THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

10 MARCH 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Outselling its nearest challenger by a margin of greater than three to one, and single-handedly commanding a 25% share of the singles market last week, Shaggy and Ricardo 'RikRok' Ducent's It Wasn't Me storms to the top of the chart. Technically, it debuts at number one but the main CD catalogue number for the UK release is identical to the continental import which propelled the record to number 31 last week. Had Shaggy's label MCA/Universal elected to do so, they could have insisted the previous sales history of the record was linked to the UK release, which would have given the record a further 22,000 sales in its cumulative total, while making a 31-1 move, which would have been the greatest surge to number one in chart history. Shaggy and Ducent - Shaggy himself is on the mic for less than a minute of the 3m 45s song, while Ducent provides most of the vocals - dethrone Atomic Kitten's four week topper Whole Again,

SINGLE FACTFILE

37 years to the week after Millie became the first Jamaican recording artist to have a UK hit with My Boy Lollipop, Shaggy and Ricardo 'RikRok' Ducent register the 10th number one by an act from the sunshine island with It Wasn't Me, which sold a massive 345,000 copies last week. Although that is fewer than the 359,000 copies sold by Bob The Builder's Can We Fix It? the week before Christmas, it's the highest first week sale by any single in over two years, the last record to register higher being Britney Spears' Baby One More Time, which sold nearly 464,000 copies on its debut in February 1999. Shaggy was the last Jamaican to have a UK number one too, reaching pole position in 1995 with Boombastic. He also topped the chart in 1993 with Oh Carolina, and is the only Jamaican to have more than one UK number one.

MCA/Universal. Despite its enormous debut sales, It Wasn't Me may have to sell more than 200,000 copies this week to advance to the top of the year-to-date chart, still occupied by Atomic Kitten's Whole Again, which dipped a mere 3% week-on-week, selling more than 109,500 last week to bring its overall sales tally to more than 479,000, with sales of another 100,000 or so likely next week.

The Manic Street Preachers have had more hits than any other act who emerged in the 1990s, and they simultaneously register their 24th and 25th hits with So Why So Sad and Found That Soul in nine and ten respectively, with sales of 37,000 and 33,000. They are the first act since Meat Loaf (December 1993/January 1994) to have two simultaneous Top 10 hits.

Following Portuguese-born Rui Da Silva's recent success, Portuguese/Canadian Nelly Furtado makes a big impact with her first single I'm Like A Bird reaching number five.

CHART COMMENTARY

ALBUMS FACTFILE
Having registered their first ever Top 5 single with Loco in February, the Fun Lovin' Criminals now debut at number five with their album of the same name. Surprisingly that's not the group's highest ever album chart position, since they debuted at number three with 1998's 100% Colombian. The 33,000 copies Loco sold last week is more than some albums sell when they debut at number one, and only a little down on the first week tally of 35,500 registered by 100% Colombian. Loco is the Fun' Lovin' Criminals' fourth album, and if it performs anything like the first three it will have a long shelf-life. All were among the Top 500 sellers of 2000, with the 1996 debut Come Find Yourself at number 228 with sales of nearly 58,000; 1999's Mimosa ranked 215 with 40,000 sales; and 100% Colombian in 487th place with 26,000 sales.

Rock solid at number one despite hefty gains from Brits winners Coldplay and U2, Dido's No Angel completes its fifth week at the summit, selling a further 83,000 copies as it becomes the longest-running number one album by a female solo artist since Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill in 1996. No Angel has sold just short of 600,000 copies to date, with nearly half a million sales so far this year.

The Brits effect was significantly smaller than in some previous years with the total sales uplift for the latest albums by award-winning artists coming to less than 80,000. Coldplay's Parachutes contributed nearly half the gain, increasing its sales from 19,000 a fortnight ago to more than 56,500 last week. U2's All That You Can't Leave Behind is a big winner too, upping its sales from just short of 18,000 to more than 38,000. The Coldplay and U2 albums jump 8-2 and 10-3 on the chart as a consequence.

SALES UPDATE

VERSUS LAST WEEK: +12.9%

YEAR TO DATE VERSUS LAST YEAR: +8.4%

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 42.7% US: 48.0% Other: 9.3%

In percentage terms, neither the 197% increase registered by Parachutes nor the 116% jump of All That You Can't Leave Behind was the biggest by a Brits winner - that honour falls to Sonique's Hear My Cry, which jumps 78-28 with sales up 252% from 2,824 to 9,956, though even that is small beer compared to the 449% jump in sales of classical tenor Russell Watson's The Voice, which surges 82-18 following a South Bank show profile a week last Sunday (25 February). Other Brits winners increases: Robbie Williams (66%), Madonna (30%) and Eminem (29%), while minuscule gains were recorded by Kellis and Fatboy Slim. In what must be a first, however, two boy bands' latest albums actually saw their sales dip even though the groups won awards. A1's The A List and Westlife's Coast To Coast both turned in 14% falls in a week when the market was up 13%.

Koch quickly turned around a new pressing of James A. Johnston's WWF The Music - Volume 5 without the chart-ineligible hyperlinks which initial copies of the album included. The album would have debuted at number three last week and makes its belated bow this week at number 11.

COMPILATIONS

With the Brits focusing attention on artist albums, the compilation sector shrunk again last week, and has dwindled by 27% in the last fortnight. The only album to buck the trend is, for obvious reasons, the Brit Awards 2001 - Album Of The Year set from Columbia, which leaps 8-3 this week with a 122% jump in sales, on top of the 38% gain it made the week before. After three weeks in the shops, the album has sold 46,500 copies, putting it on course to easily beat the 63,000 sales of its 2000 equivalent.

Meanwhile, the Ministry Of Sound's first album of mellow music, The Chillout Session remains at number one for a fourth week. Featuring less frenetic mixes of tracks like Heart Of Asia by Watergate, it sold a further 42,000 copies last week to take its total sales past the 170,000 mark - the highest for a compilation this year. Although it sold fewer copies last week than the previous week it still accounts for one in every 11 compilations sold, a 9% share of the sector, which is unusual for any album which is not a Now! release.

With no new releases making a major impact on the chart, the Top 10 are simply reshuffled this week, while the highest new entry is The Natural Blues Album, a Universal release which debuts at number 13 after selling nearly 6,000 copies. A 42 track double which takes its name from the Moby hit, it spans nearly 50 years, with tracks of varying degrees of ethnicity and authenticity, including I'm In The Mood by John Lee Hooker and Try A Little Tenderness by the Commitments
