MUSIC WEEK 5 MAY 2001

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

5 MAY 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

With previously released albums by the Stereophonics and Dido joining new albums by Ash, Feeder and Janet Jackson in a five way tussle, it was hard to predict which one would turn out to be number one this week. In the end sales of 32,300 left Feeder's Echo Park in fifth, while Dido finished fourth with 35,500, the Stereophonics placed third with 36,100 and Janet Jackson was runner-up with 36,900 signalling Ash's second number one with Free All Angels selling more than 39,900 copies.

The group last topped the chart in 1996 with 1977, which achieved first week sales of more than 54,000 and went on to sell over 376,000 copies. However their follow-up and most recent album Nu Clear Sounds was a disappointment, selling less than 23,000 copies on its first week to peak at number seven and only 93,000 in total since its 1998 release. Ash, the Stereophonics and Feeder's presence in the top five is the

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Pitted against new albums by Ash and Feeder, Janet Jackson's All For You was always going to have a tough time to reach number one. In the end, although it managed to overtake Feeder and outsold Ash in the latter half of the week, All For You has to settle for a number two debut after selling just short of 37,000 copies. All For You is Jackson's sixth straight Top 10 album and, although it failed to deliver her second number one, it sold more copies last week than either her last album Velvet Rope, which opened with fewer than 19,000 sales in 1997 or Janet, which topped the chart in 1993 with 31,000 sales. All For You includes the controversial Son Of A Gun, based on Carly Simon's You're So Vain, featuring Simon herself rapping and, incidentally, categorically denying that the song was about Mick Jagger.

album since its release nine months ago exceed 1,137,000 or 28 times the 40,000 copies Boyzone colleague Stephen Gately's New Beginning has sold since its release last July, although even Gately's sales dwarf those of another Boyzone member Mikey Graham, whose Meet Me Halfway album has apparently sold fewer than 1,000 copies in the fortnight since it was released.

Madonna tour fever helped to whip up new enthusiasm for her Music album which vaults 31-18 this week with sales jumping 68%. Fellow Warner Music star Faith Hill makes the Top 20 for the first time with her album Breathe, which jumps 24-19, eclipsing the number 21 peak it achieved when first released last June.

American metal act Fear Factory always chart in the 20s, and their new album Immortal is no exception debuting this week at number 24. It sold 9,000 copies last week - their highest first week sale.

COMPILATIONS

Since the compilation chart was established in 1989, no regular Now! album has spent fewer than three weeks at number one, although Now! 38 was replaced at the summit after two weeks by the Diana - Princess Of Wales tribute album before returning for a further fortnight. Against this backdrop, although Now! 48 sold more copies on its first week in the shops than any previous album in the series it looked like it might have to surrender its throne after just two weeks on top, with the soundtrack album Bridget Jones's Diary pushing it hard. In the end, Now! 48 managed to hold on, with sales of 98,400 giving it a 6,000 majority. Now! 48 has sold 551,000 copies in the last three weeks, and is, impressively, 150,000 ahead of the pace set by last year's equivalent

Now! album - Now! 45 - at the same stage of its life. Now! 45 sold 72,000 copies on its third week.

Now! 48 seems likely to lose out to Bridget Jones next week. Its sales fell 36% last week, while its rival improved by 7%. The Bridget Jones album has sold more than 178,000 copies in a fortnight to become, already, the third biggest seller of the year, trailing only Now! 48 and The Chillout Session, which sold a further 10,000 copies on its 12th straight week in the Top 10 to take its come to 386,000.

With an unchanged top three, the highest new entry to the chart comes from Universal Music TV's Disco Fever, which debuts at number four with sales of more than 12,700 - an excellent performance for an album in an already overcrowded field.
