by Usher, with Mr & Mrs Briggs, aka Kevin Shak'spear Briggs and Kandl of Don't Think I'm Not fame, Pop Ya Collar was conspicuously less successful in America when released there last year, peaking at number 60 on the Hot 100 and number 25 on the R&B chart. Limp Bizkit's Rollin' was also under-appreciated in America, reaching only number 65.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

with just three (Martine McCutcheon, Anastacia and Bon) out of 19 qualifying as mainstream pop records (all with dance mixes), and no rockers in sight.

The highest new entries come from Usher at number two with Pop Ya Collar and Dr Dre, whose The Next Episode collaboration with Snoop Dogg debuts at three. It is the third Top 10 single from Dre's 2001 album, following Still Dre (six) and Forgot About Dre (seven, with Eminem). Dre is only the third black US rapper to take three Top 10 singles off an album, following the lead of MC Hammer and Will Smith. 2001 has been climbing the chart for several weeks as airplay for The Next Episode has increased, and the release of the single spurs it to jump 20-16 this week.

Despite the massive influx of new entries, Toploader's Dancing In The Moonlight (number 21 for three weeks) manages to rise to 17 this week, while the group's album Onka's Big Moka climbs 7-4 to reach the highest position of its nine-month life.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Although unable to emulate the number one position earned last month by her current single Love Don't Cost A Thing, Jennifer Lopez's second album, J.Lo debuts at number two, after selling more than 27,500 copies. After two days on release it was the nation's best-selling album but it could not maintain that position, eventually falling some 45% behind Limp Bizkit's Chocolate Starfish And The Hot Dog Flavored Water. Lopez's debut album On The 6 - which contains the hits If You Had My Love, Waiting For Tonight and Feel'N So Good - debuted at number 14 in July 1999, selling 10,000 copies in its first week. It never climbed any higher but has so far sold a grand total of 203,000 copies. In America, where Love Don't Cost A Thing surprisingly slips 4-5 after climbing 10-4 last week, J.Lo is expected to debut at number one when the new album chart is announced on Wednesday.

While their record Rollin' continues to be the number one single, Limp Bizkit's Chocolate Starfish And The Hot Dog Flavored Water surges to the top of the album chart, making the act the first to simultaneously lead both lists since August 1999, when Ronan Keating topped the singles chart with When You Say Nothing At All and the albums chart as a member of Boyzone with By Request.

Chocolate Starfish's sales increased by 65% last week (compared to a 7% increase for the market as a whole, the first upturn since Christmas), with more than 40,000 buyers placing it at number one for the first time while increasing its overall sales tally to more than 306,000. The album was the 69th biggest seller of 2000 and is already number five for 2001 with 99,000 sales this year, trailing the Beatles' 1 and Texas' The Greatest Hits (107,000 apiece). Coldplay's Parachutes (104,000) and Eminem's The Marshall Mathers LP (100,000).

Limp Bizkit's fellow rap/rockers Linkin Park and Papa Roach also continue their upwards trajectories, moving 21-18 and 33-19 with Hybrid Theory and Infest, respectively. A fourth group from the genre, The Offspring, climb 56-55 with Conspiracy Of One.

Anastacia's Not That Kind album has sprinted 49 places in the past fortnight and now rests at number six. The album - which includes the number six smash I'm Outta Love - has responded in spectacular style to the airplay given to the title track (a number 11 debut on the singles chart this week), climbing 55-24-6. It sold more than 20,000 copies last week to take its overall sales past 90,000.

Another album making impressive progress is Outkast's Stankonia, which has moved 60-29-14 since making its chart debut a fortnight ago, even edging past fellow LaFace/Arista R&B star Pink's debut album Can't Take Me Home, which improves 28-25 this week, having now given birth to three Top 10 singles. The difference is Outkast's album has spawned only one single to date (Bombs Over Baghdad, which peaked at 61 just before Christmas), although the forthcoming smash Ms Jackson is a current Radio One favourite, with 26 spins last week alone.

COMPILATIONS

After two weeks at the top of the compilations chart, Clubbers' Guide To 2001 slides to number four, being replaced at number one by Breakdown 3 - The Very Best Of Euphoric Dance, the latest in BMG/Telstar's highly successful series. Breakdown 3 contains recent monster hits like Silence by Delerium and Camels by Santos as well as lesser-known cuts like North Pole by Afterburn. It sold more than 19,000 copies last week, a good start in pursuit of the 116,000 sold by Breakdown 1 and the 301,000 sales of Breakdown 2.

Selling just 650 fewer copies than Breakdown 3, Universal's Reloaded 2 debuts at number two, its sales of 18,500 helping the sector to a 7% week-on-week gain, its first increase of the year. Reloaded is closely modelled on the earlier and very successful Shine series, including a similar roster of rock and indie acts, among them Feeder (Buck Rogers), JJ72 (October Swimmer) and Beck (Devil's Haircut). Reloaded 2 also includes the videos of U2's Beautiful Day and the Bloodhound Gang's Ballad Of Chaise Lain.

Now That's What I Call Music 47 ends a nine-week residency in the Top 5 by slipping 3-6. The album was the best-selling compilation of 2000 and is so far the biggest of 2001, with 1.208m buyers last year and a further 76,000 this. Clubbers' Guide To 2001 is number two for 2001 with 62,000 sales since its release.

Finally, although it includes 11 former number one hits, Feels So Good debuts at only number 13 this week, with sales of less than 5,000.
