THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

2 JUNE 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

After a couple of weeks in the doldrums, the singles market improved by 32% last week, heralding the simultaneous arrival of six new entries to the Top 10. These include only one established act (Radiohead), one developing act (Dido) and no fewer than four debut acts (DJ Pied Piper, Blue, 3LW and Sunshine Anderson).

It is the first time this year that we have had so many new acts make their debut simultaneously in the Top 10 and, well though they have done, the three R&B acts (Blue, 3LW and Sunshine Anderson) are easily overshadowed by new garage sensation DJ Pied Piper, whose Do You Really Like It snared more than 148,500 buyers last week.

The record is the first release on the Relentless label to reach number one and gives further hope that the recently faltering garage scene may yet be on the up again. After a fairly quiet spell for the genre, Oxide & Neutrino's Up Middle Finger debuted at number seven last week to give them their third straight Top 10 hit. That is the longest current sequence of any garage act, as the previously 100% Top 10 records of Artful Dodger and DJ Luck & MC Neat both came to a halt the same week in February when they debuted at 11 and 12 with Think About Me and Piano Loco respectively.

After being sampled on Eminem's chart-topping Stan, Dido's Thank You makes the chart in its own right this week, debuting at number three after selling more than 51,000 copies. It therefore eclipses the number four peak position of the previous Dido single Here With Me, although the latter title sold nearly 63,000 copies on its first week.

The Offspring's single Want You Bad debuted at number 15 back in March and proceeded to decline, eventually dropping out of the Top 75 four weeks ago. Since then it has made a recovery, bounding 78-71-49-34, with sales up 82% a fortnight ago and 103% last week. We usually give reasons for things like this, but in this case, we have to admit we just don't know.

Contrary to what was reported in this column last week, S Club 7's number one hit Don't Stop Movin' has not been added to their 7 album.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

It is beginning to look a lot like Christmas. We could not be further away from the record industry's favourite season but the chart is filling up with compilations in a manner usually only seen in December. Two legendary Bobs – one live, one dead – have new entries to the Top 10 this week with best of sets, while the Top 15 includes similar sets from Eddy Grant, Billy Joel and Wings as well as a live best of from Bon Jovi.

The Bobs we refer to are, of course, the late Robert Nesta Marley and Bob Dylan, whose 60th birthday excited a media frenzy last week. In response to the great man's milestone, Columbia unleashed The Essential Bob Dylan, a double album set which debuts this week at number nine after selling more than 22,000 copies. It is the 41st chart album of Dylan's career and comes hot on the heels of Greatest Hits (1995), The Best Of Bob Dylan (1997), and The Best Of Bob Dylan Volume 2 (2000). Of these, The Best Of Bob Dylan fared best, reaching number six. The Essential Bob Dylan is his 27th Top 10 album, a total surpassed only by Elvis Presley, Cliff Richard, the Rolling Stones and Frank Sinatra.

ALBUMS FACTFILE

It is more than 20 years since Bob Marley died and a little over 17 years since Island released Legend, which has since gone on to become the biggest-selling reggae album worldwide. It topped the UK chart for 12 weeks in a row – no other album has managed this since – and is one of the 20 biggest-selling albums of all-time domestically. Its mass appeal continues, with sales recovering from 70,000 in 1998 to 132,000 in 1999 and a remarkable 175,000 last year. Marley's widow Rita described it as "perfect" – but Island are improving on perfection and have released One Love – The Very Best Of Bob Marley & The Wailers as its successor. The new album – which includes several tracks not on Legend – debuts this week at number five, with sales of 32,000, while Legend – which, confusingly, is to be revamped as a double album shortly – retreats from 109 to 181.

REM's Reveal suffered a 52% decline in sales last week but the 53,000 copies it did sell were enough for it to retain pole position, finishing up 7,500 sales ahead of Shaggy's Hot Shot.

With airplay for the upcoming single Angel still increasing at a rapid rate, Hot Shot jumps 4-2 this week, the highest position of its career. Its sales increased 24% week-on-week against a 7% decline in the market overall, and it has now topped the 250,000 sales mark.

Last week we implied that the resurgence of Don't Stop Movin' to the set. Our information was incorrect, as the track has most definitely not been grafted on, and we apologise to our friends at Universal for suggesting it had. Nevertheless, 7 continues its upward spiral, moving 40-27 this week, with sales up 36% week-on-week. The album is now just 20,000 short of its millionth sale.

COMPILATIONS

For the fourth week in a row, Bridget Jones's Diary is the number one album while Now That's What I Call Music! 48 is number two. As cinema goers turn their attention to newer movies, the Bridget Jones set's sales are beginning to slide, although they exceeded 50,000 for the sixth week in a row, with more than 59,500 sold in the week taking overall sales to within an ace of 500,000.

Sales of Bridget dipped by 21% last week, while Now! 48 suffered a more moderate 15% decline. There is no chance of the latter album returning to number one, however, as its sales of 33,500 are only just enough to keep it ahead of the chasing pack, with Chilled Ibiza now 3,500 sales behind compared to a 16,000 gap between the two last week. Now! 48 has sold a remarkable 749,000 copies in seven weeks and is far ahead of any previous spring Now! release at the same stage – and is even outpacing some of the series' flagship Christmas albums.

While last week's new entries were all chill-out albums, this week's two new entries are Pure & Simple – a Universal offering comprised entirely of mainstream Top 40 cuts – and I Love 70's, a Virgin/EMI tie-in to the popular BBC2 series which is currently being re-run on Saturday nights. Pure & Simple has the edge, debuting at number seven with nearly 17,000 sales while I Love 70's follows at number nine with more than 10,000 buyers.

We should also note solid sales for the Burt Bacharach compilation The Look Of Love which dips a notch to number six but sold a further 18,000 copies to take its three-week total to 58,000.
