THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

3 MARCH 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

For the fourth week in a row, Atomic Kitten are number one with Whole Again. The Liverpool band's single continues to strengthen, with sales once again increasing last week. The record sold 69,285 copies when it debuted at number one, 85,295 copies in week two, 101,919 copies in week three and a best-yet 113,090 copies last week. It is the first single to stay at number one for four weeks since Westlife's I Have A

SINGLE FACTFILE

Dream/Seasons In The Sun some 14 months ago, and the first number one to increase sales for three weeks in a row since 1995, when Michael Jackson's Earth Song progressed 116,467-149,549-150,739-261,851. It speaks volumes for the quality of the Kitten single that both the Westlife and Jackson singles were Christmas hits, while Atomic Kitten have managed to build their sales during a respectively flat midwinter market.

Having already thwarted the number one ambitions of U2's Stuck In A Moment You Can't Get Out Of and Teenage Dirtbag by Wheatus, Atomic Kitten's Whole Again now obstructs OutKast's much-fancied Ms. Jackson, which has to settle for runners-up slot after selling more than 85,500 copies last week. Although it is certain to lose pole position next week to It Wasn't Me by Shaggy, the Kittens' four week reign proves that the chart's top slot doesn't have to be an ever-revolving door. It's a measure of their achievement that the only number one hits to reign longer in the last five years are Wannabe by the Spice Girls, Candle In The Wind 1997 by Elton John, It's Like That by Run-DMC Vs. Jason Nevins and Believe by Cher.

Samantha Mumba's impressive start to her singing career continues, with Always Come Back To Your Love becoming her third straight top five hit. Debuting at number three, it follows her number two debut

Gotta Tell You and the number five follow-up Body II Body. Despite her singles success, Mumba's debut album only topped the 60,000 sales mark last week, although it has been making excellent progress in the last few weeks, climbing 148-110-77-59.

Shooting for their third consecutive number one single from their album The A List, A1 have to settle for a number six debut with No More. The record gives the group its seventh straight Top 10 hit in just 19 months. Meanwhile, Dane Bowers has shed his surname and makes his solo chart debut with Shut Up... And Forget About It at number nine. It's three years to the week since Dane first charted as a member of Another Level. He's also starred on hits by the Trueteppers, and has already chalked up 10 Top 10 hits.

The first Westlife single not to reach number one, What Makes A Man has been making bizarre progress recently, first as a result of price discounting in Woolworth's and now as a combination of school half-term holidays and the band's massive stadium tour re-ignite its potential. In the last few weeks the record has moved 31-38-29-17-24-17.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Despite having just one hit single to their credit to date, Wheatas are this week's highest album chart newcomers, entering at number seven with their self-titled debut. The album, which reached number 76 in America last autumn, sold more than 19,500 copies here last week, spurred on by the introductory hit single Teenage Dirtbag, which has sold 223,000 copies in the last three weeks. Wheatas are nothing if not succinct, fitting the 10 tracks on their debut album into less than 34 minutes, making it the shortest album in the chart, with a playing time less than half those of many of its competitors, including Dr Dre's 2001, Eminem's Marshall Mathers LP and the Beatles' 1. Given its brevity, it is surprising the album doesn't contain I'd Never Write A Song About You, a track on the Dirtbag single which would have added a further 3.38 minutes.

Girl Power: With Dido enjoying her fourth straight week at number one with No Angel, Anastacia's Not That Kind holding firm in runners-up position for the third week in a row, and the late Eva Cassidy exploding 18-3 with Songbird, female solo artists rule the top three for the first time since 21 October 1989, when Kylie Minogue's Enjoy Yourself, Tracy Chapman's Crossroads and Tina Turner's Foreign Affair turned the summit into a no-go area for men. Dido's album, already the biggest-seller of 2001, sold a further 84,000 copies last week to take its overall sales past half a million, and its 2001 tally to more than 400,000. Anastacia's album sold 40,000 to jump 8-4 in the 2001 rankings with 189,000 sales. Cassidy's Songbird was the most impressive of the three, however, enjoying a 65% expansion in sales while the market as a whole shrunk by 4%. Songbird sold a best-yet 24,500 to boost its total sales to more than 167,000.

SALES UPDATE

It may not have been such a female-dominated top three had James A Johnston's World Wrestling Federation

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 42.7% US: 48.0% Other: 9.3%

Volume 5 - The Music not been disqualified from the chart. The album, which features Johnston's renditions of 'entrance themes' of fighters like 'The One Billy Gunn' and 'K-Kwik', also features Motorhead and Slick Rick, was as high as number two in early sales flashes. It was subsequently ruled out, however, as it infringes chart regulations which forbid the inclusion of hyperlinks, having two in its enhanced section. Another woman making strident progress up the chart is Dolly Parton, whose 'back to basics' bluegrass album Little Sparrow soars from its debut position of 71 to 30 this week, while Gold - The Hits Collection debuts at number 23. Parton is currently in the UK, and her media blitz has given her massive exposure, resulting not only in her having two albums in the chart simultaneously for the first time but also giving her the highest ranked hits and regular studio albums of her career, her previous peaks being number 24 for the 1978 compilation Both Sides Now, and number 41 for the 1998 studio album Hungry Again.

COMPILATIONS

As the sector which benefits most from Valentine's Day gift buying, compilations contract further and faster than any other once the day has passed, and this year is no exception, with compilation sales shrinking by 19% last week from 652,500 to 525,500. One album which remains exempt from the fallback is the Ministry Of Sound compilation The Chillout Session, which is number one for the third straight week, with sales of just over 49,000 representing a downturn of just 247 in the week. The album, which includes subdued versions of Barber's Adagio For Strings by William Orbit, Heart Of Asia by Watergate and Is It Too Late Now? by World Party, is joined in the Top 10 by two other Ministry Of Sound albums, the Masterstepz mix collection Real Garage jumping 11-6, and Hard Energy debuting at number 10. In each of its three weeks at number one, The Chillout Session has triumphed by only a small margin, narrowly beating off Passion for the first two weeks, and ending up just a couple of thousand ahead of new challenger The New Pepsi Chart Album this week. Passion's fate, by the way, is typical of that of 'love songs' albums in the post-Valentine's Day period, as it slumps 2-16. Further evidence of a similar kind is provided by the budget sector, where Love Power Volume 2, Love Hurts and Classics For Lovers gave a distinctly soppy look to the top three last week but now fall to 31, 33 and 34 respectively.
