THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

24 FEBRUARY 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

SINGLE FACTFILE

Number one for the third week in a row, Whole Again by Atomic Kitten is the first single to break the 100,000 sales barrier this year, shifting nearly 102,000 copies last week to bring its cumulative sales to 256,000 (it sold 69,000 copies on its first week on release, and 85,000 in week two). In the next couple of days it will surpass the total sales of all four previous Atomic Kitten singles added together. The introductory Right Now has sold 102,000, while See Ya sold 81,000, Want Your Love sold 72,500 and Follow Me sold 32,000. The current single, co-written and produced by Wise Buddah's Bill Padley and Jim Godfrey, reflects the more 'sophisticated' direction the trio (including new member Jenny Frost) are now pursuing. Like their previous singles, it is included on their debut album Right Now, which is currently being repackaged with new material (see A&R, p10).

Singles sales topped the million mark last week – the first time they have done so this year – and for the second week in a row the top two singles were Atomic Kitten's Whole Again and Teenage Dirtbag by Wheatus. The Atomic Kitten single is the first single to increase its sales for two weeks in a row while at number one since Cliff Richard's Millennium Prayer in December 1999, and overtook Rui da Silva's Touch Me to become the biggest-selling single of 2001 on Sunday. Although Teenage Dirtbag retains runners-up position, its sales slipped last week by nearly 11% to a still healthy 72,500.

Boy band behemoths Backstreet Boys bettered by BBMak: enough alliteration already – the fact is that the Backstreet Boys have registered their 13th straight Top 10 hit with The Call, which debuts at number eight this week, a record for an American group. Meanwhile, BBMak register their first ever Top 10 hit with Back Here, which debut at number five after selling more than 42,500 copies. BBMak's chart entry seems a clear vindication of Telstar's decision to send the band to spend last year attempting to crack the States – where the same release reached number 13 in the US singles chart – following their initial disappointing debut in the UK.

Back Here, written by the band with producer Phil Thornalley, was number one in the Woolworth's chart last week – the fourth week in a row that the store has got its charts prediction badly wrong. It started with misjudgements of two Innocent releases, first by placing Martine McCutcheon's On The Radio at number one on its list when it entered the CIN chart at number seven, and following up by charting Atomic Kitten at number 14 instead of number one.

Dave Lee aka Joey Negro's comfortable clothing and goatee may not give him the appearance of the king of cool, but his disco-derived hits have rained on the chart in a variety of disguises. The latest is Jakatta's American Dream, based around the movie American Beauty, which is this week's highest new entry at number three, beating off a strong challenge from Dido's Here With Me, which debuts behind it at number four.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Although many of the tracks on Roy Orbison's Love Songs album are latter period remakes of his classic sixties hits, the album has become the impressive beneficiary of Valentine's Day gift-giving. The album debuted at number 19 a fortnight ago, then climbed to number 11. It checks in this week at number four to become Orbison's biggest posthumous success since his then current album Mystery Girl reached number two in February 1989, a couple of months after his death. Orbison catalogue has timeless appeal, with some 75,000 of his albums selling last year, including nearly 30,000 copies of a Sony 'best of' entitled Pretty Woman. Love Songs sold more than 28,000 copies last week alone, an 88% increase week-on-week. It was on course to more than double its sales - but like all other Love Songs albums it lost some impetus after Valentine's Day.

Just as Atomic Kitten's Whole Again became the first single to sell more than 100,000 copies in a week in 2001 last week, so No Angel by Dido did likewise on the album chart. And like the Atomic Kitten single, the Dido album increased its sales for the second week in a row on its third week in pole position. No Angel sold more than 101,000 copies last week, an increase of more than 22,000 (28%) over the previous frame, and an especially impressive feat given the fact that the album's first hit single Here With Me sold nearly 63,000 copies and would obviously have cannibalised some of No Angel's potential sales. No Angel has sold more than 430,000 copies to date, and is the biggest seller of 2001, with 325,000 of those sales taking place this year.

Not that Kind by Anastacia continues at number two after registering an almost equally impressive 27% hike in sales. The 48,000 copies it sold last week lift its overall sales past the 200,000 mark. The remainder of the top five increased sales too, all beating the overall expansion in the artist album market of 8%.

An Audience With Ricky Martin was given a very early (6.30pm) slot by ITV a week last Saturday (10th February) and attracted some negative press but it worked like a charm for his album Sound Loaded, which soars 53-14 to beat the number 16 peak it reached on its chart debut last November. The album increased sales by more than 300% last week to 16,000, and has now sold more than 200,000 copies. The self-titled Ricky Martin does even better, soaring 179-62. The 1999 predecessor of Sound Loaded was a number two album and has sold 475,000 copies to date.

Dolly Parton is in town promoting her back-to-basics bluegrass album Little Sparrow, which responds to appearances on Five Live's Nicky Campbell show and TV's Parkinson by fluttering into the Top 75 for the first time, a month after it was released. The album debuts at number 71 and is the Nashville veteran's sixth chart album. Excluding hits compilations though, it's only her second ever chart success, the first being her 1998 MCA release Hungry Again.

COMPILATIONS

The compilation market has enjoyed four weeks of growth, and some 652,500 albums were sold in the sector last week, an increase of 52% over the low level they reached just a month ago. For the second week in a row, the Ministry Of Sound's Chillout Session takes the prize, earning its title by expanding its sales by nearly 60% in the week to more than 49,000. Featuring less than frenetic mixes of favourites like Barber's Adagio For Strings by William Orbit, it also includes tracks by artists who aren't normally associated with dance compilations - Badly Drawn Boy (The Shining) and World Party (Is It Too Late?) among them. In early trading it was comprehensively overwhelmed by the WSM/Universal compilation Passion, which was aimed fairly and squarely at the Valentine's Day gift buying crowd and consequently suffered a slight collapse after the big day. In the week as a whole, however, Passion enjoyed an 80% hike over its previous week's tally, eventually selling more than 46,500 copies, and falling by just 2,500 to match The Chillout Session.

Dreamworks' soundtrack Almost Famous - containing music from the Cameron Crowe movie which follows the fictional adventures of a Rolling Stone journalist - is striking a blow for seventies rock, and climbs 64-40 on the compilation chart, with sales up by 88%. The album's stellar line-up includes Simon & Garfunkel (America), Led Zeppelin (That's The Way) and the Beach Boys (Feel Flows) as well as Stillwater - the bogus band whose fate is intertwined with the journalist's in the movie.
